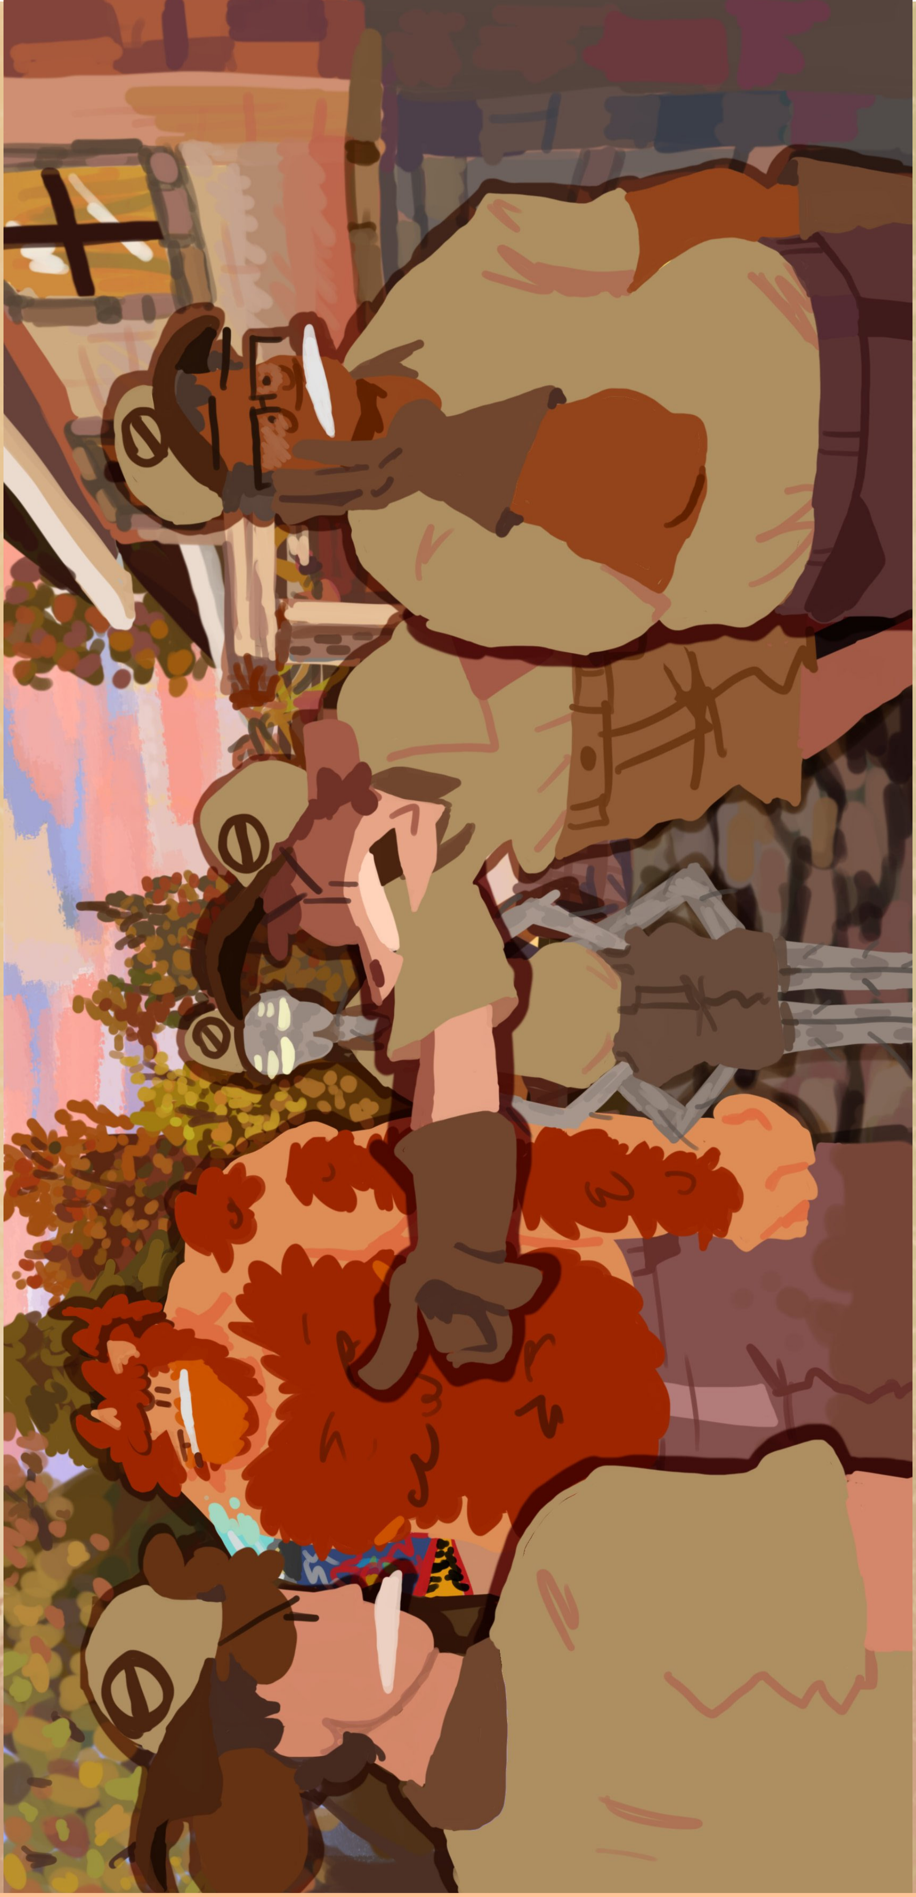
Ted Groghl's Particular Chapter --- 120

This archive will be updated semi-frequently. Bits of commentary are sparse, more may be added later if there's time!

General Older Art

This first clump of stuff is about 2 to 1 years old! Some stuff in here I'm still really proud of, but theres a few subtle things that tick me off - Toby's hair, the structure of some of the expressions, etc. I know this era was heavily weighed upon by me attempting to make my first attempts at Harbor City animated shorts, which were at the time going to be fully hand-drawn animations - I almost went crazy a little bit!! I think this period's writing and characterization is a liiittle flat but I learned!! and i also learned making me make several minutes of hand drawn animation makes me thrash around and screech and be bored, which is probably what pushed me into being up for mixed media for more stuff nowadays.



This art is kind of is part of a special memory to me even though it's a concept for a mostly cancelled animated short - I remember streaming drawing this in my public Discord server (back when I thought it was a good idea to run one) to one other dude in VC and had my baseline social nerves going and was frightened of being in a one-on-one conversation, but found myself in the midst of a lengthy and easy chat with someone who is now one of my best friends who I've gotten to visit and make many silly memories with. It was nice not to have to try too hard to talk good! He is now one of Harbor City's contributors for ideas and designs and jokes and whathaveyou. Hi Mild!!

Very proud of the colors and atmosphere! Very

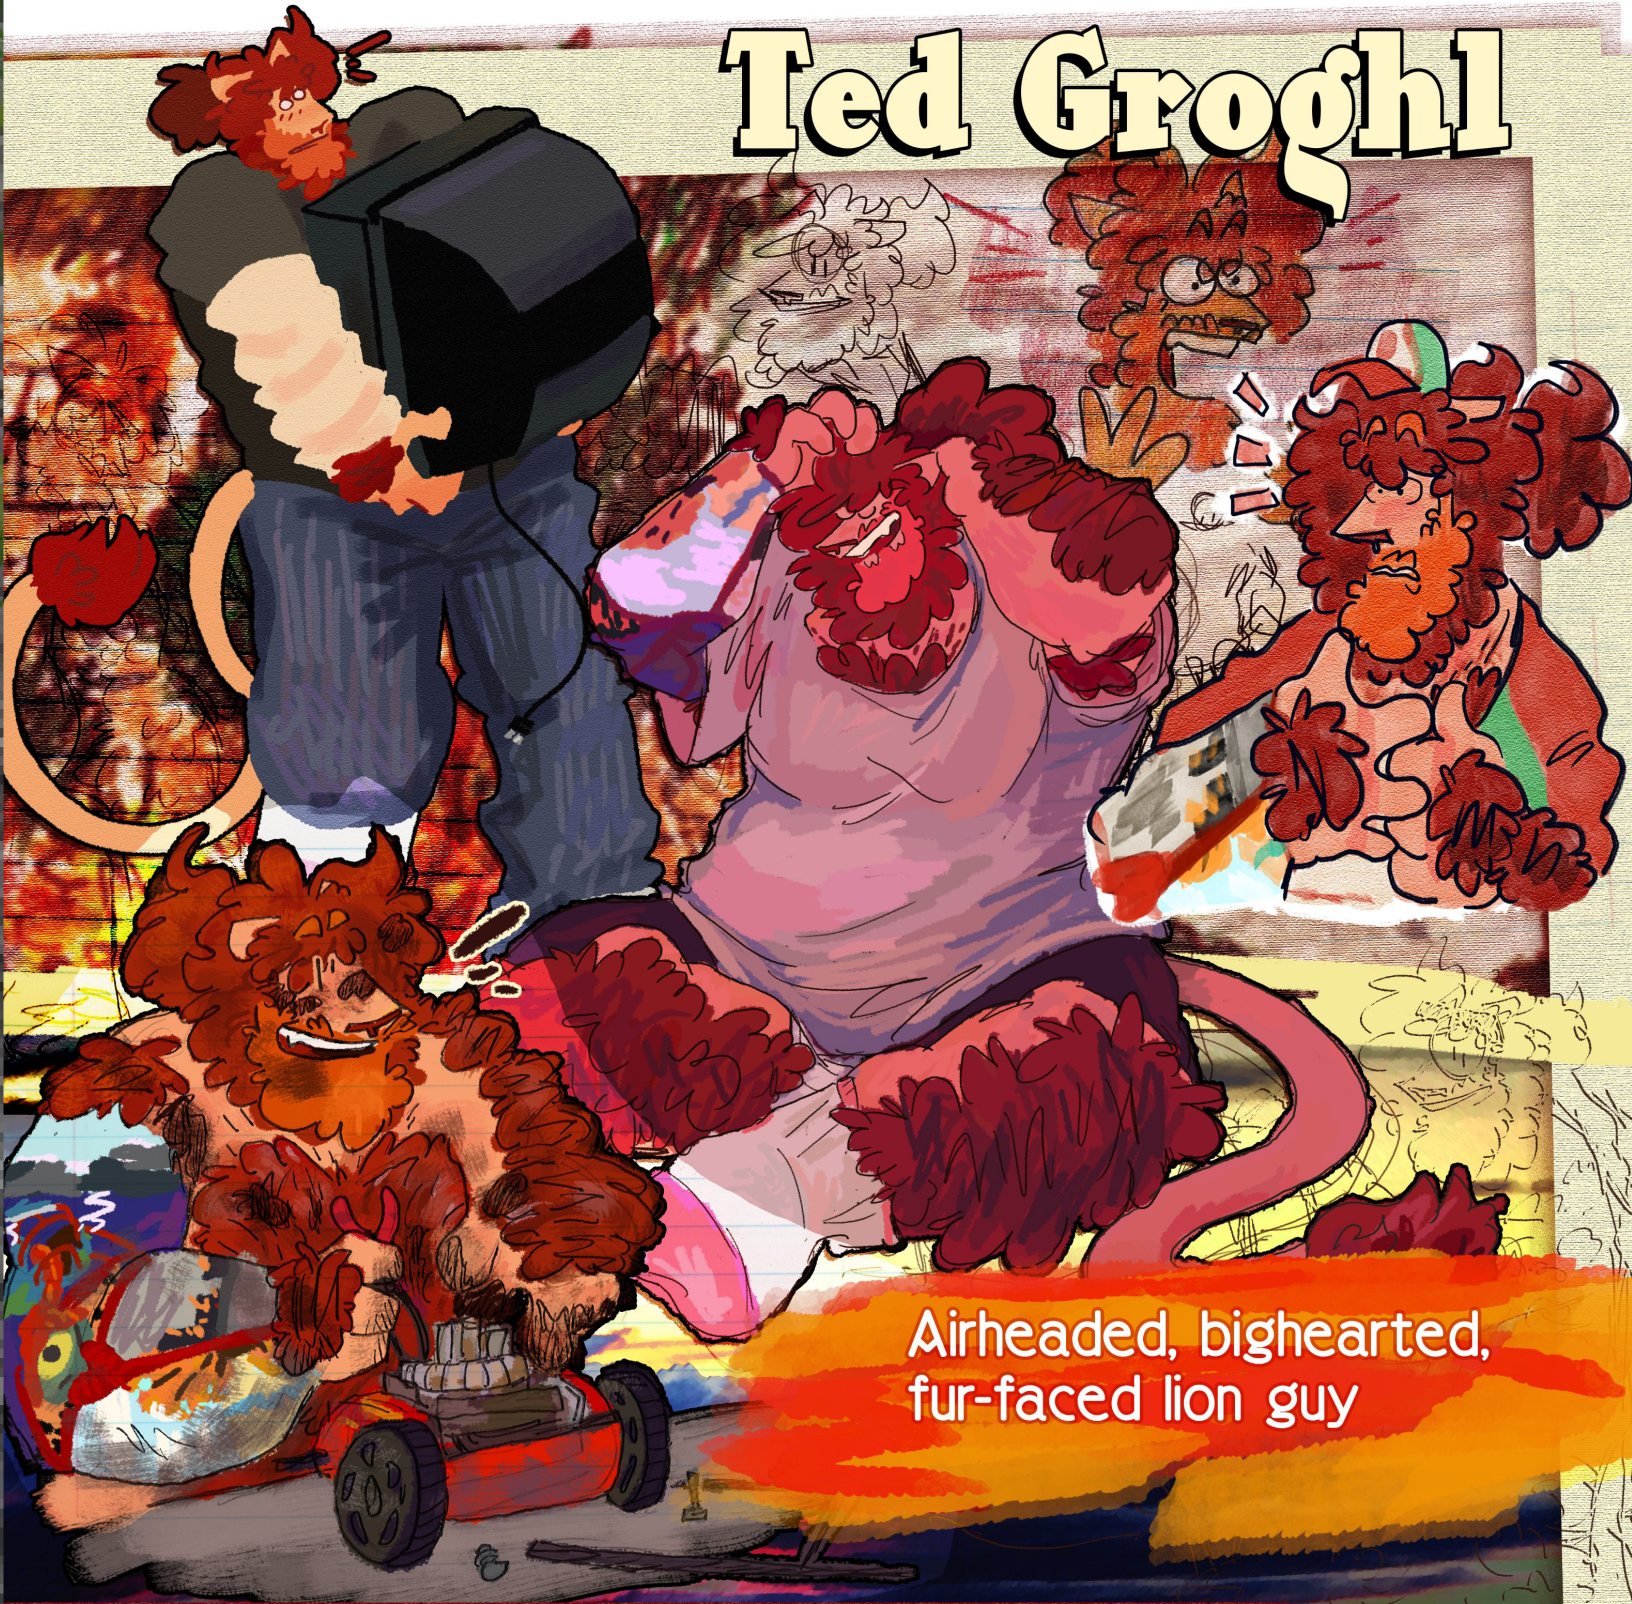
Zine Pages

I tried to make a zine once, made some cool stuff for it!!! It can be found in the following pages.....

Ted Groghl



Airheaded, bighearted, fur-faced lion guy

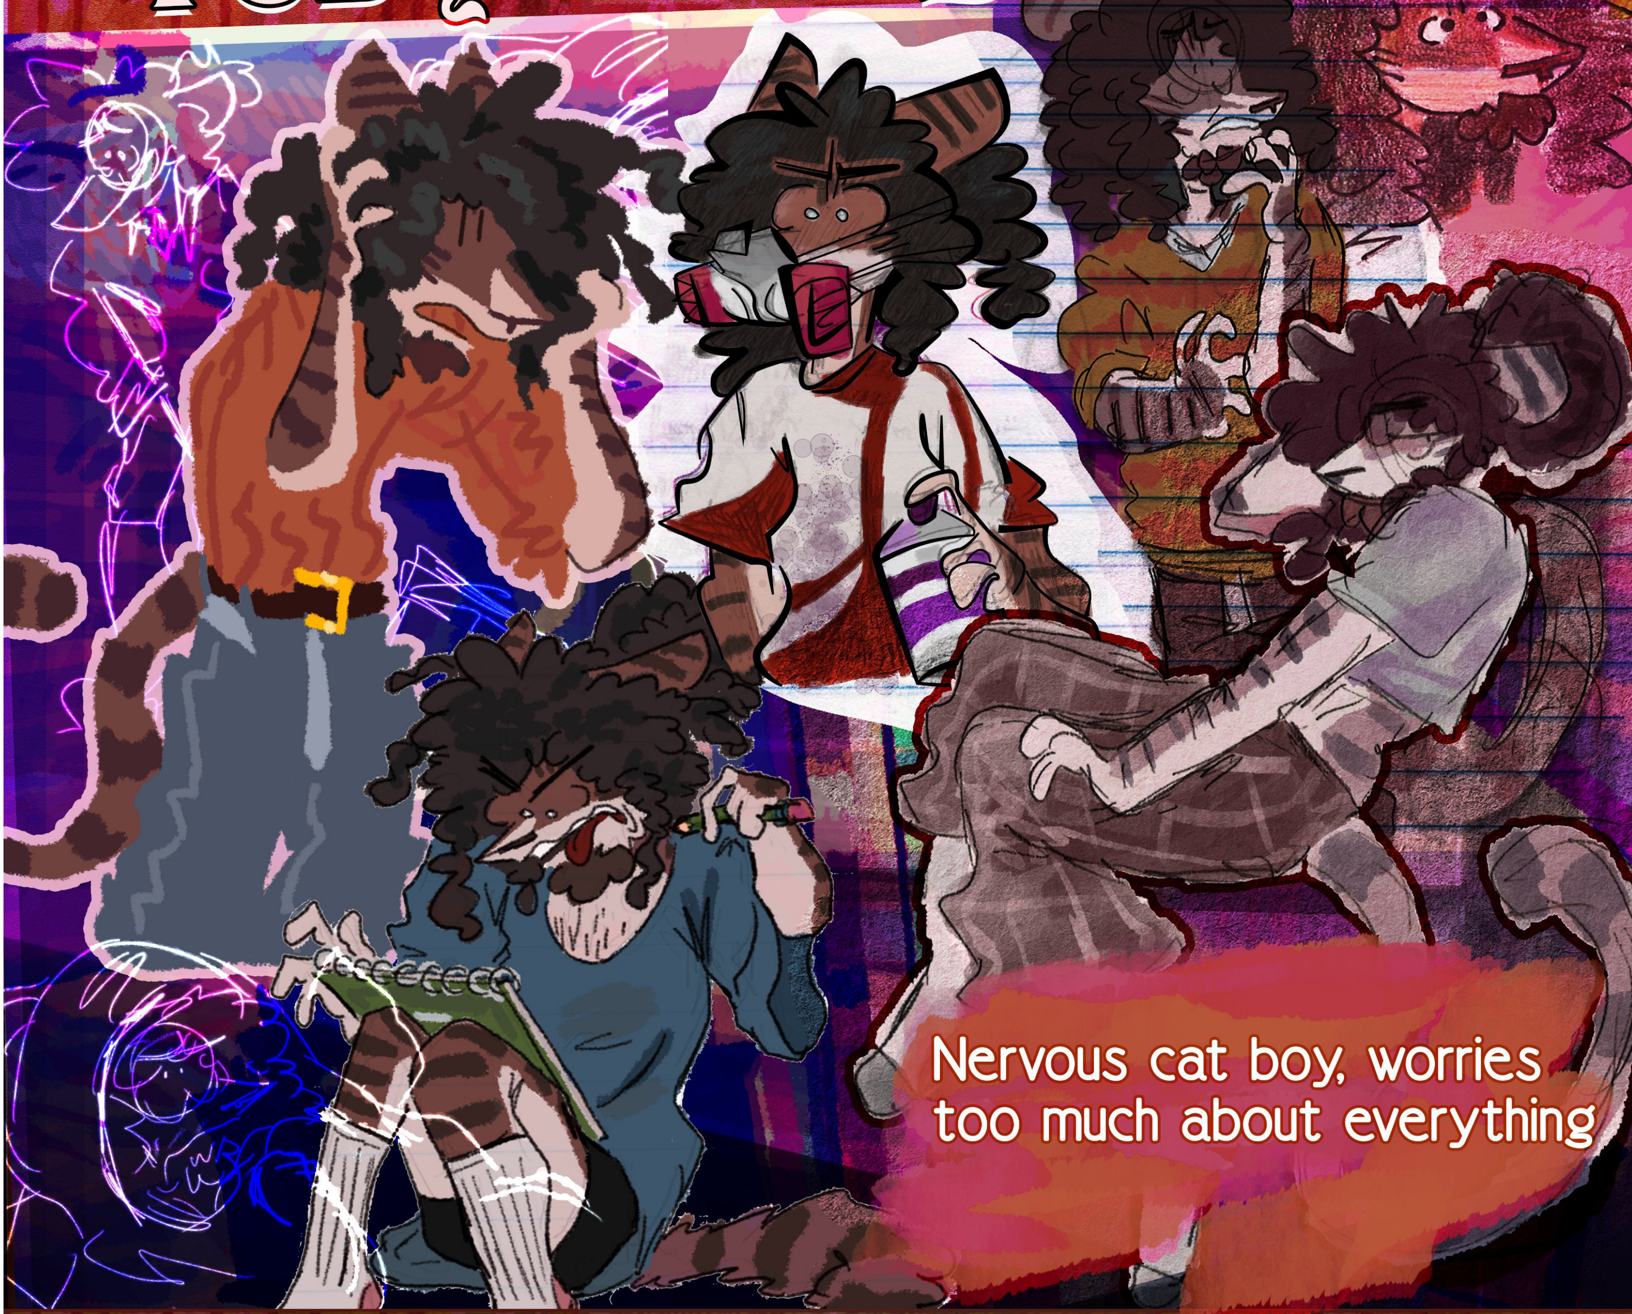
Ted is 21 years old and uses he/they pronouns.

He's happy to be wherever he is, and knows he's worth something to the world even though he has no clue what to do with his life. They're not very self-aware or farsighted, and a little awkward - their conversations with others are often painful to hear. He's the first guy to run up to help when anyone drops a bunch of crap, but usually by the time he's helped get it back in their arms they're sick of him.

Faves:

♥ obsolete video games ♥ infodumping to his friends ♥ speedrun strategies ♥
♥ fiddling with broken stuff ♥ working out ♥ hot dogs and BBQ chips ♥

Toby Young



Nervous cat boy, worries too much about everything

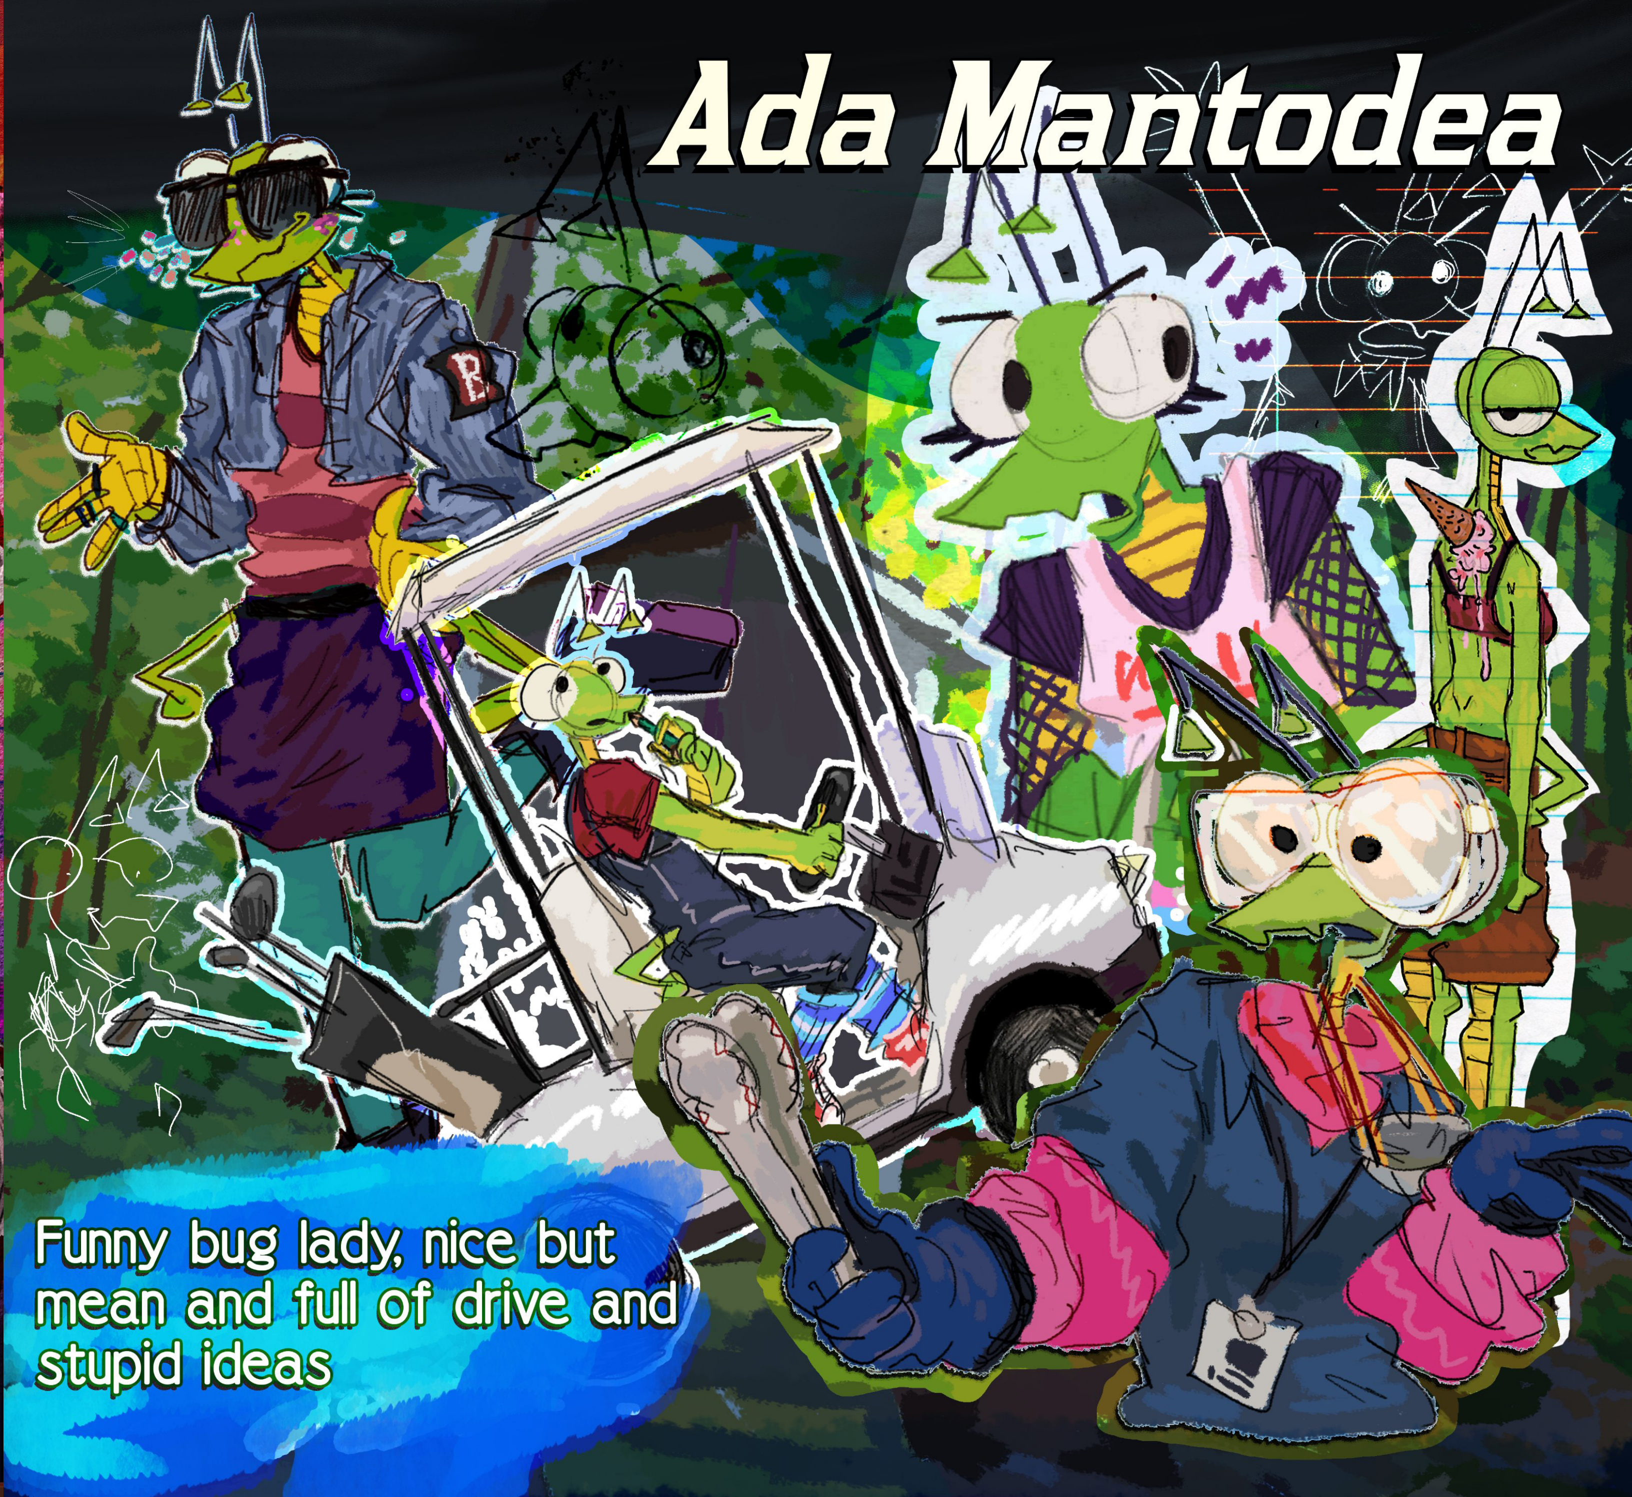
Toby is 20 years old and uses he/him pronouns.

Toby used to be the sort of guy who'd be on the verge of sobbing for days after accidentally stepping on an ant. Then he taught himself to feel nothing to cope with that. Today he's somewhere in between the two, piloted by fear and a desire to not have it. He's close with his friends, but wonders why they should put up with him. Big fan of his house.

Faves:

♥ painting and sketching ♥ visiting exhibitions ♥ blankets ♥
♥ 3D platformers with unique artstyles ♥ bad romance movies ♥ toaster pastries ♥

Ada Mantodea



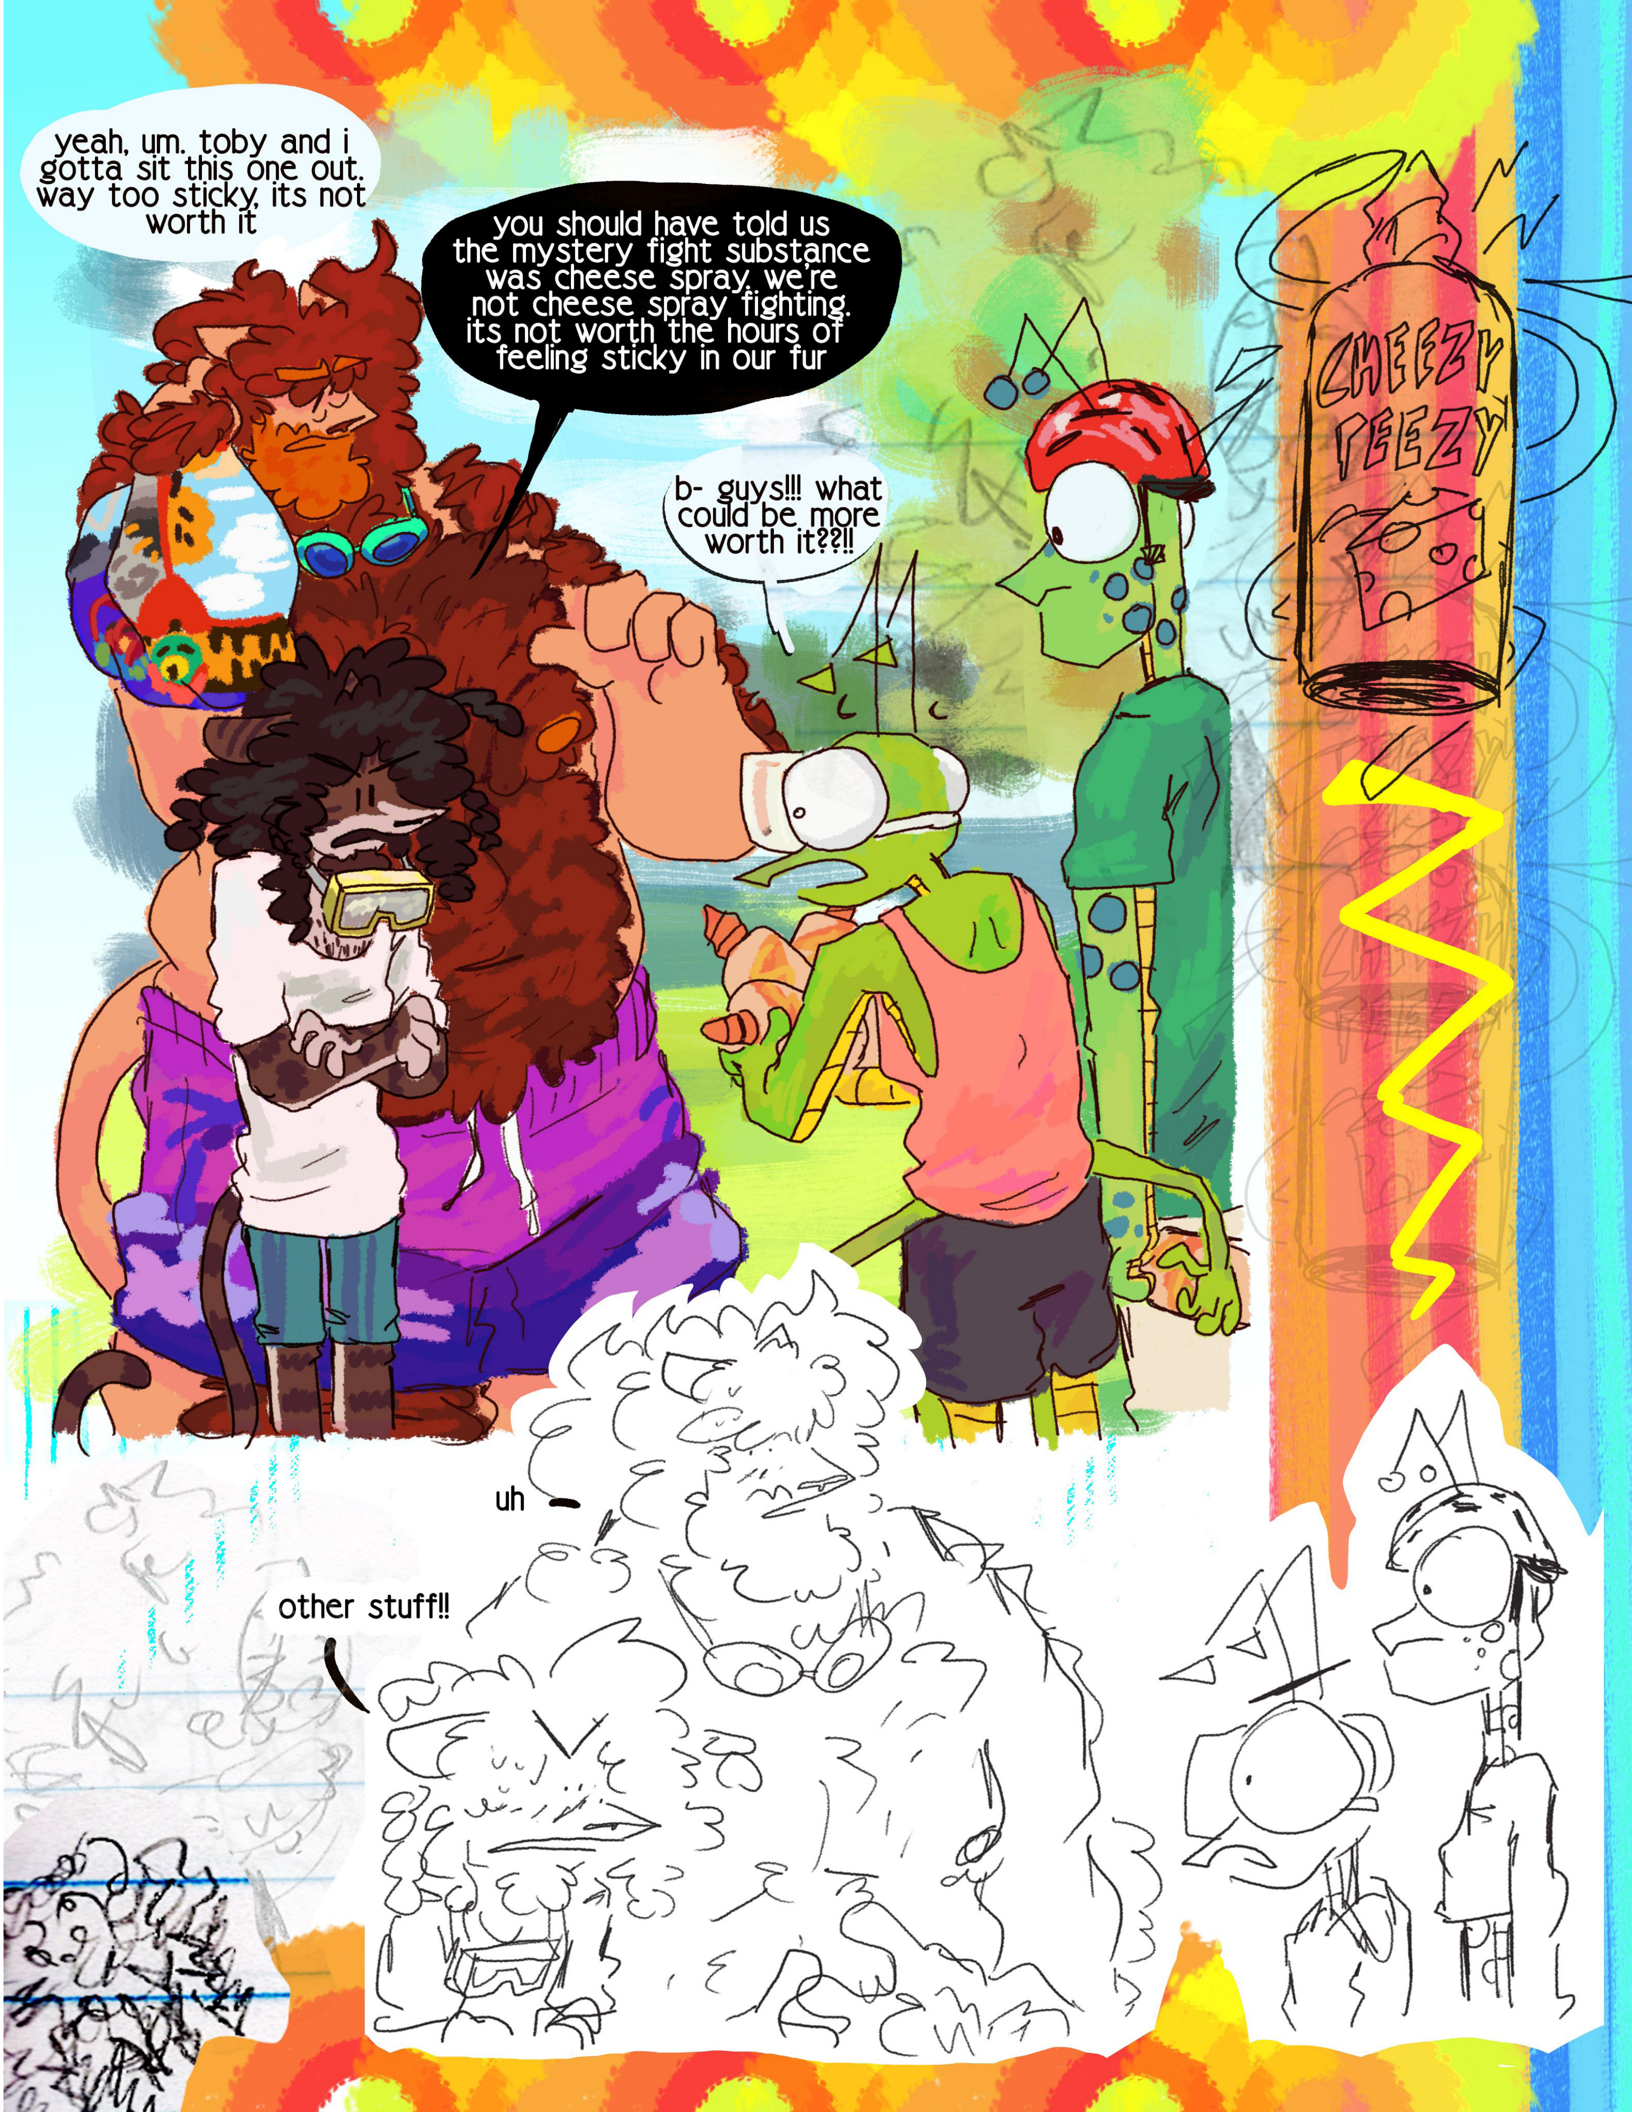
Funny bug lady, nice but mean and full of drive and stupid ideas

Ada is 20 years old and uses she/her pronouns.

If she had one sentence to describe the goals she works toward, she'd answer "try to be rich, famous, and hot". More accurately, she tries to be the great friend you think you'd have by default if you were rich, famous, and hot - she's far better at that than she'd admit. In the meantime, she hops from place to place, singing her brain's hyperactive song and thankfully usually ending up unscathed.

Faves:

♥ funky outfits ♥ going places with friends ♥ short guys ♥
♥ jigsaw puzzles ♥ fighting games ♥ energy drinks and mint cookies ♥



yeah, um. toby and i gotta sit this one out. way too sticky, its not worth it you should have told us the mystery fight substance was cheese spray. we're not cheese spray fighting. its not worth the hours of feeling sticky in our fur b- guys!!! what could be more worth it??!!

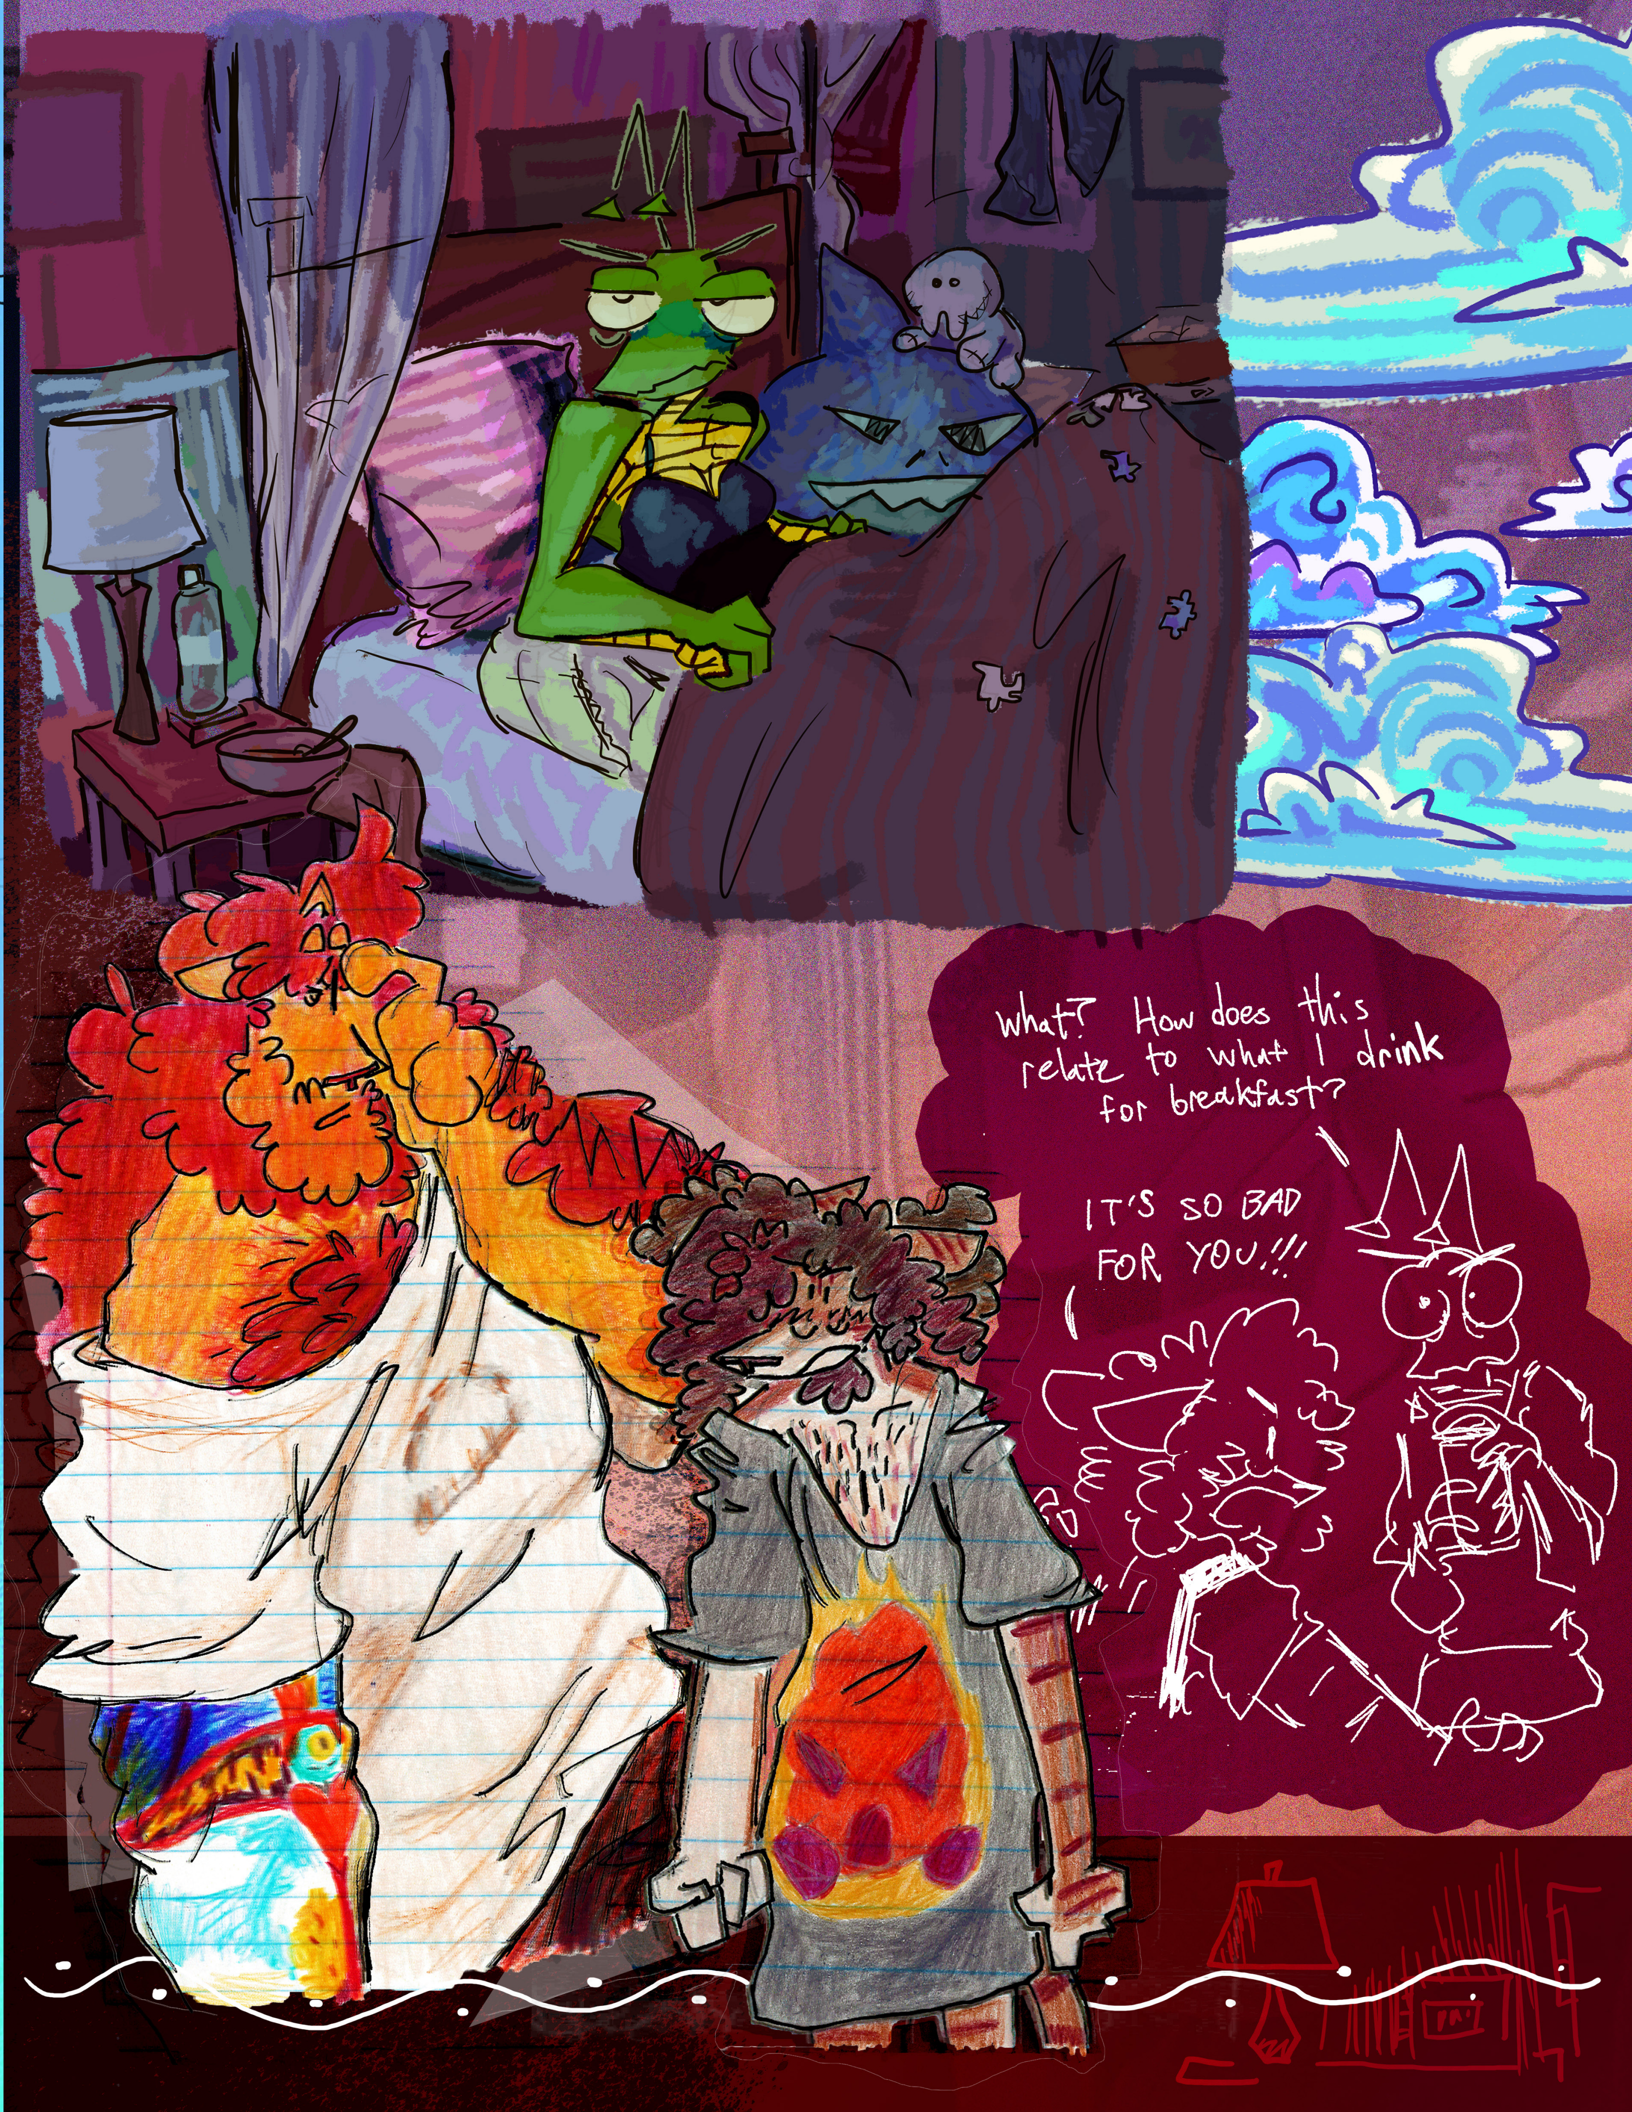
other stuff!!



what? How does this relate to what I drink for breakfast?
IT'S SO BAD FOR YOU!!!

um... it's kind of late for that now, babe dude why did you put so much waffle juice in there. it's just one cup of juice for one waffle.
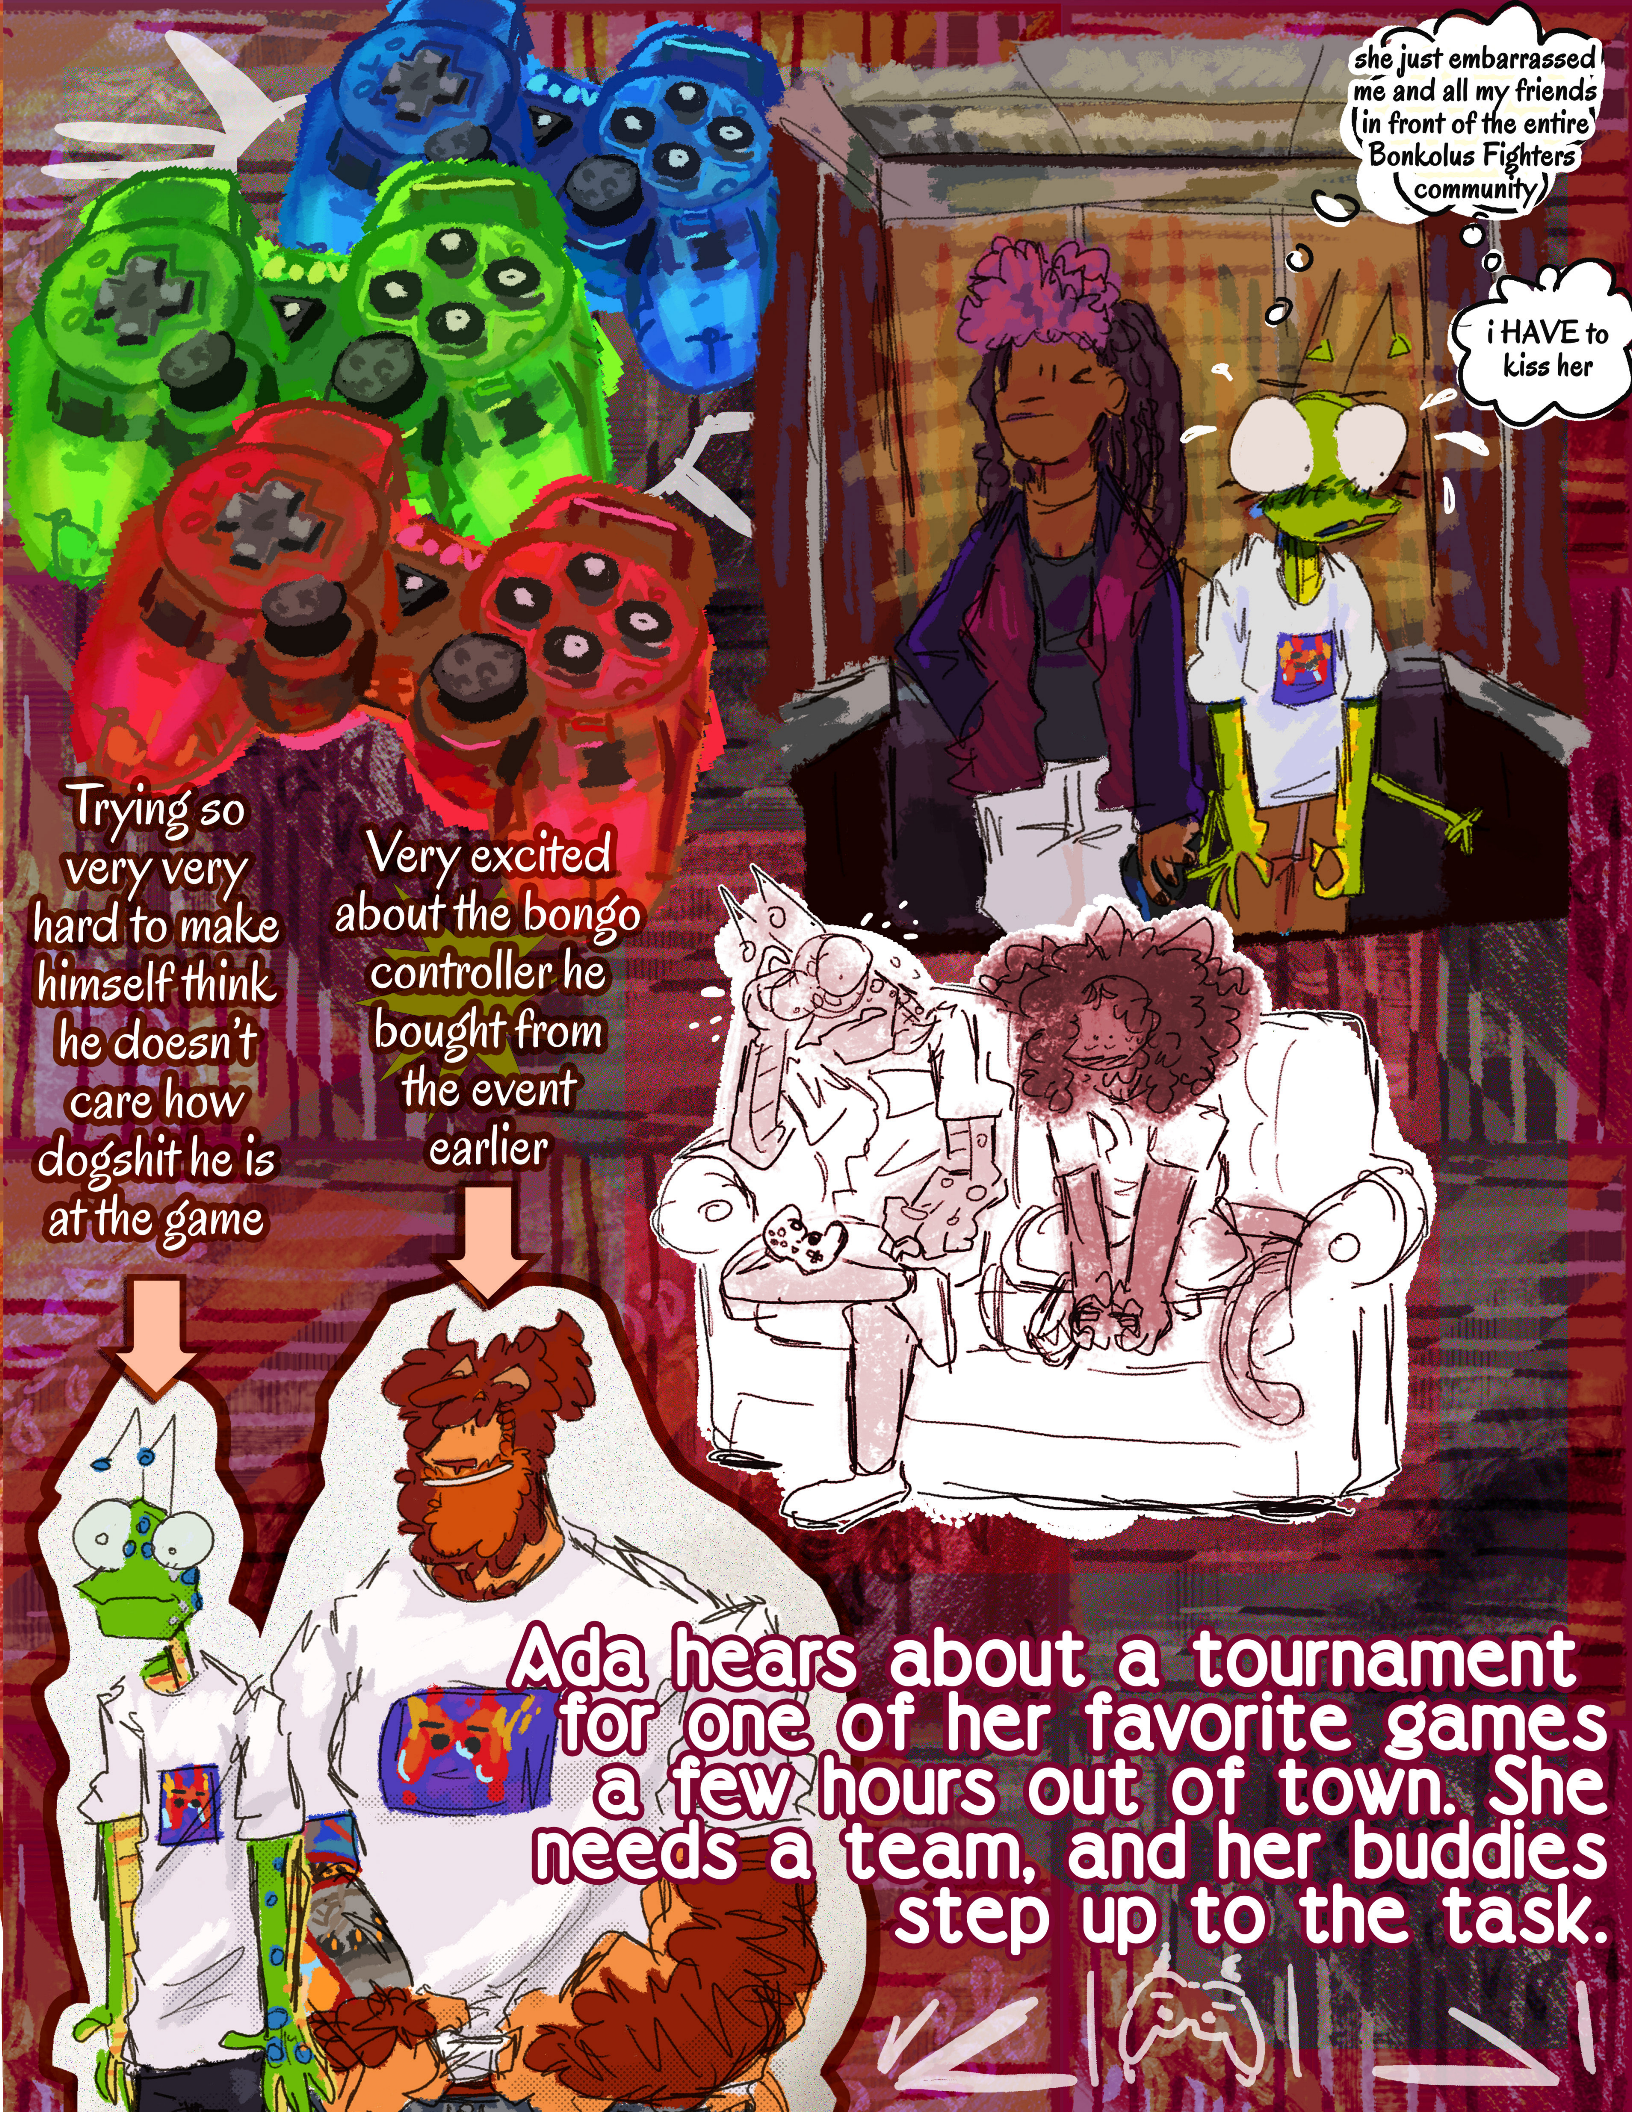
I was excited, i wanted a big one
Ted, I've won three rounds with ONE THUMB
I'm getting there I think!!
Literally forced everyone to come with her to the tourney so she can impress a girl
Designed the team logo, worried everyone is going to think its stupid

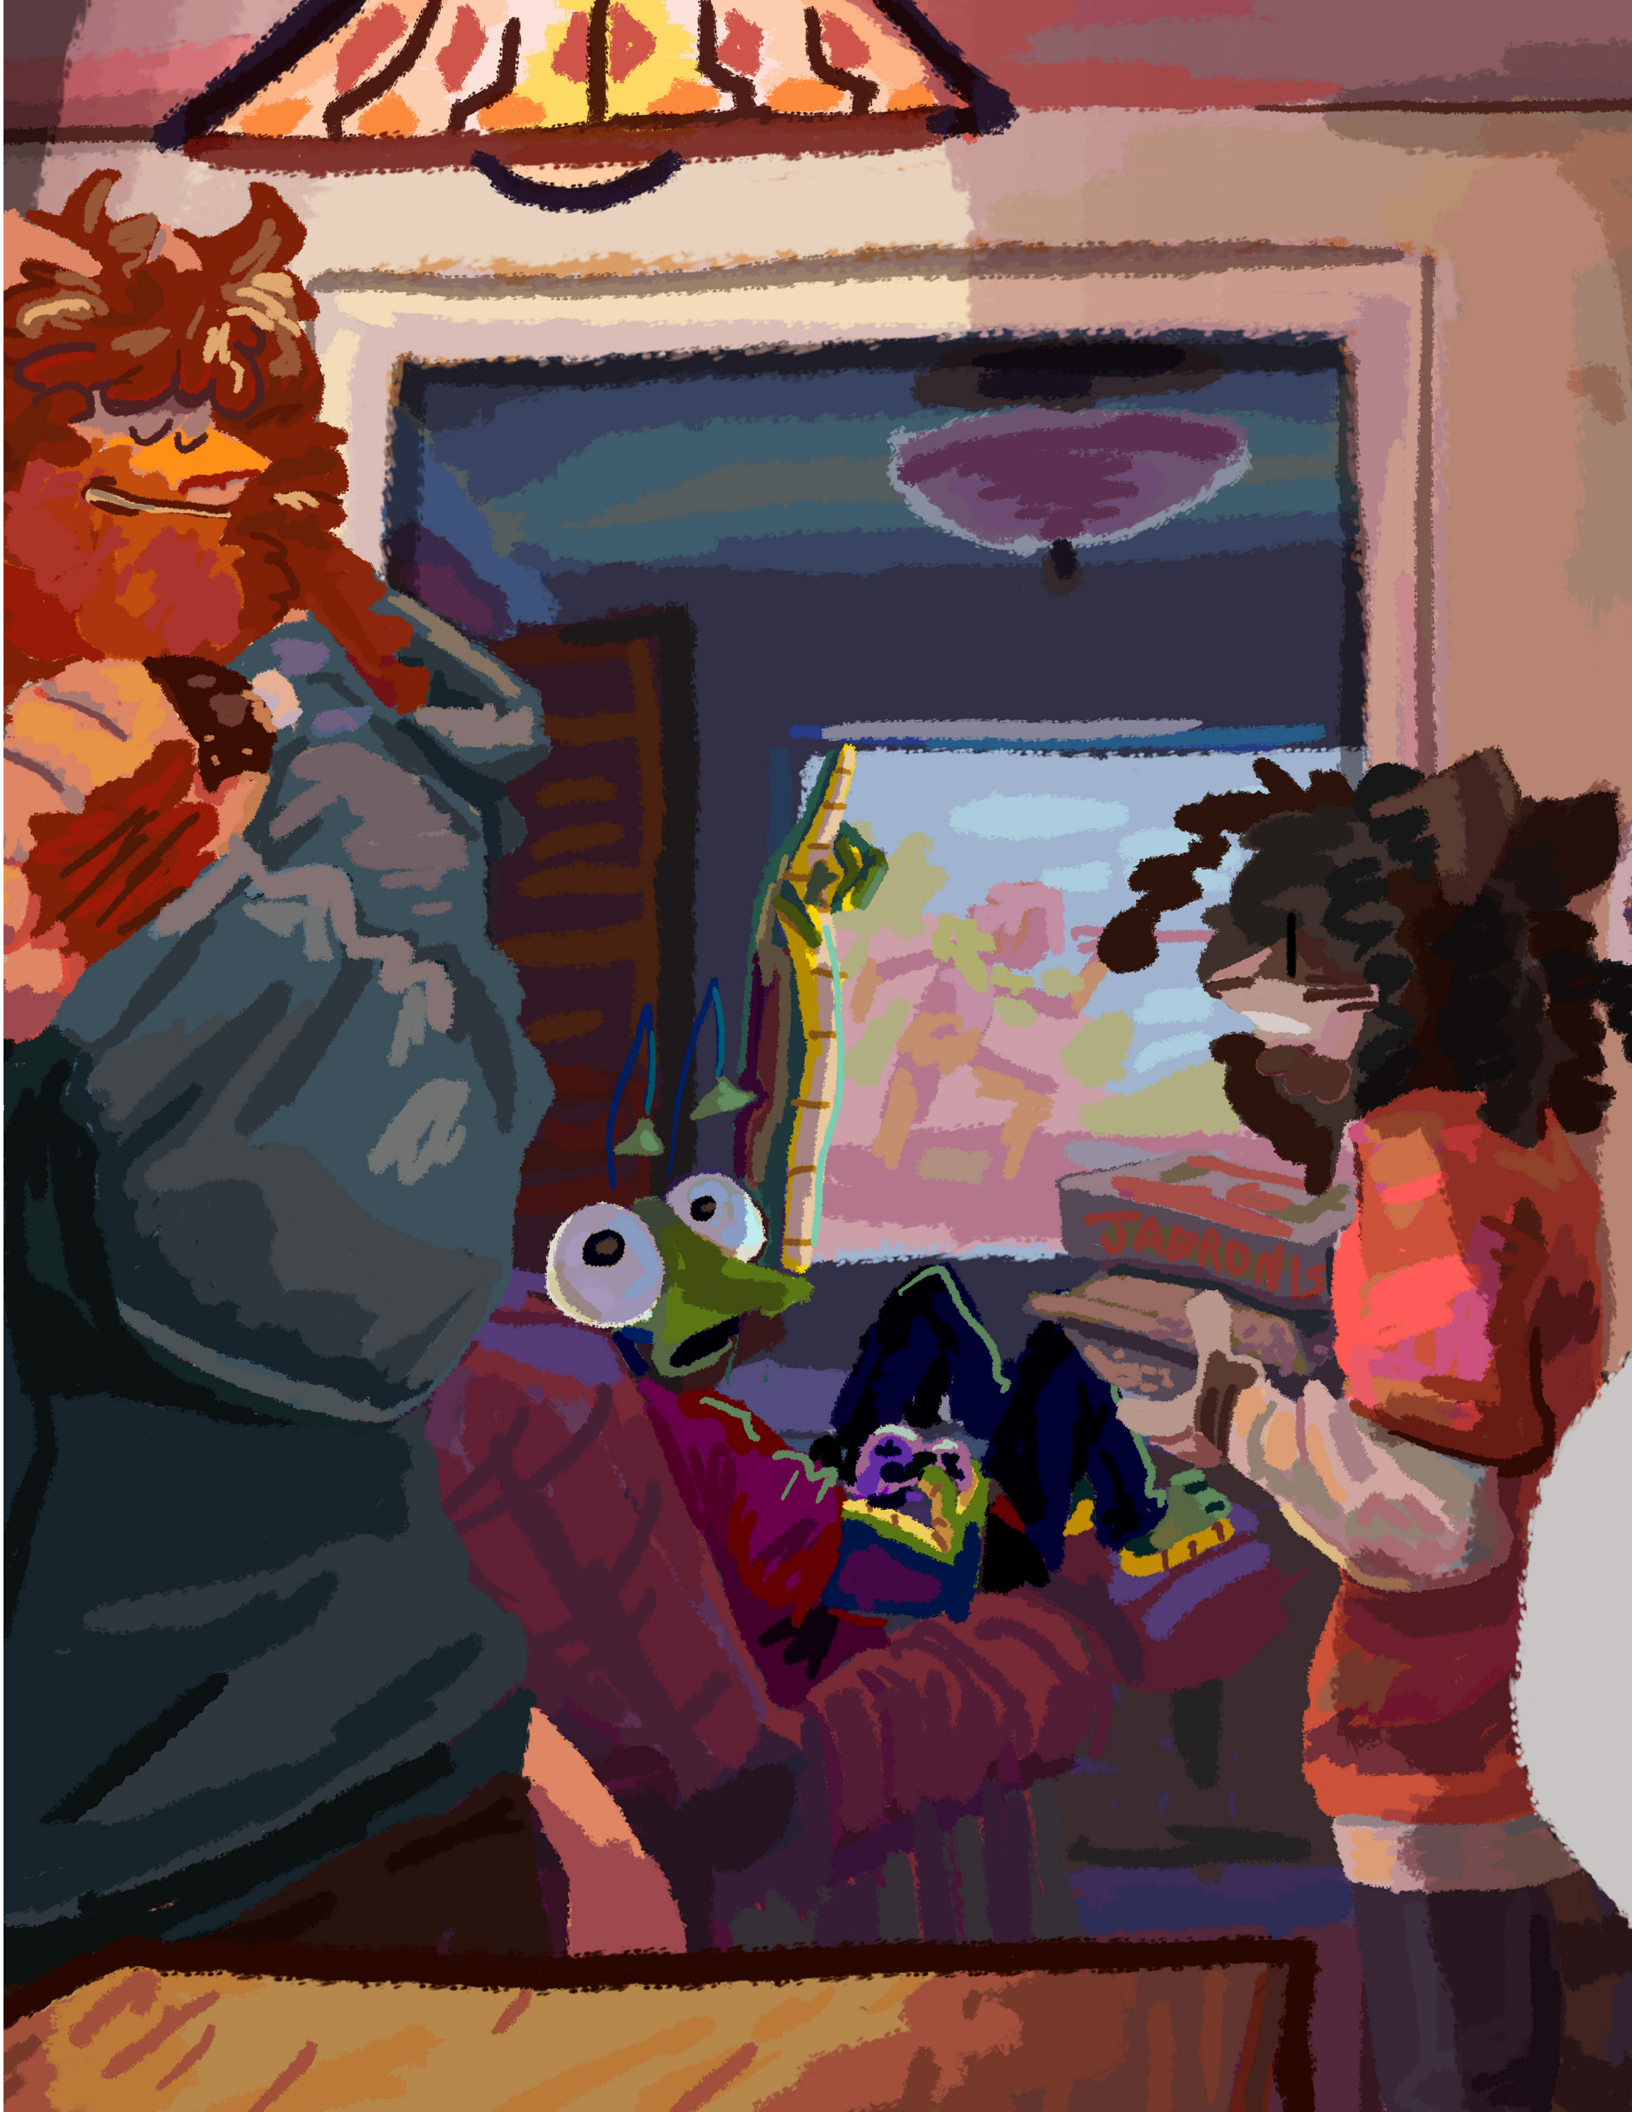


she just embarrassed me and all my friends in front of the entire Bonkolus Fighters community
i HAVE to kiss her

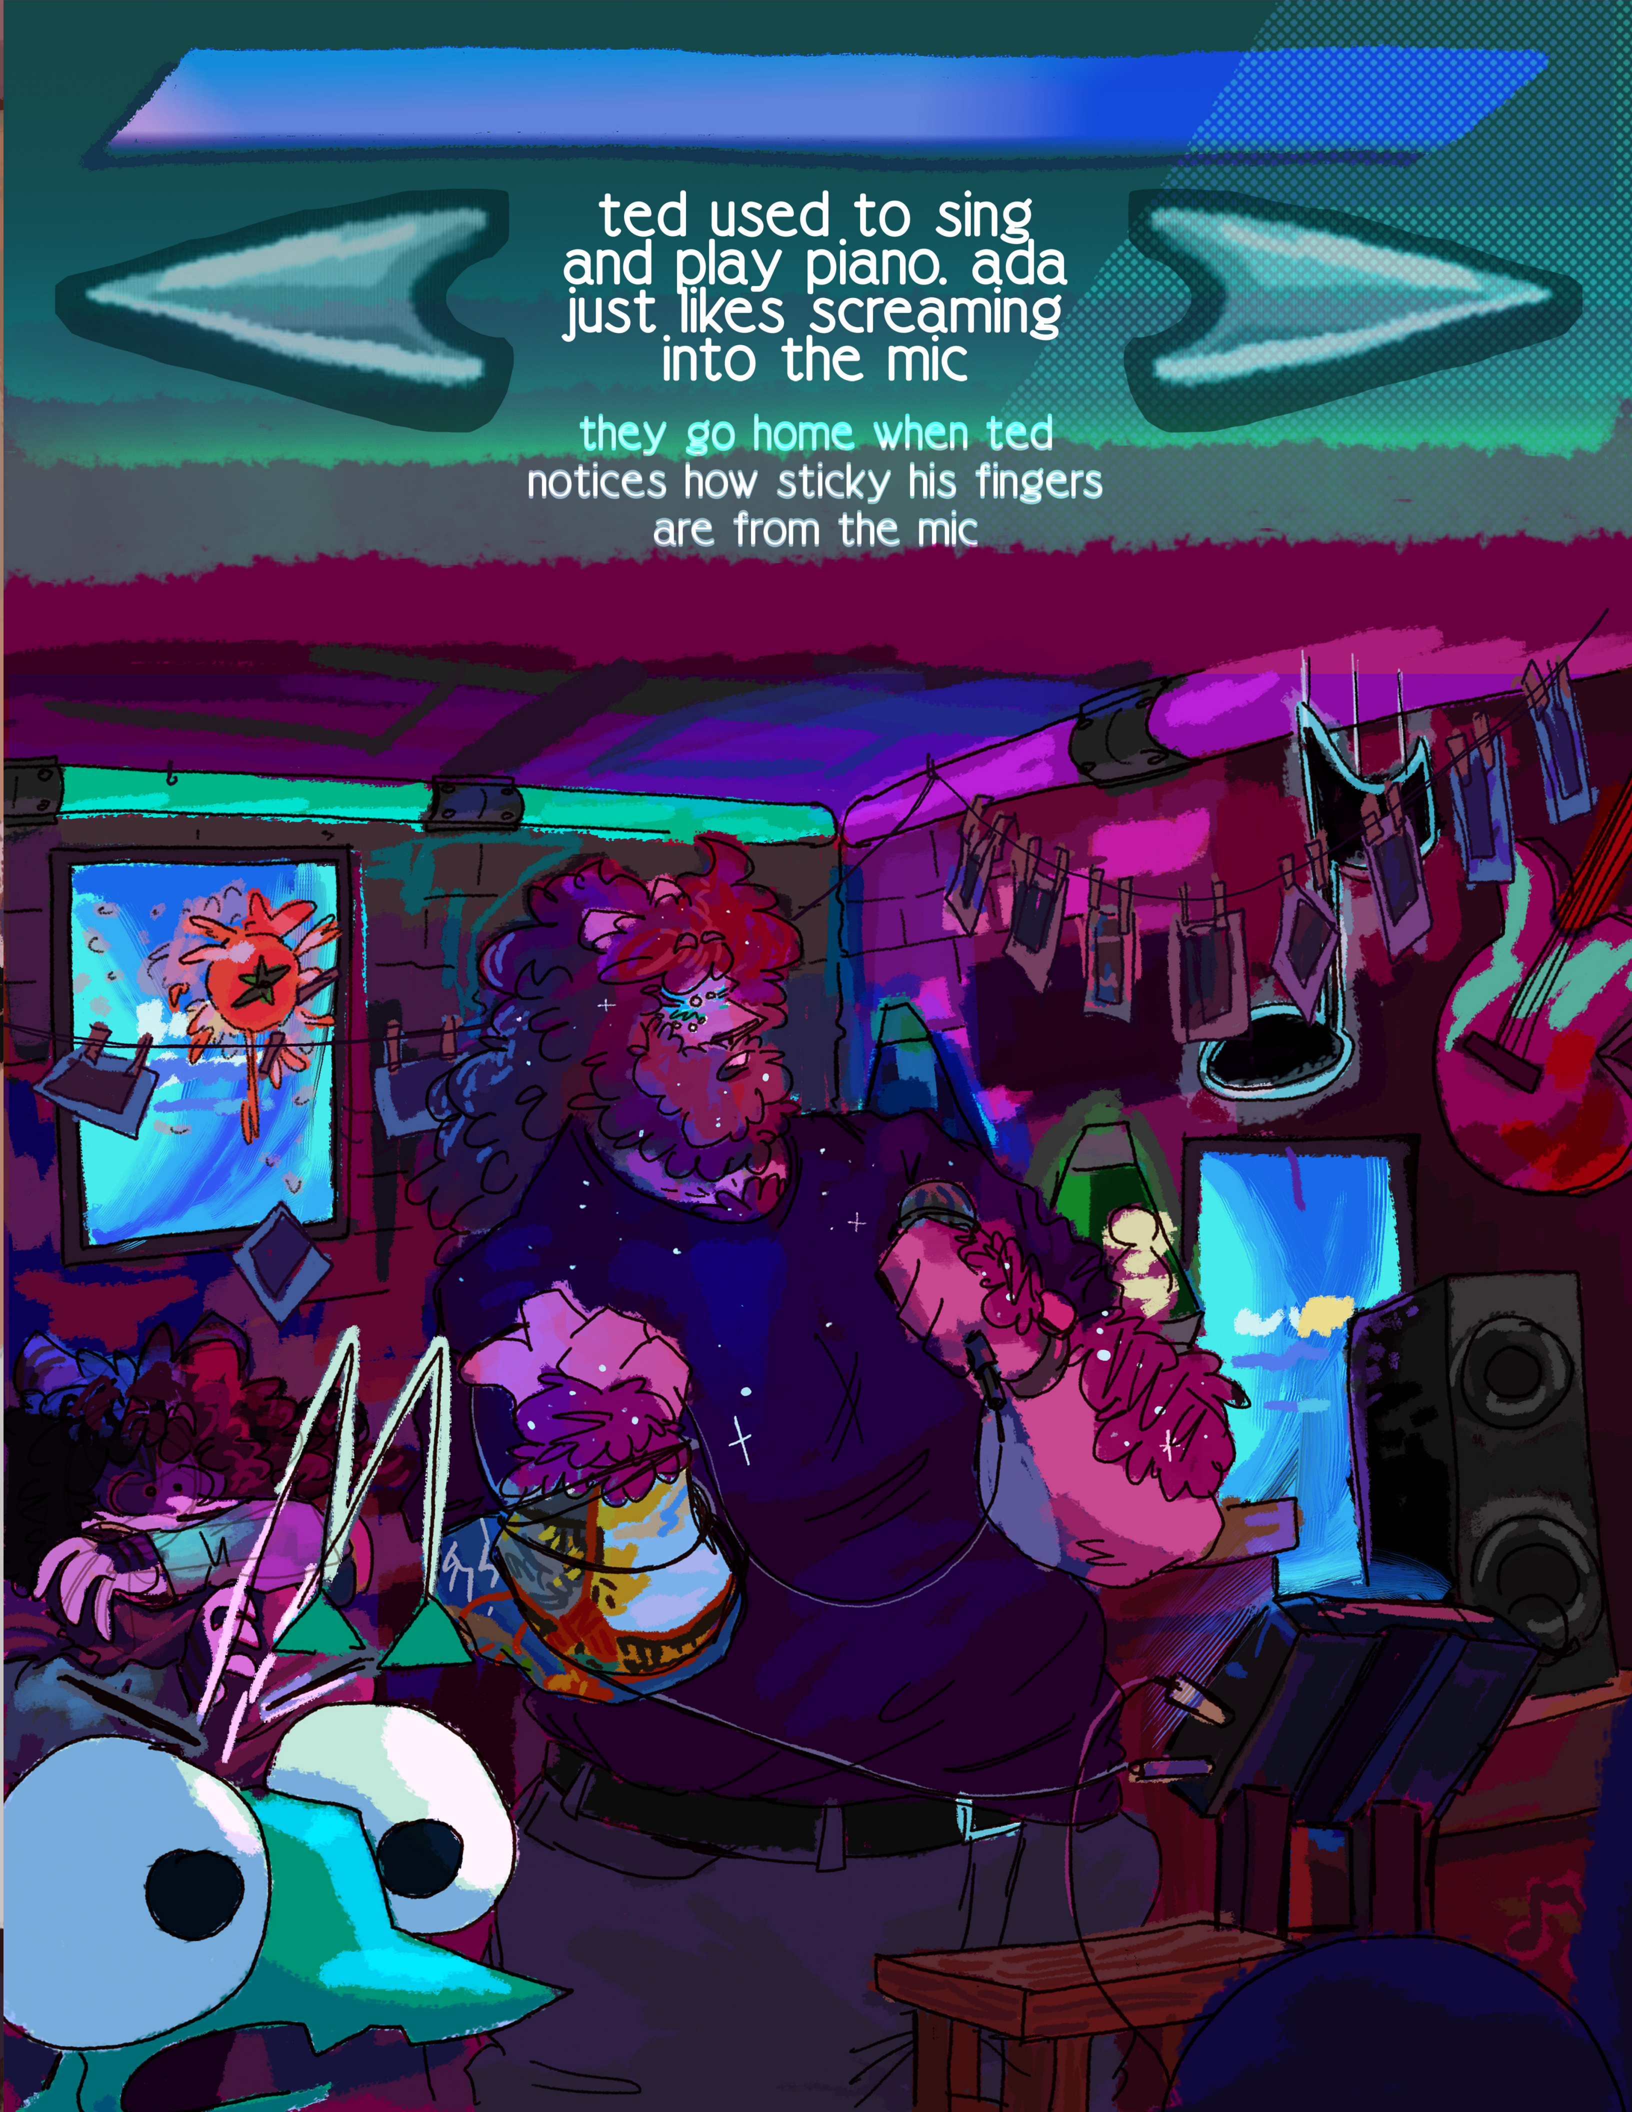
Trying so very very hard to make himself think he doesn't care how dogshit he is at the game

Very excited about the bongo controller he bought from the event earlier

Ada hears about a tournament for one of her favorite games a few hours out of town. She needs a team, and her buddies step up to the task.

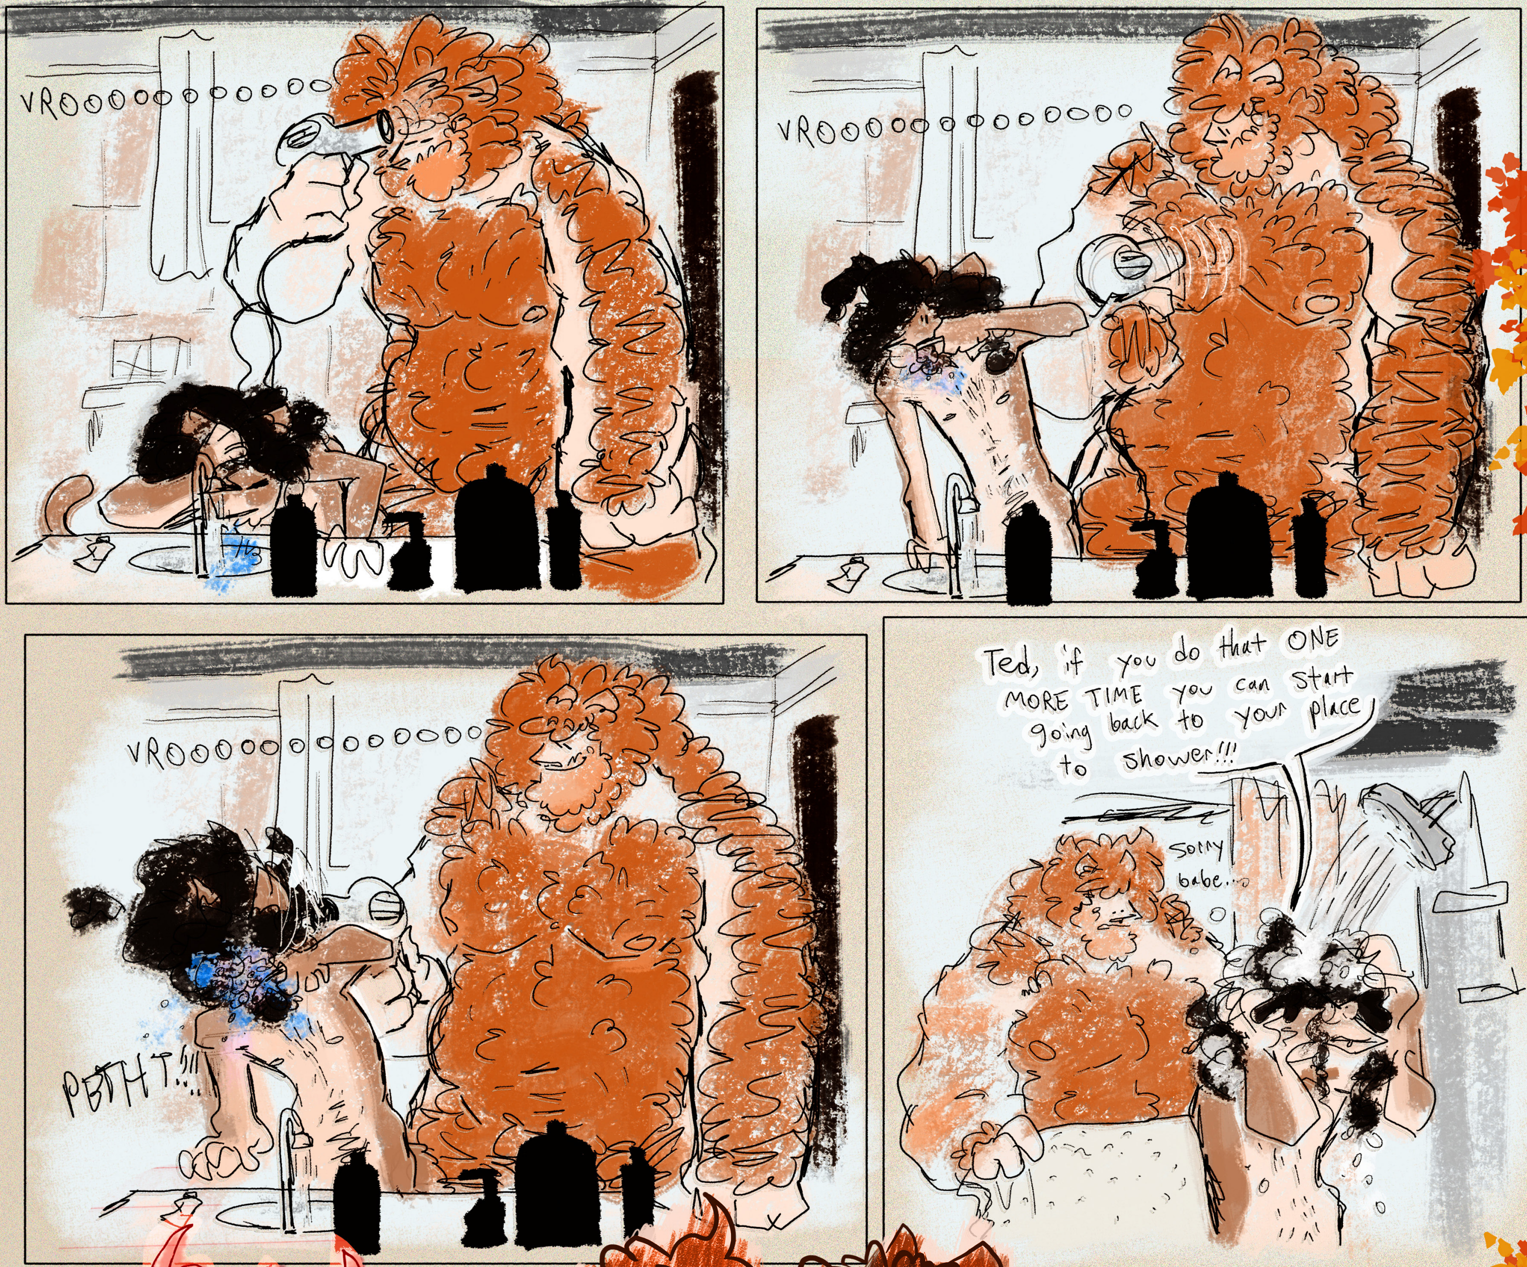


JABRONIS

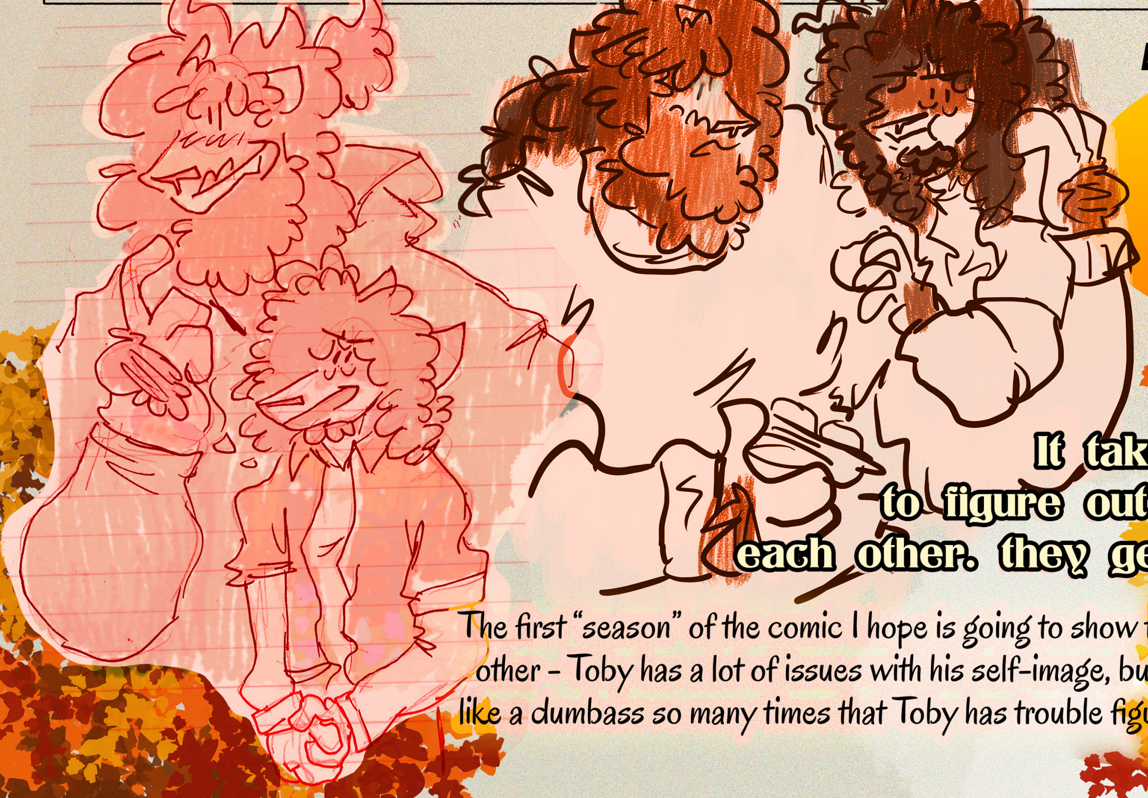


ted used to sing and play piano. ada just likes screaming into the mic

they go home when ted notices how sticky his fingers are from the mic



VROOOOOOOOOOOOOO
VROOOOOOOOOOOOOOO
VROOOOOOOOOOOOOOO
PBTHT!!!
Ted, if you do that ONE MORE TIME you can start going back to your place to shower!!!
Sorry babe...



Ted & Toby

It takes them a little while to figure out how to be there for each other. they get it eventually though

The first "season" of the comic I hope is going to show them growing to be comfy with each other - Toby has a lot of issues with his self-image, but eventually Ted makes himself look like a dumbass so many times that Toby has trouble figuring out what he should be so harsh on himself for.

More Recent Art

I don't really know what sets this new era apart but there came a point when I started liking it more now that I'm looking back at it all. I think a turning point for me was giving Toby proper hair and knocking out his tooth, so we'll kick off with that one! I am finding that there's still some problems - something about the way I draw interiors needs fiddling. I gotta study more watercolors of interior spaces and stuff like that! I think I got it right with a few of these but others don't have many cool decisions going on so.... we learn! Anyway yes, here's more of the crew

Hey babe hope your conference is going good! I didn't find the remote yet but I'm gonna go to Radioshack tomorrow, I won't spend a bunch though it's all good!!!
I was waiting for ada at the dentist's today and there was this lady magazine that was talking about how email offers a whole new world of like, fun times for couples which i am assuming meant sex but they couldn't say anything outright cuz of publishers i guess so they were using a bunch of euphemisms like eggplants so i thought it would be funny if i sent you a picture of me eating one and said something euphemistic but this shit just tastes bad. im sorry babe ily!!

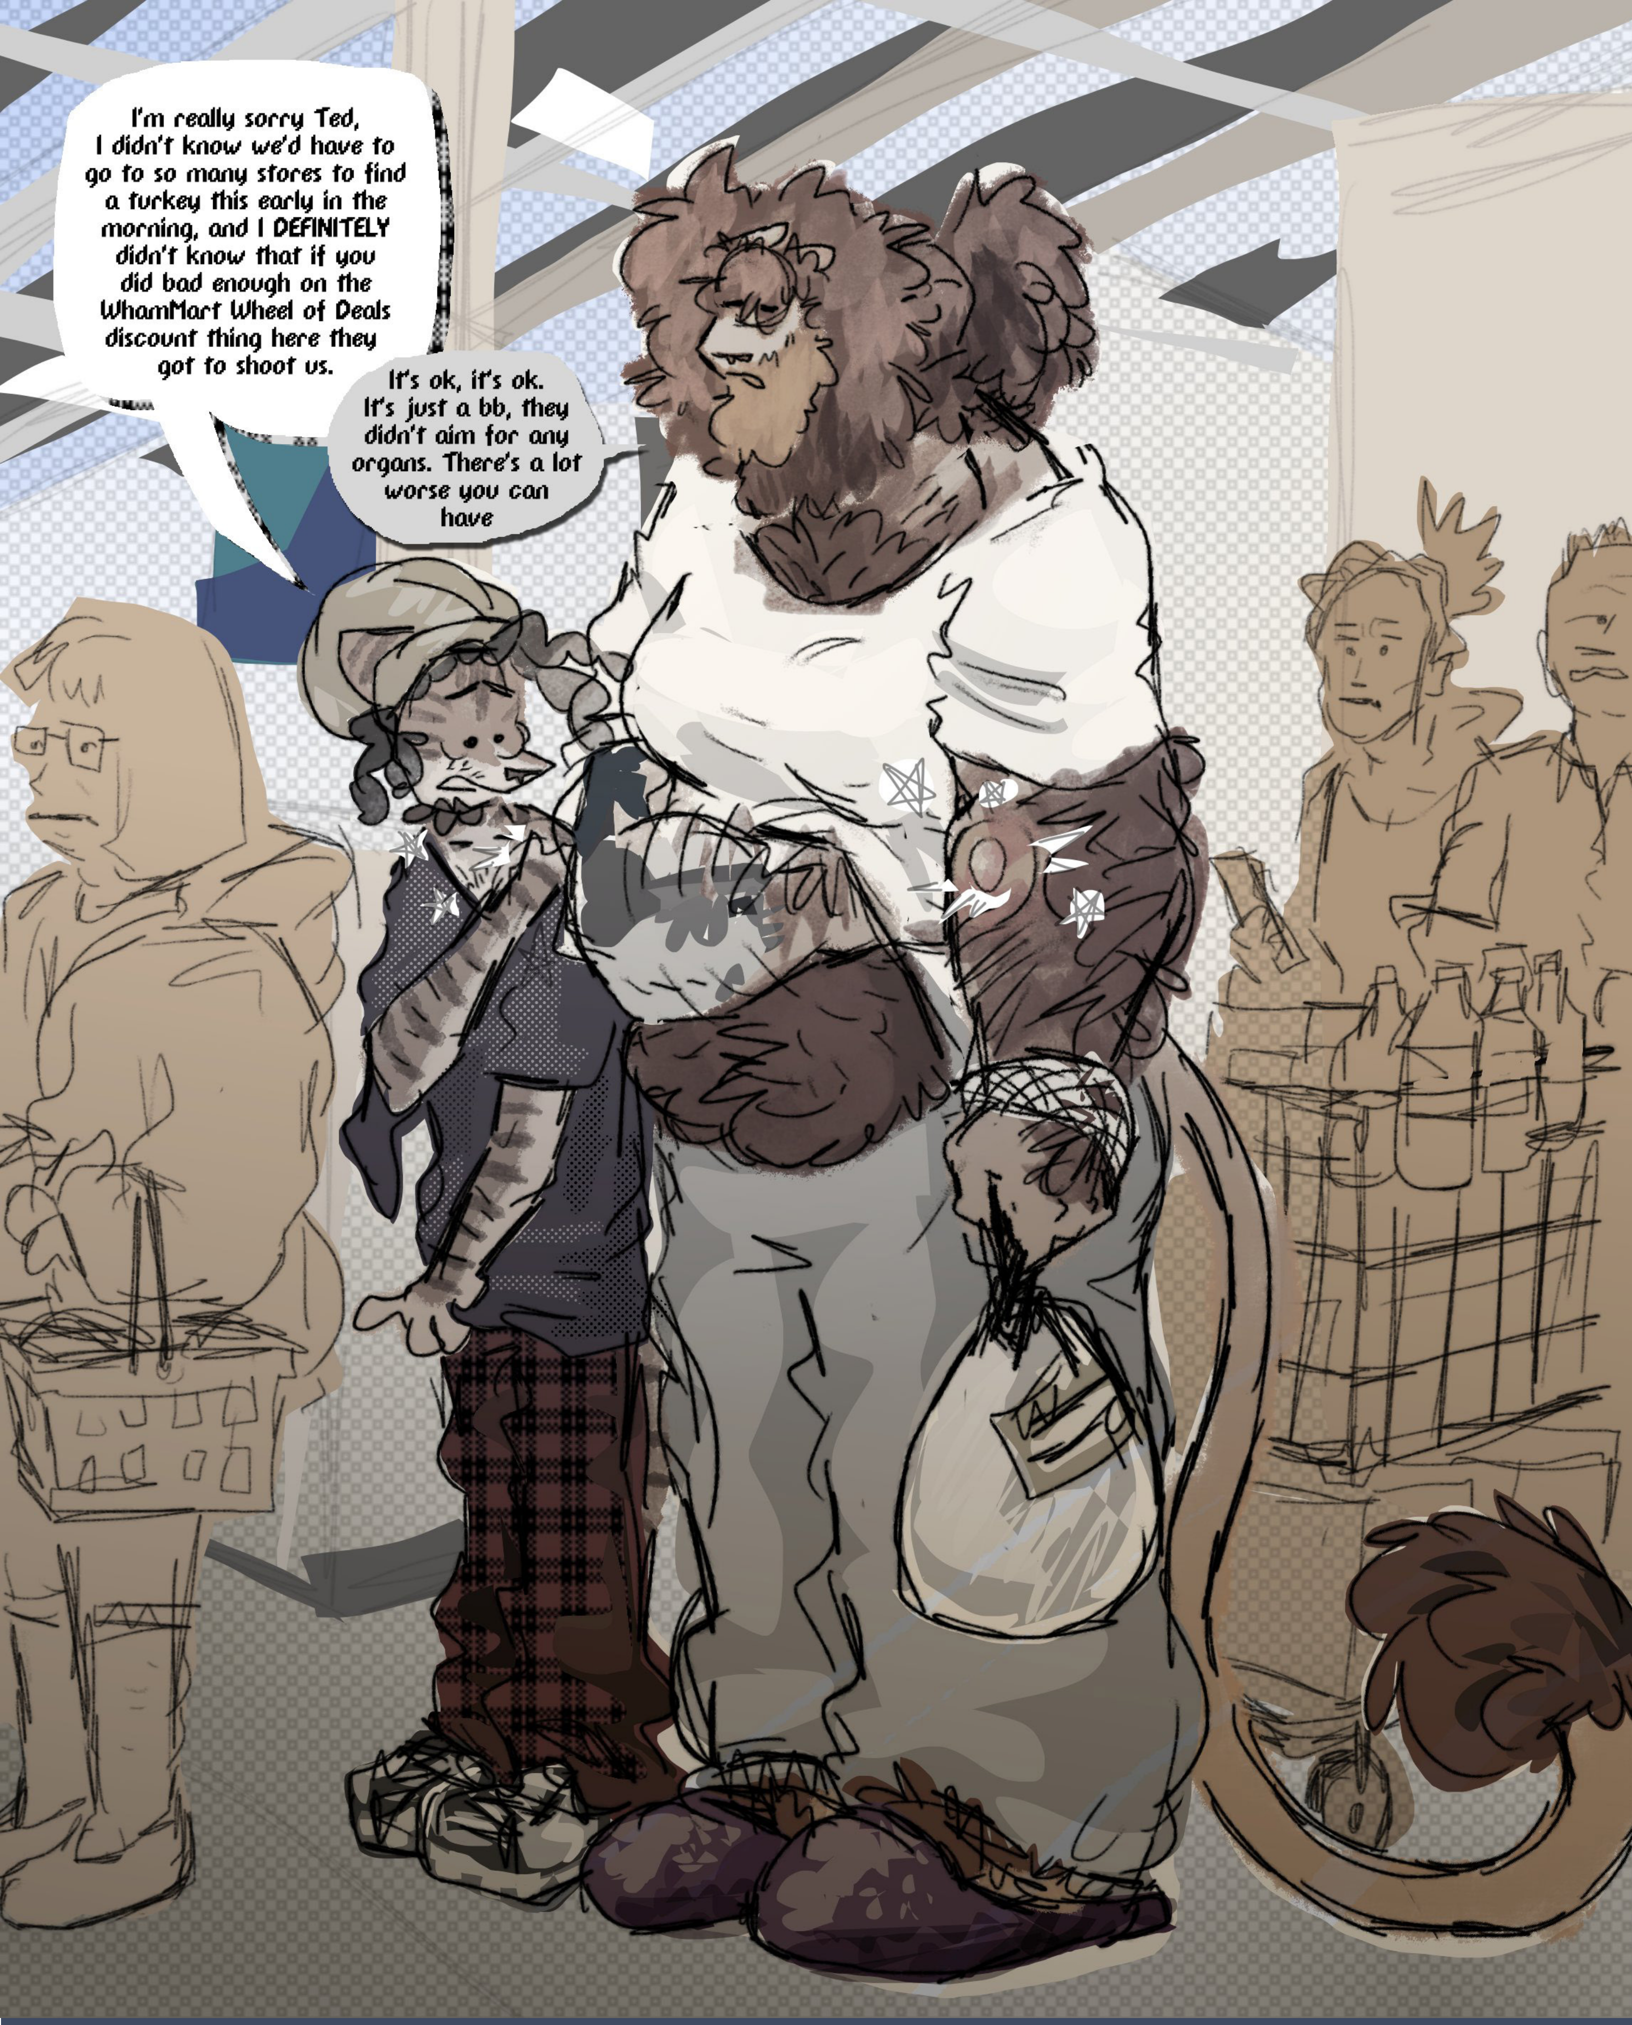
HEY I MADE ONE!! WHO WANTS IT



I'm really sorry Ted, I didn't know we'd have to go to so many stores to find a turkey this early in the morning, and I DEFINITELY didn't know that if you did bad enough on the WhamMart Wheel of Deals discount thing here they got to shoot us.
It's ok, it's ok. It's just a bb, they didn't aim for any organs. There's a lot worse you can have

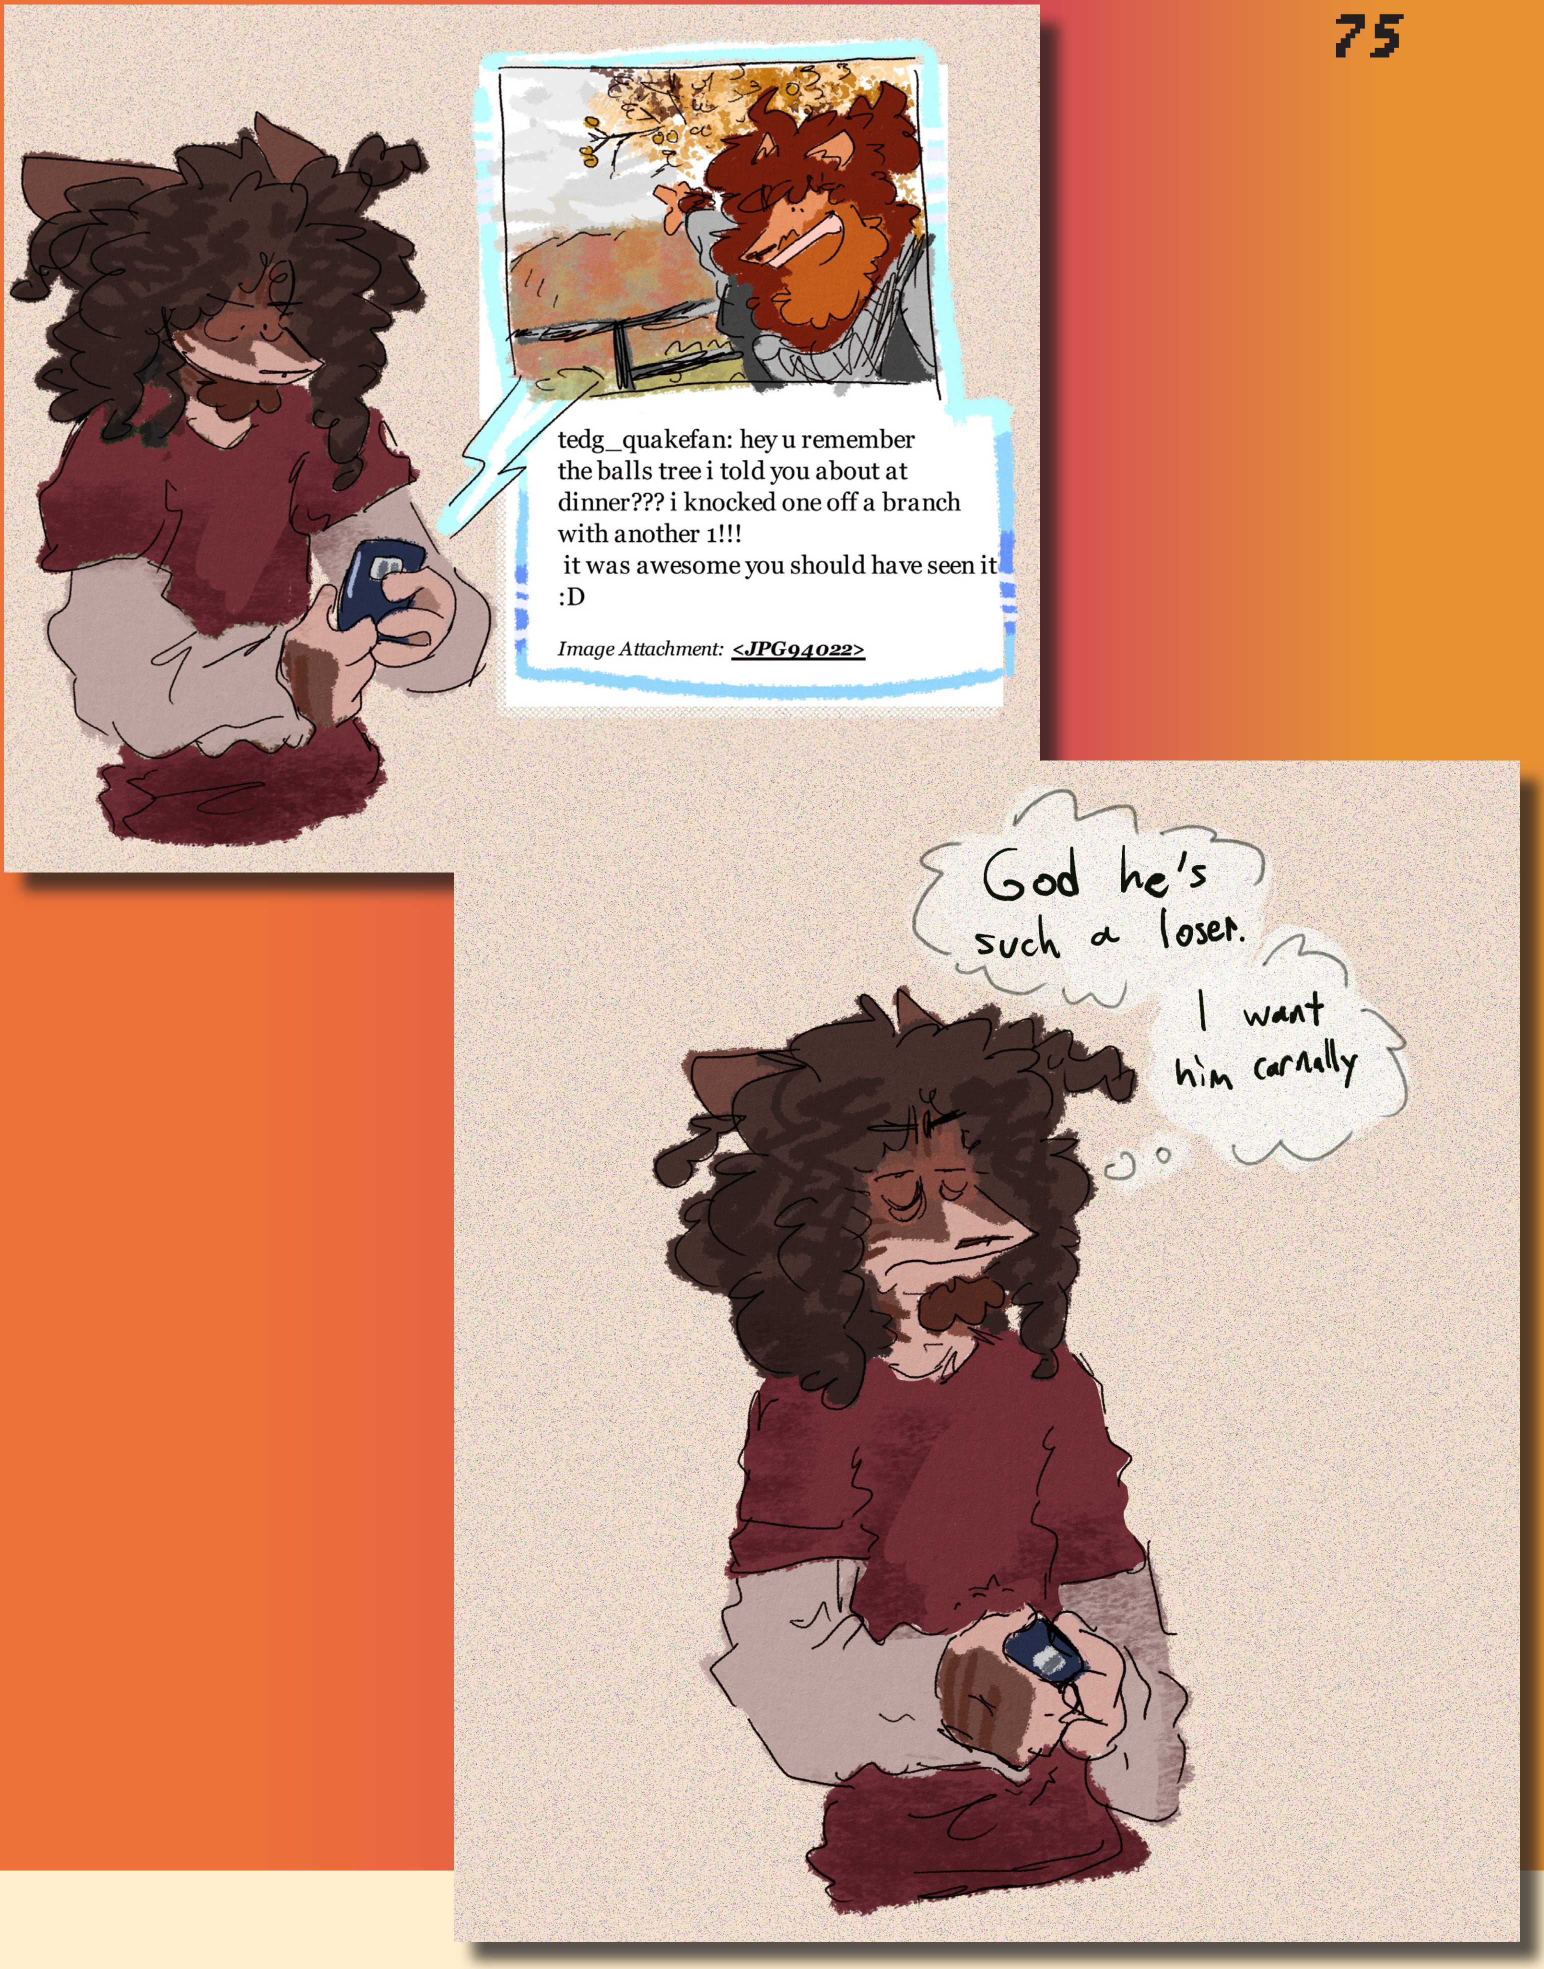
Focused Comics & Stuff

So, bear with me on my definition of comic here - a lot of this stuff is not far from other art in the last chapter that just had writing in it, but anyway here's a bunch more comics and stuff. Recently I've been getting into depth with the characters through these comics, so maybe look out for more of that in the future!



tedg_quakefan: hey u remember the balls tree i told you about at dinner??? i knocked one off a branch with another 1!!!
it was awesome you should have seen it :D

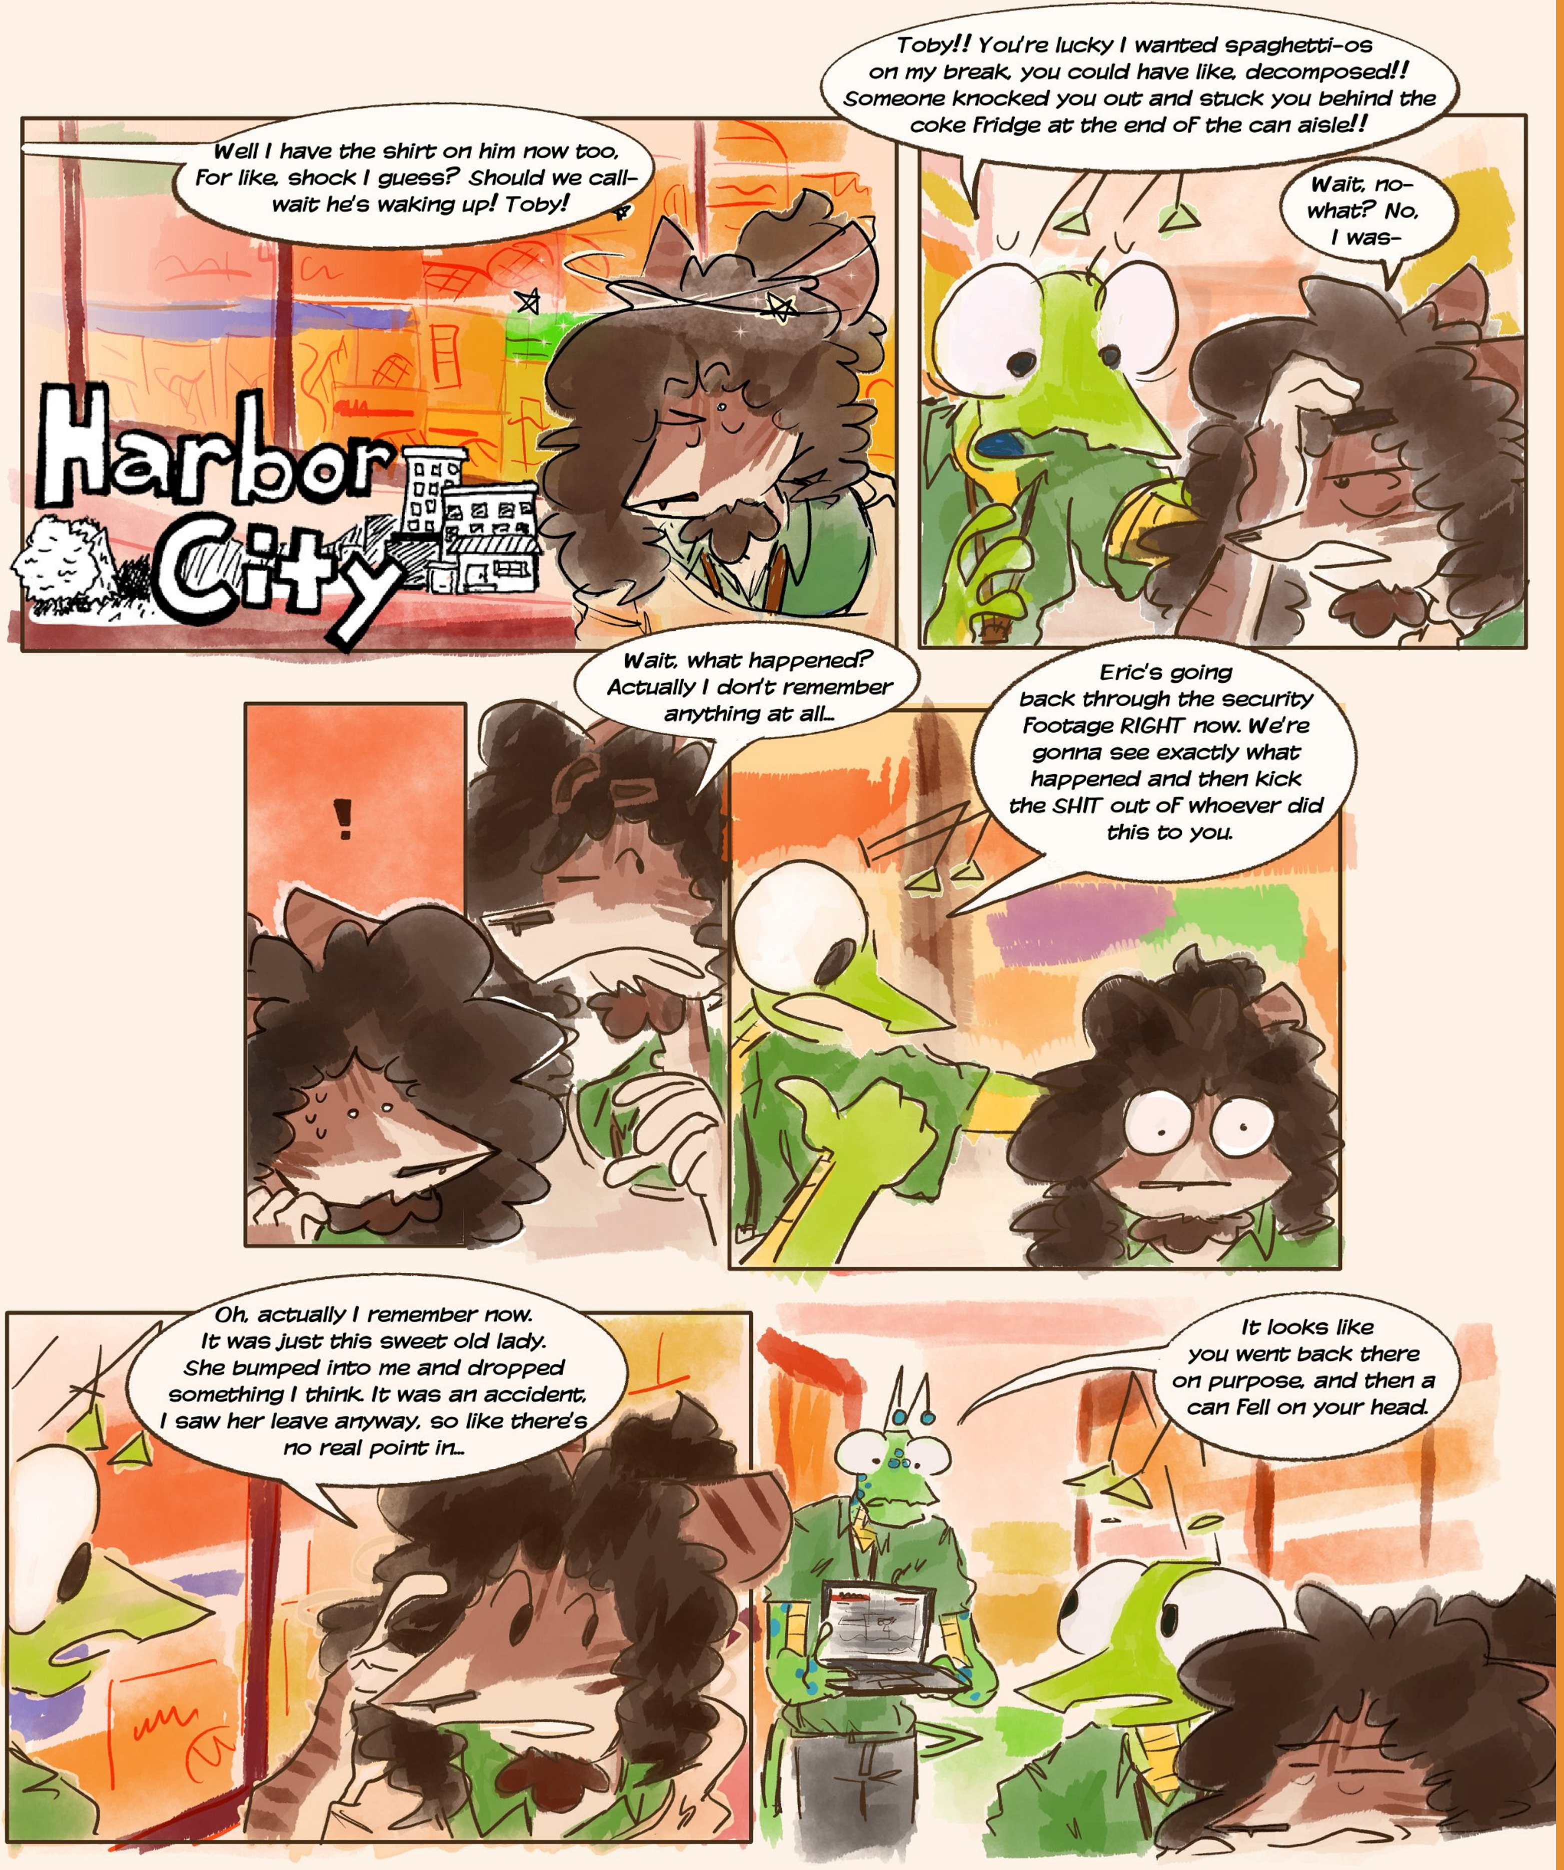
God he's such a loser.
I want him carnally



Harbor City
Well I have the shirt on him now too, For like, shock I guess? Should we call- wait he's waking up! Toby!
Toby!! You're lucky I wanted spaghetti-os on my break, you could have like, decomposed!! Someone knocked you out and stuck you behind the coke Fridge at the end of the can aisle!!
Wait, no- what? No, I was-
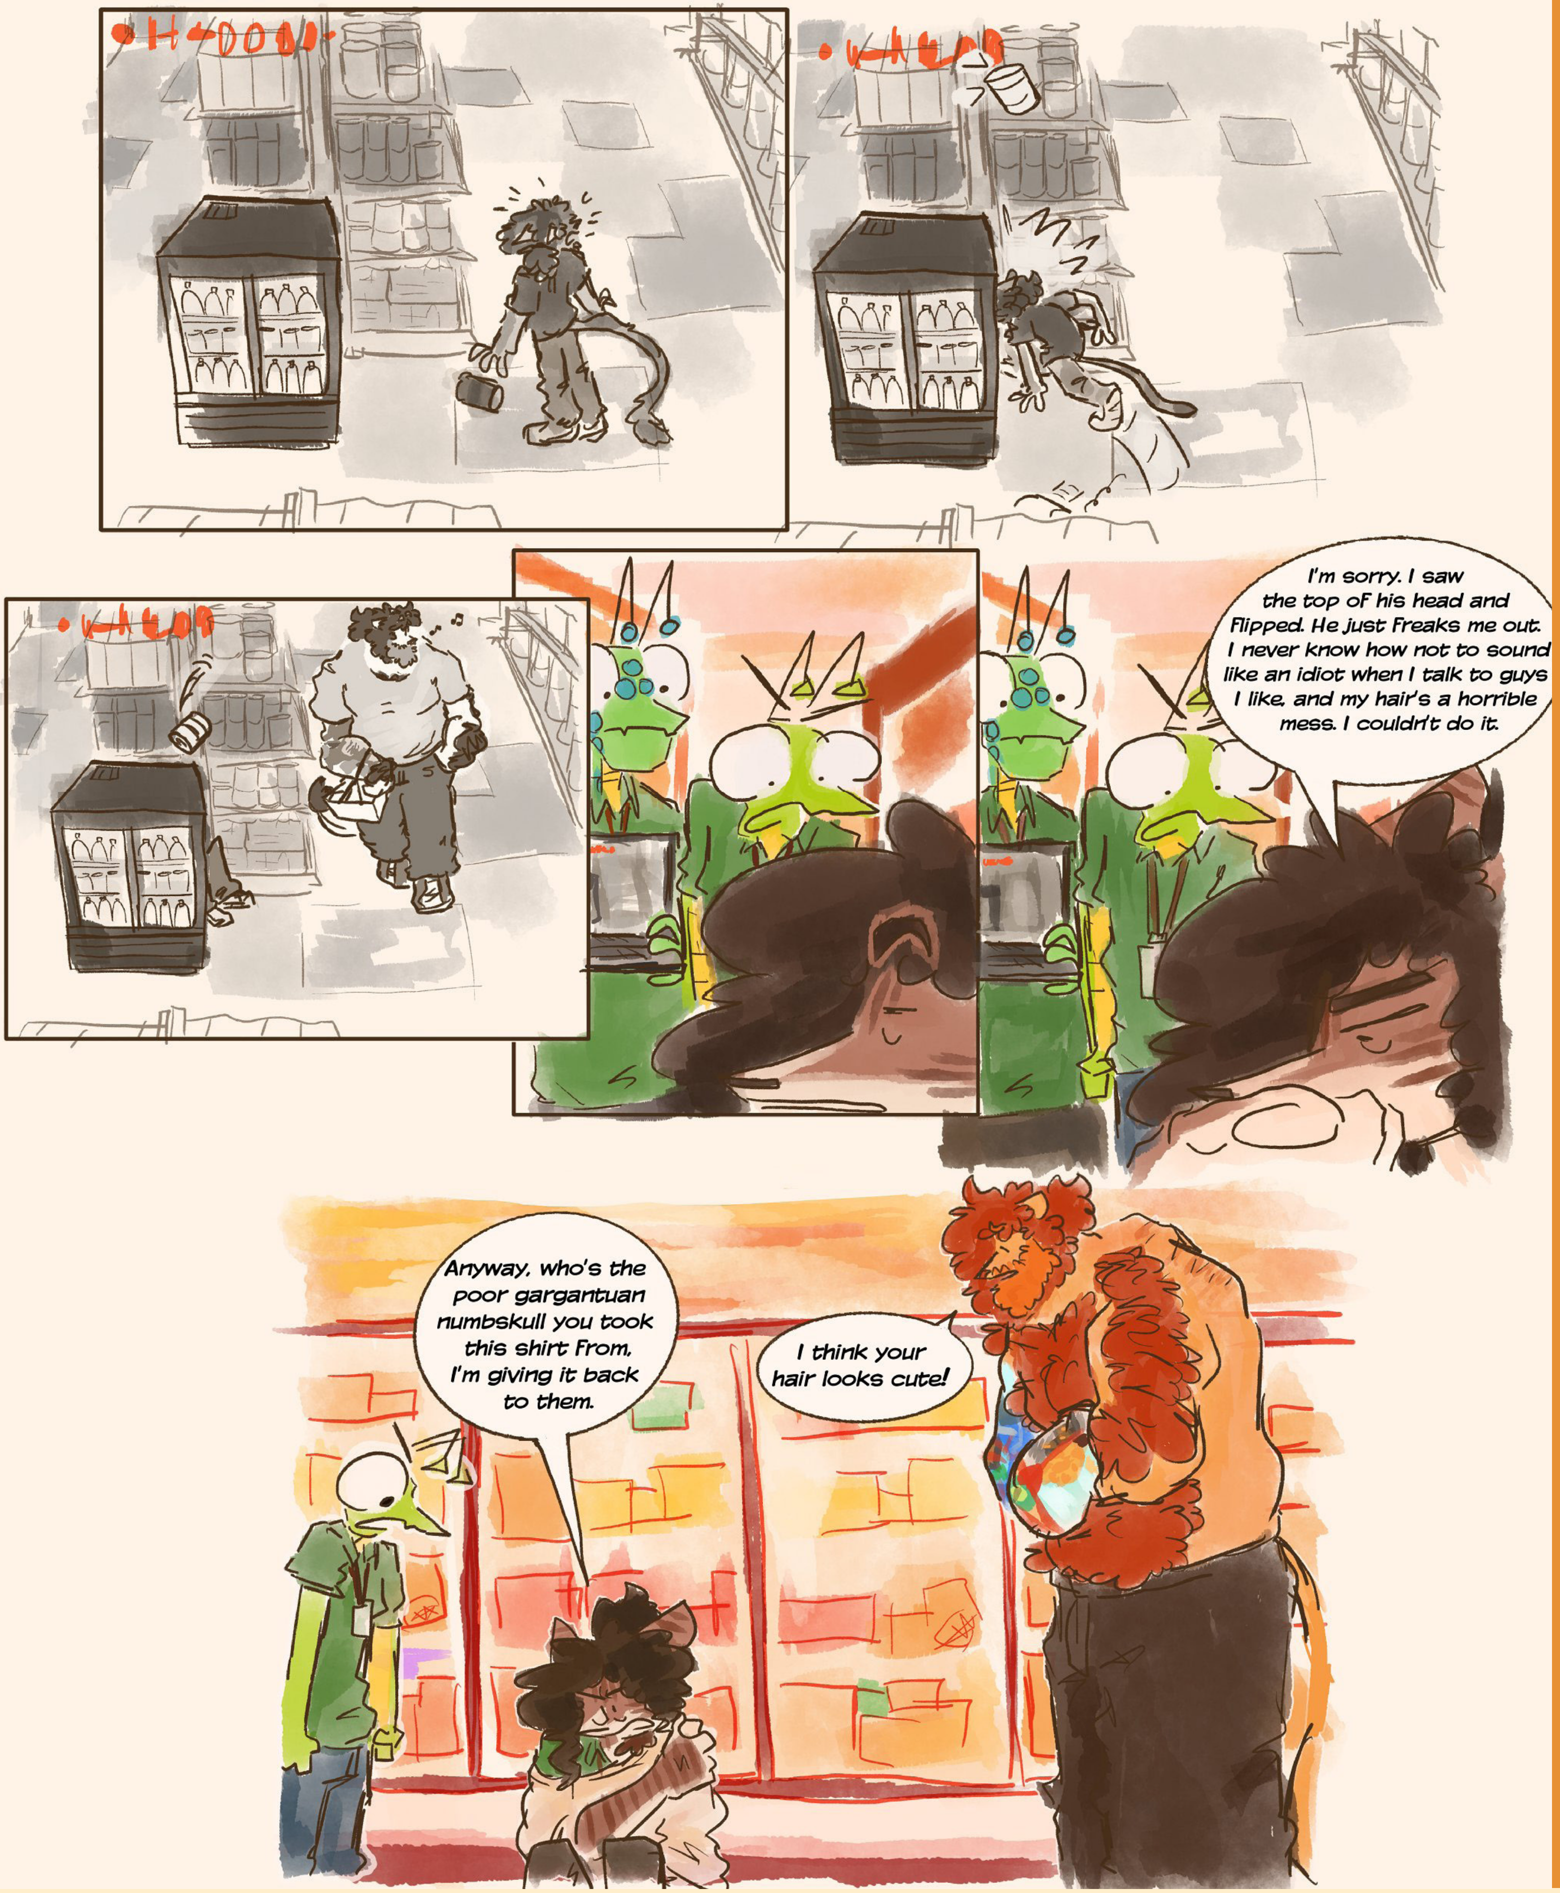
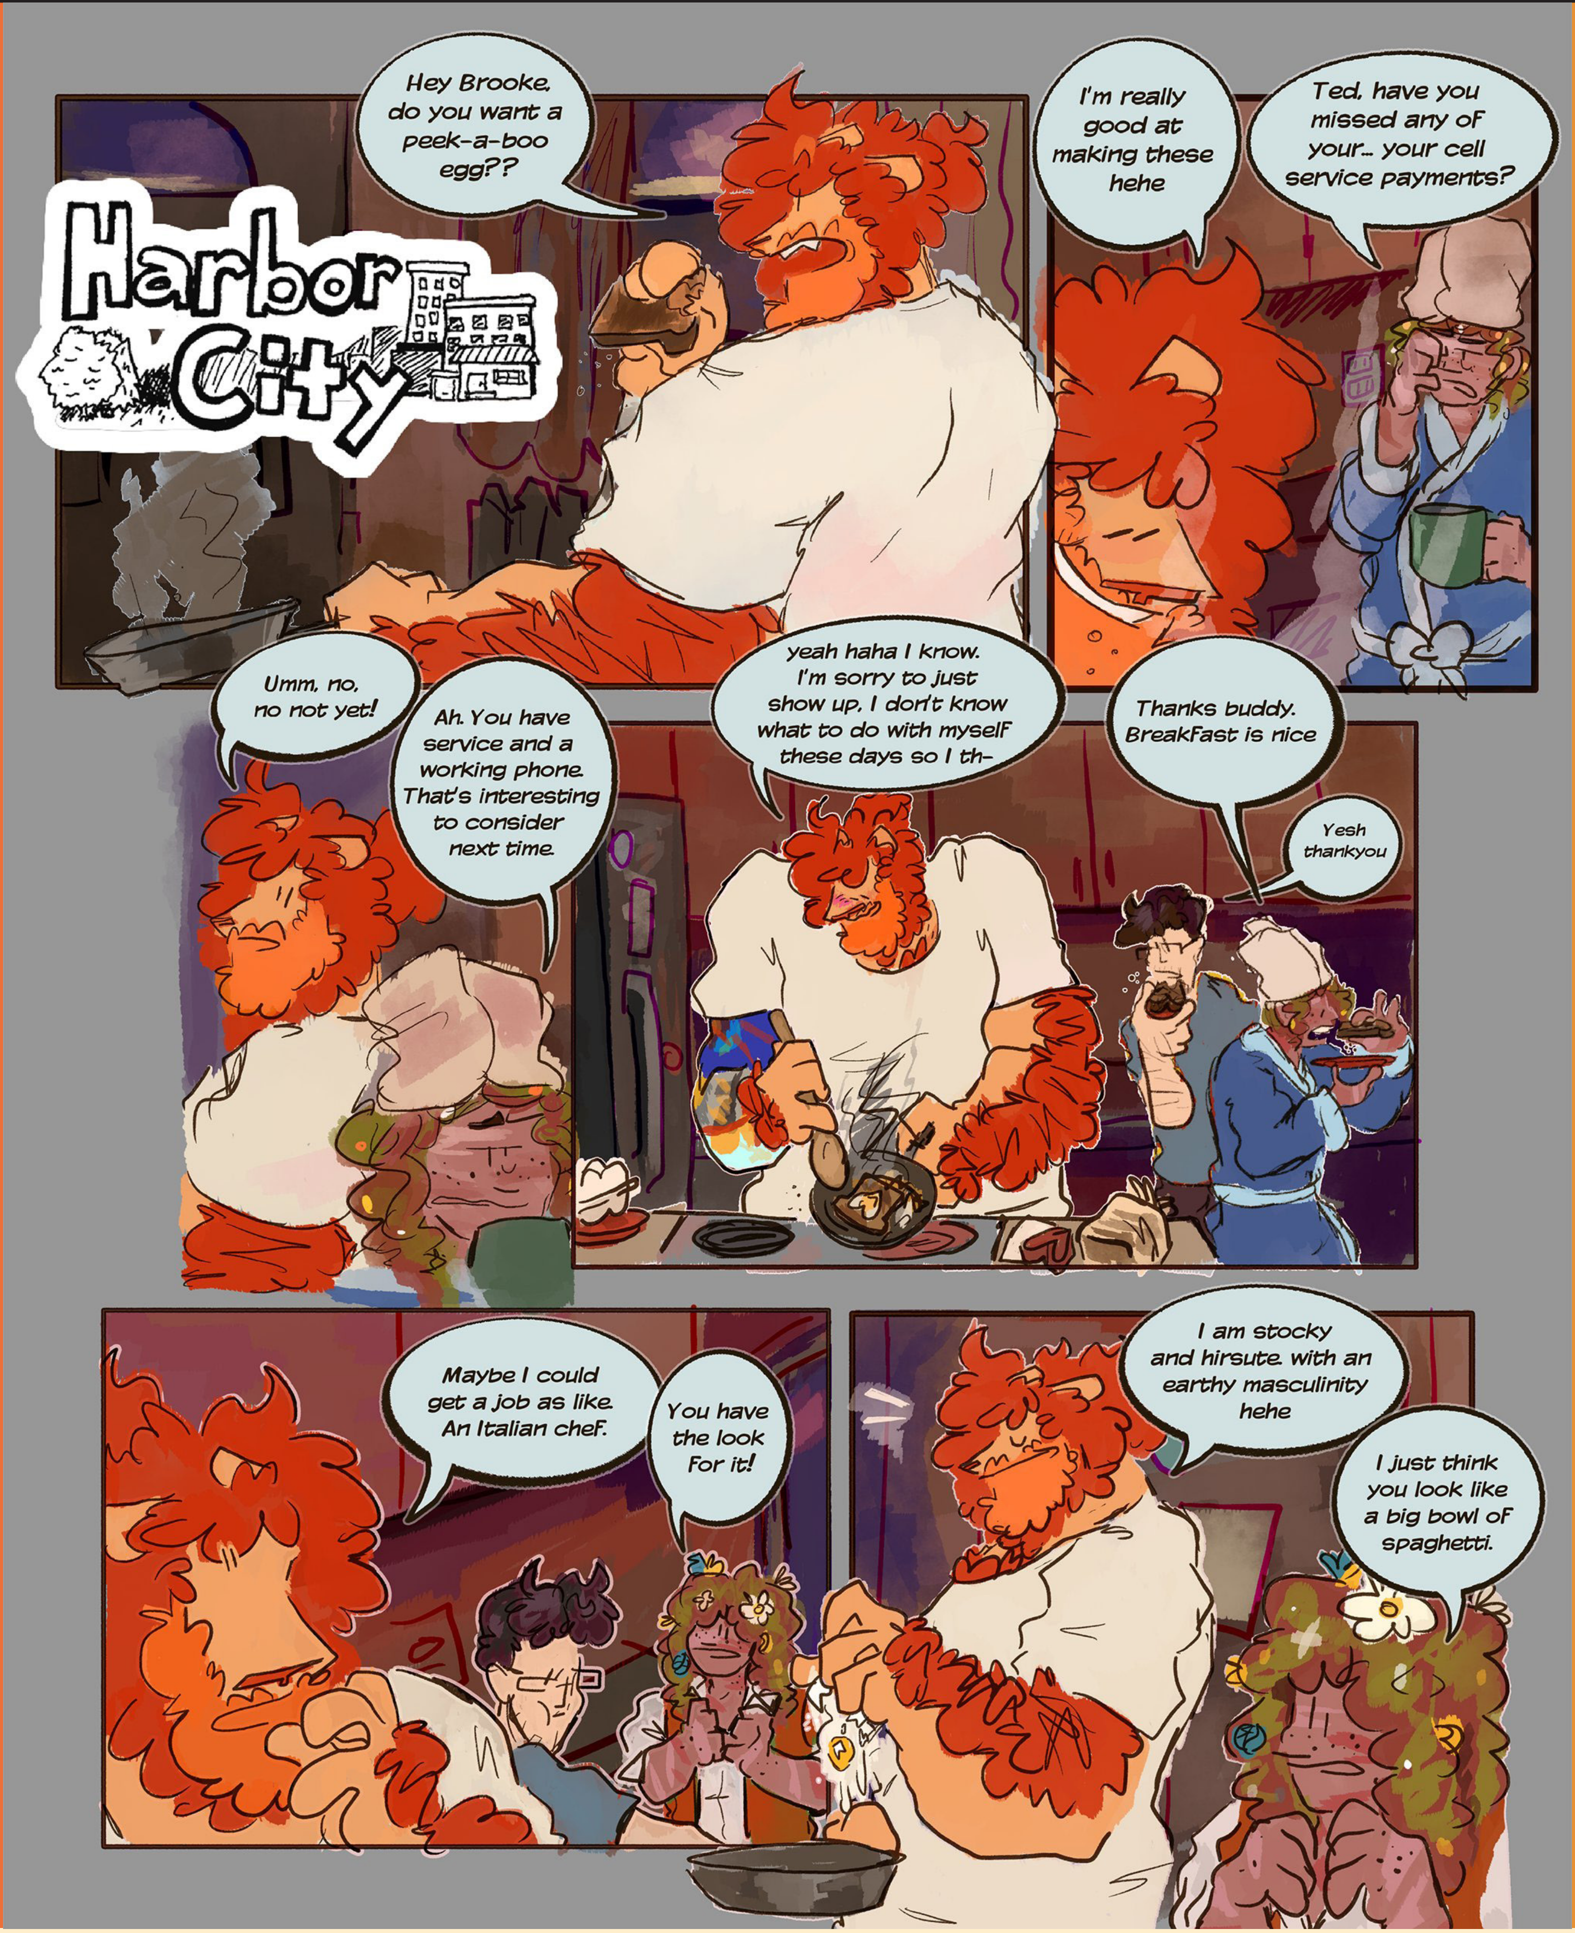
Wait, what happened? Actually I don't remember anything at all...
Eric's going back through the security Footage RIGHT now. We're gonna see exactly what happened and then kick the SHIT out of whoever did this to you.
Oh, actually I remember now. It was just this sweet old lady. She bumped into me and dropped something I think. It was an accident, I saw her leave anyway, so like there's no real point in...
It looks like you went back there on purpose, and then a can Fell on your head.



I'm sorry. I saw the top of his head and flipped. He just freaks me out. I never know how not to sound like an idiot when I talk to guys I like, and my hair's a horrible mess. I couldn't do it.
Anyway, who's the poor gargantuan numbskull you took this shirt from, I'm giving it back to them.
I think your hair looks cute!



Harbor City
Hey Brooke, do you want a peek-a-boo egg??
I'm really good at making these hehe
Ted, have you missed any of your.. your cell service payments?
Umm, no, no not yet!
Ah. You have service and a working phone. That's interesting to consider next time.
yeah haha I know. I'm sorry to just show up, I don't know what to do with myself these days so I th-
Thanks buddy. Breakfast is nice

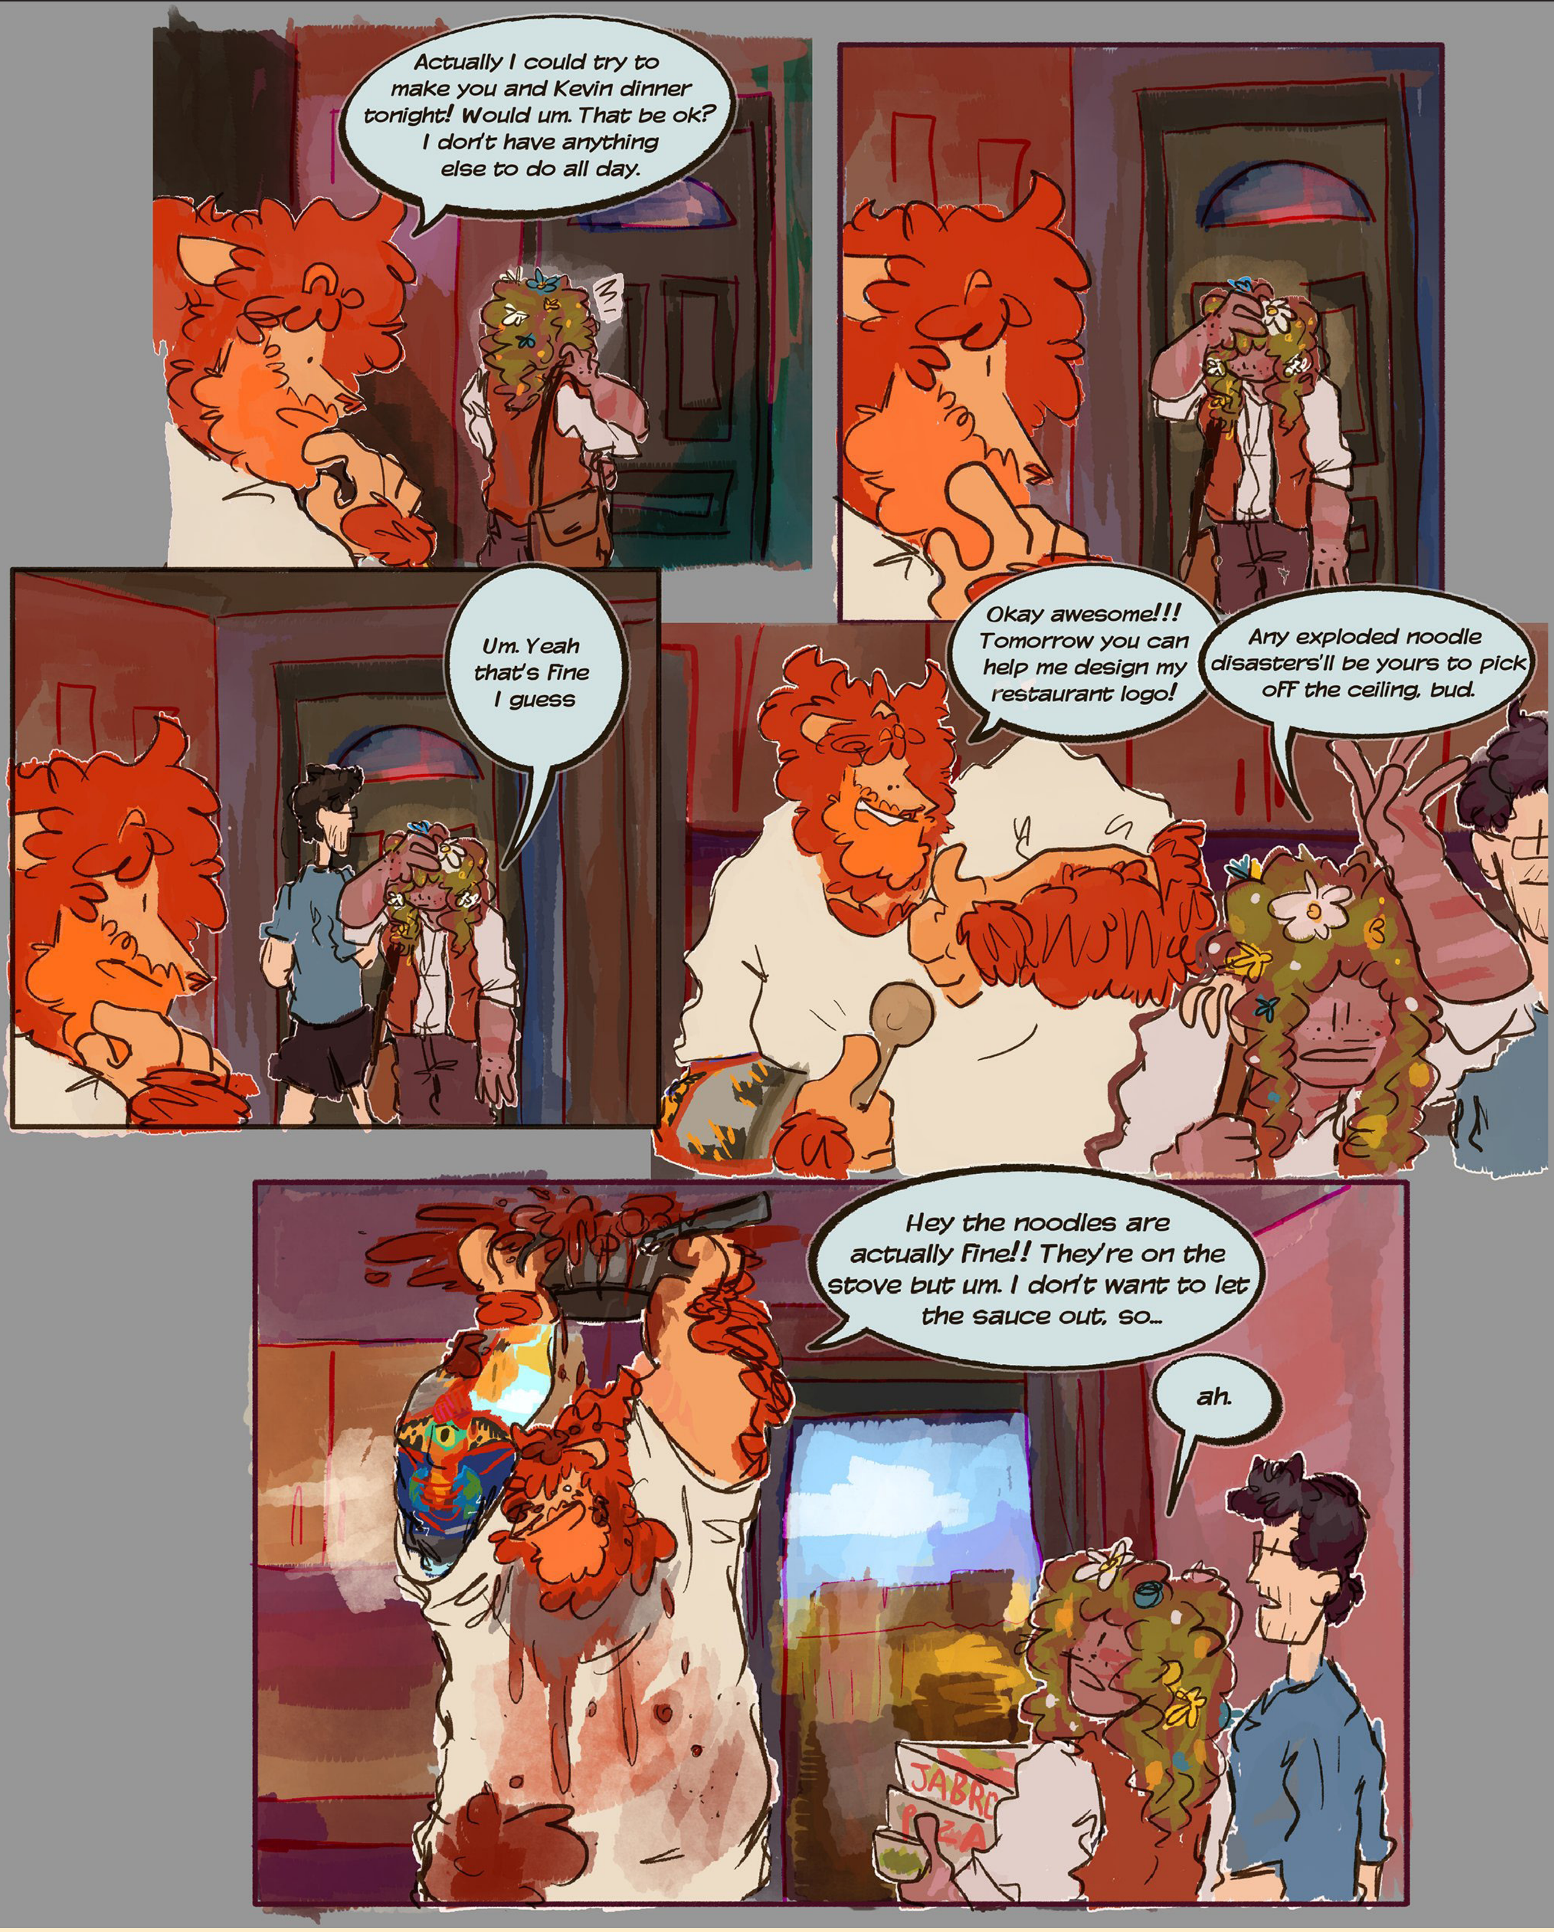
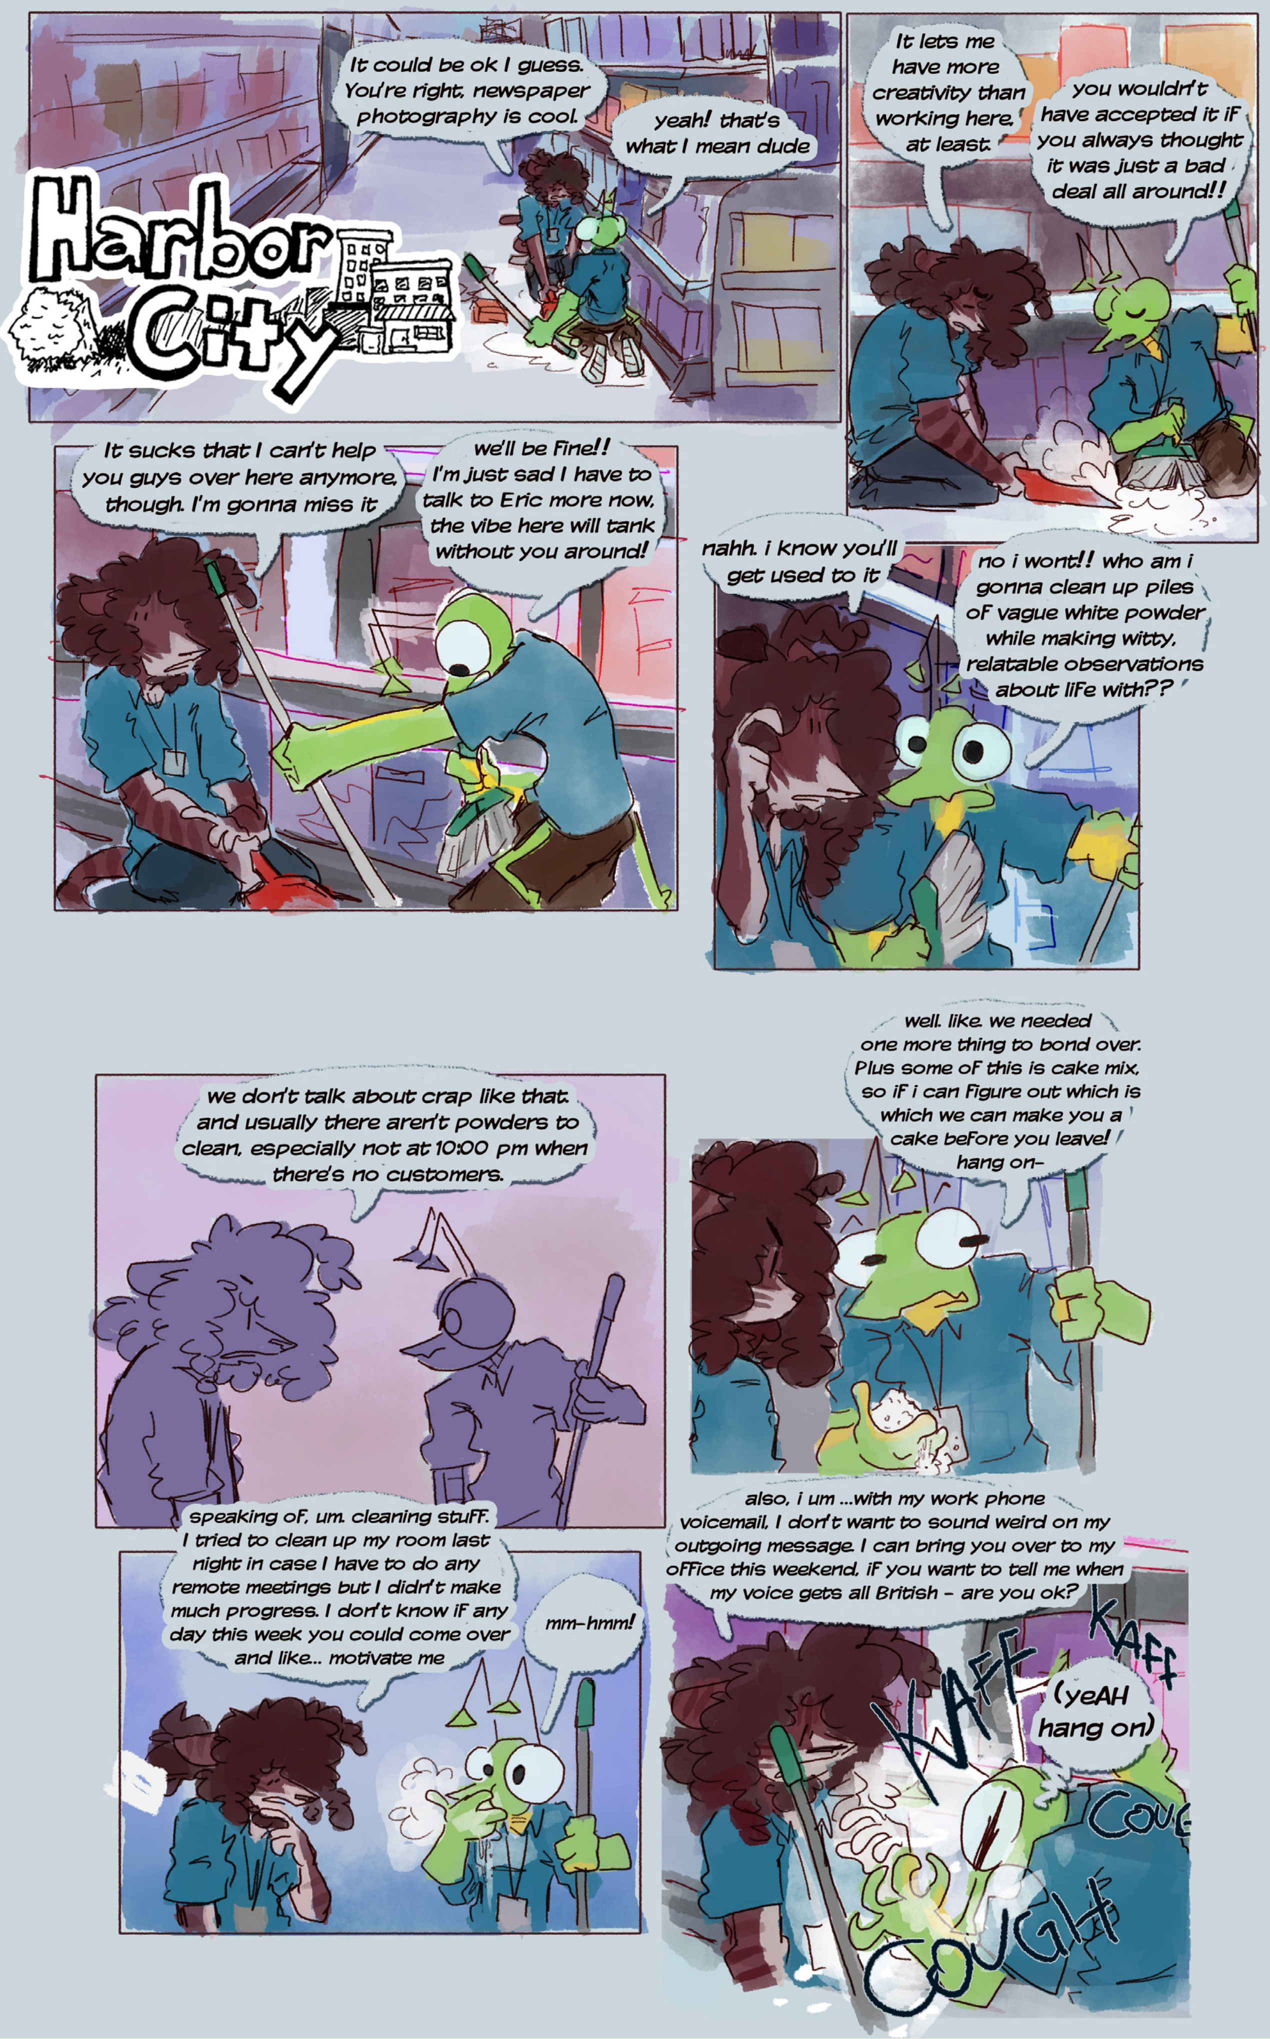
Maybe I could get a job as like An Italian chef.
You have the look for it!
I am stocky and hirsute. with an earthy masculinity hehe
I just think you look like a big bowl of spaghetti.



Actually I could try to make you and Kevin dinner tonight! Would um. That be ok? I don't have anything else to do all day.
Um. Yeah that's fine I guess
Okay awesome!!! Tomorrow you can help me design my restaurant logo!
Any exploded noodle disasters'll be yours to pick off the ceiling, bud.
Hey the noodles are actually fine!! They're on the stove but um. I don't want to let the sauce out, so...
ah.



Harbor City
It could be ok I guess. You're right, newspaper photography is cool.
yeah! that's what I mean dude
It lets me have more creativity than working here, at least.
you wouldn't have accepted it if you always thought it was just a bad deal all around!!
It sucks that I can't help you guys over here anymore, though. I'm gonna miss it we'll be fine!! I'm just sad I have to talk to Eric more now, the vibe here will tank without you around!
nahh. i know you'll get used to it no i wont!! who am i gonna clean up piles of vague white powder while making witty, relatable observations about life with??
we don't talk about crap like that. and usually there aren't powders to clean, especially not at 10:00 pm when there's no customers.
well. like. we needed one more thing to bond over. Plus some of this is cake mix, so if i can figure out which is which we can make you a cake before you leave! hang on-speaking of, um. cleaning stuff. I tried to clean up my room last night in case I have to do any remote meetings but I didn't make much progress. I don't know if any day this week you could come over and like... motivate me mm-hmm!
also, i um ...with my work phone voicemail, I don't want to sound weird on my outgoing message. I can bring you over to my office this weekend, if you want to tell me when my voice gets all British - are you ok?

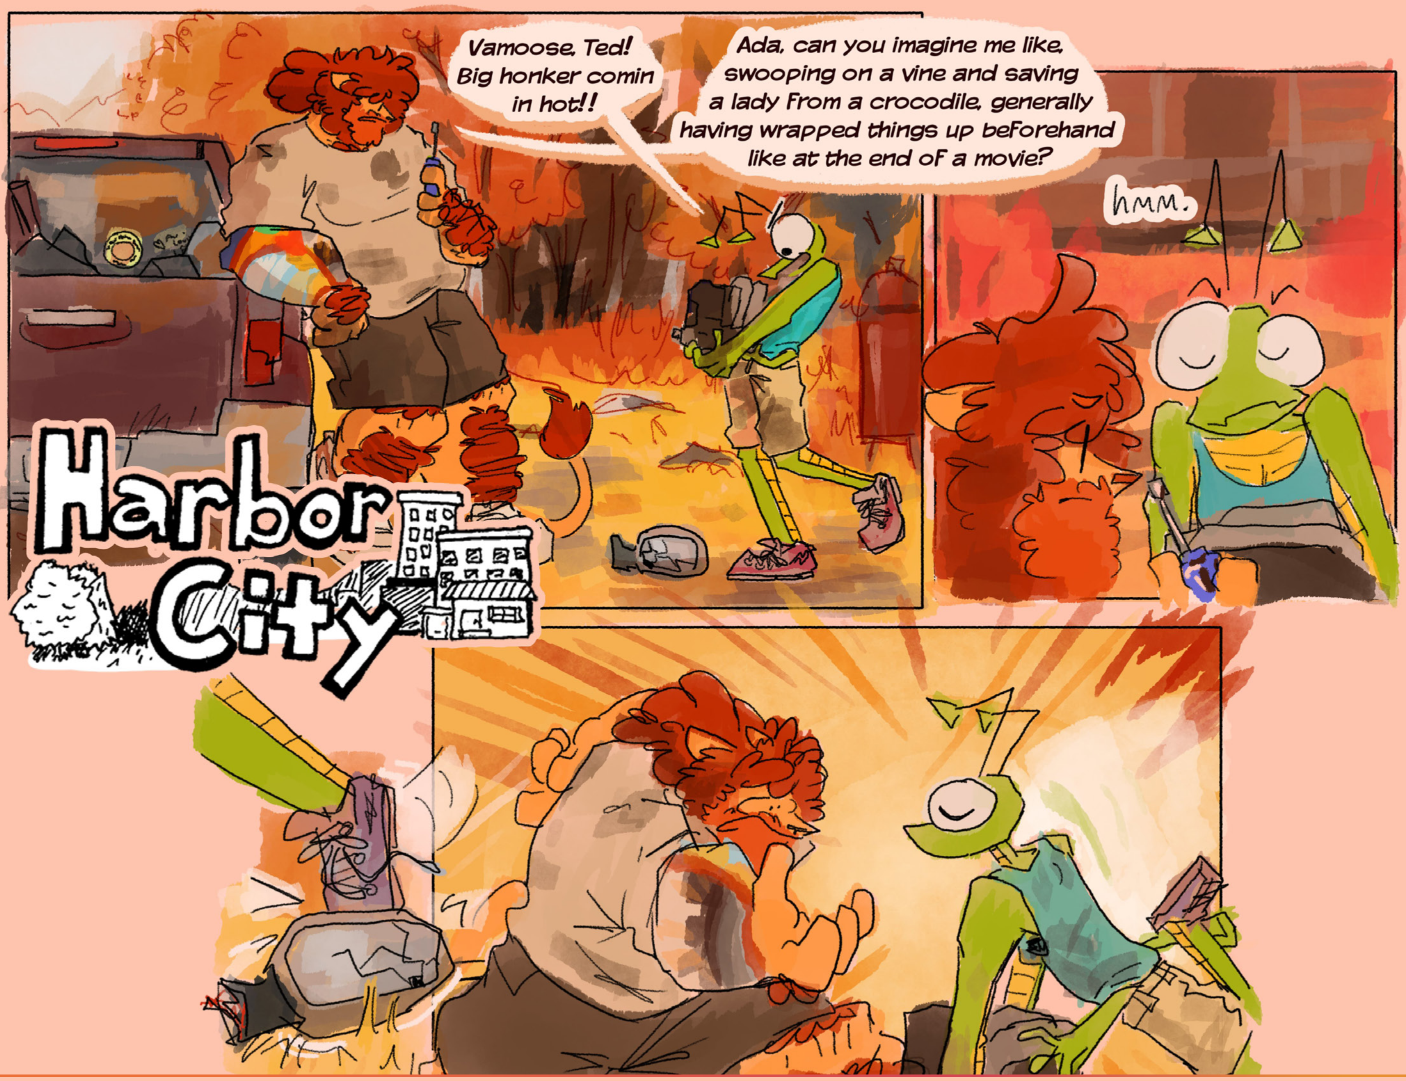
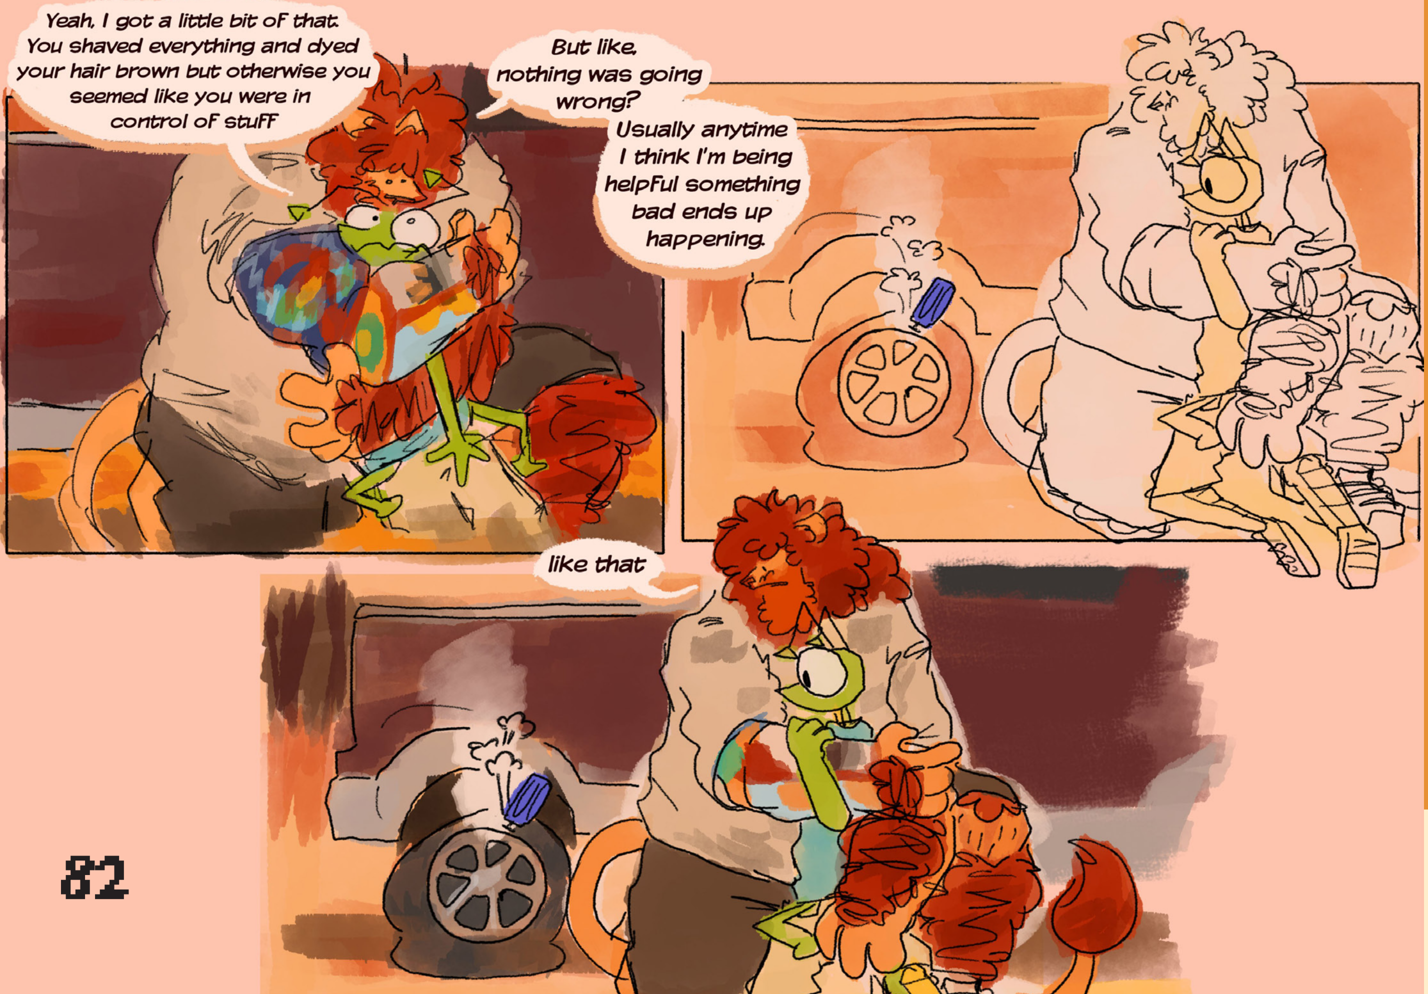
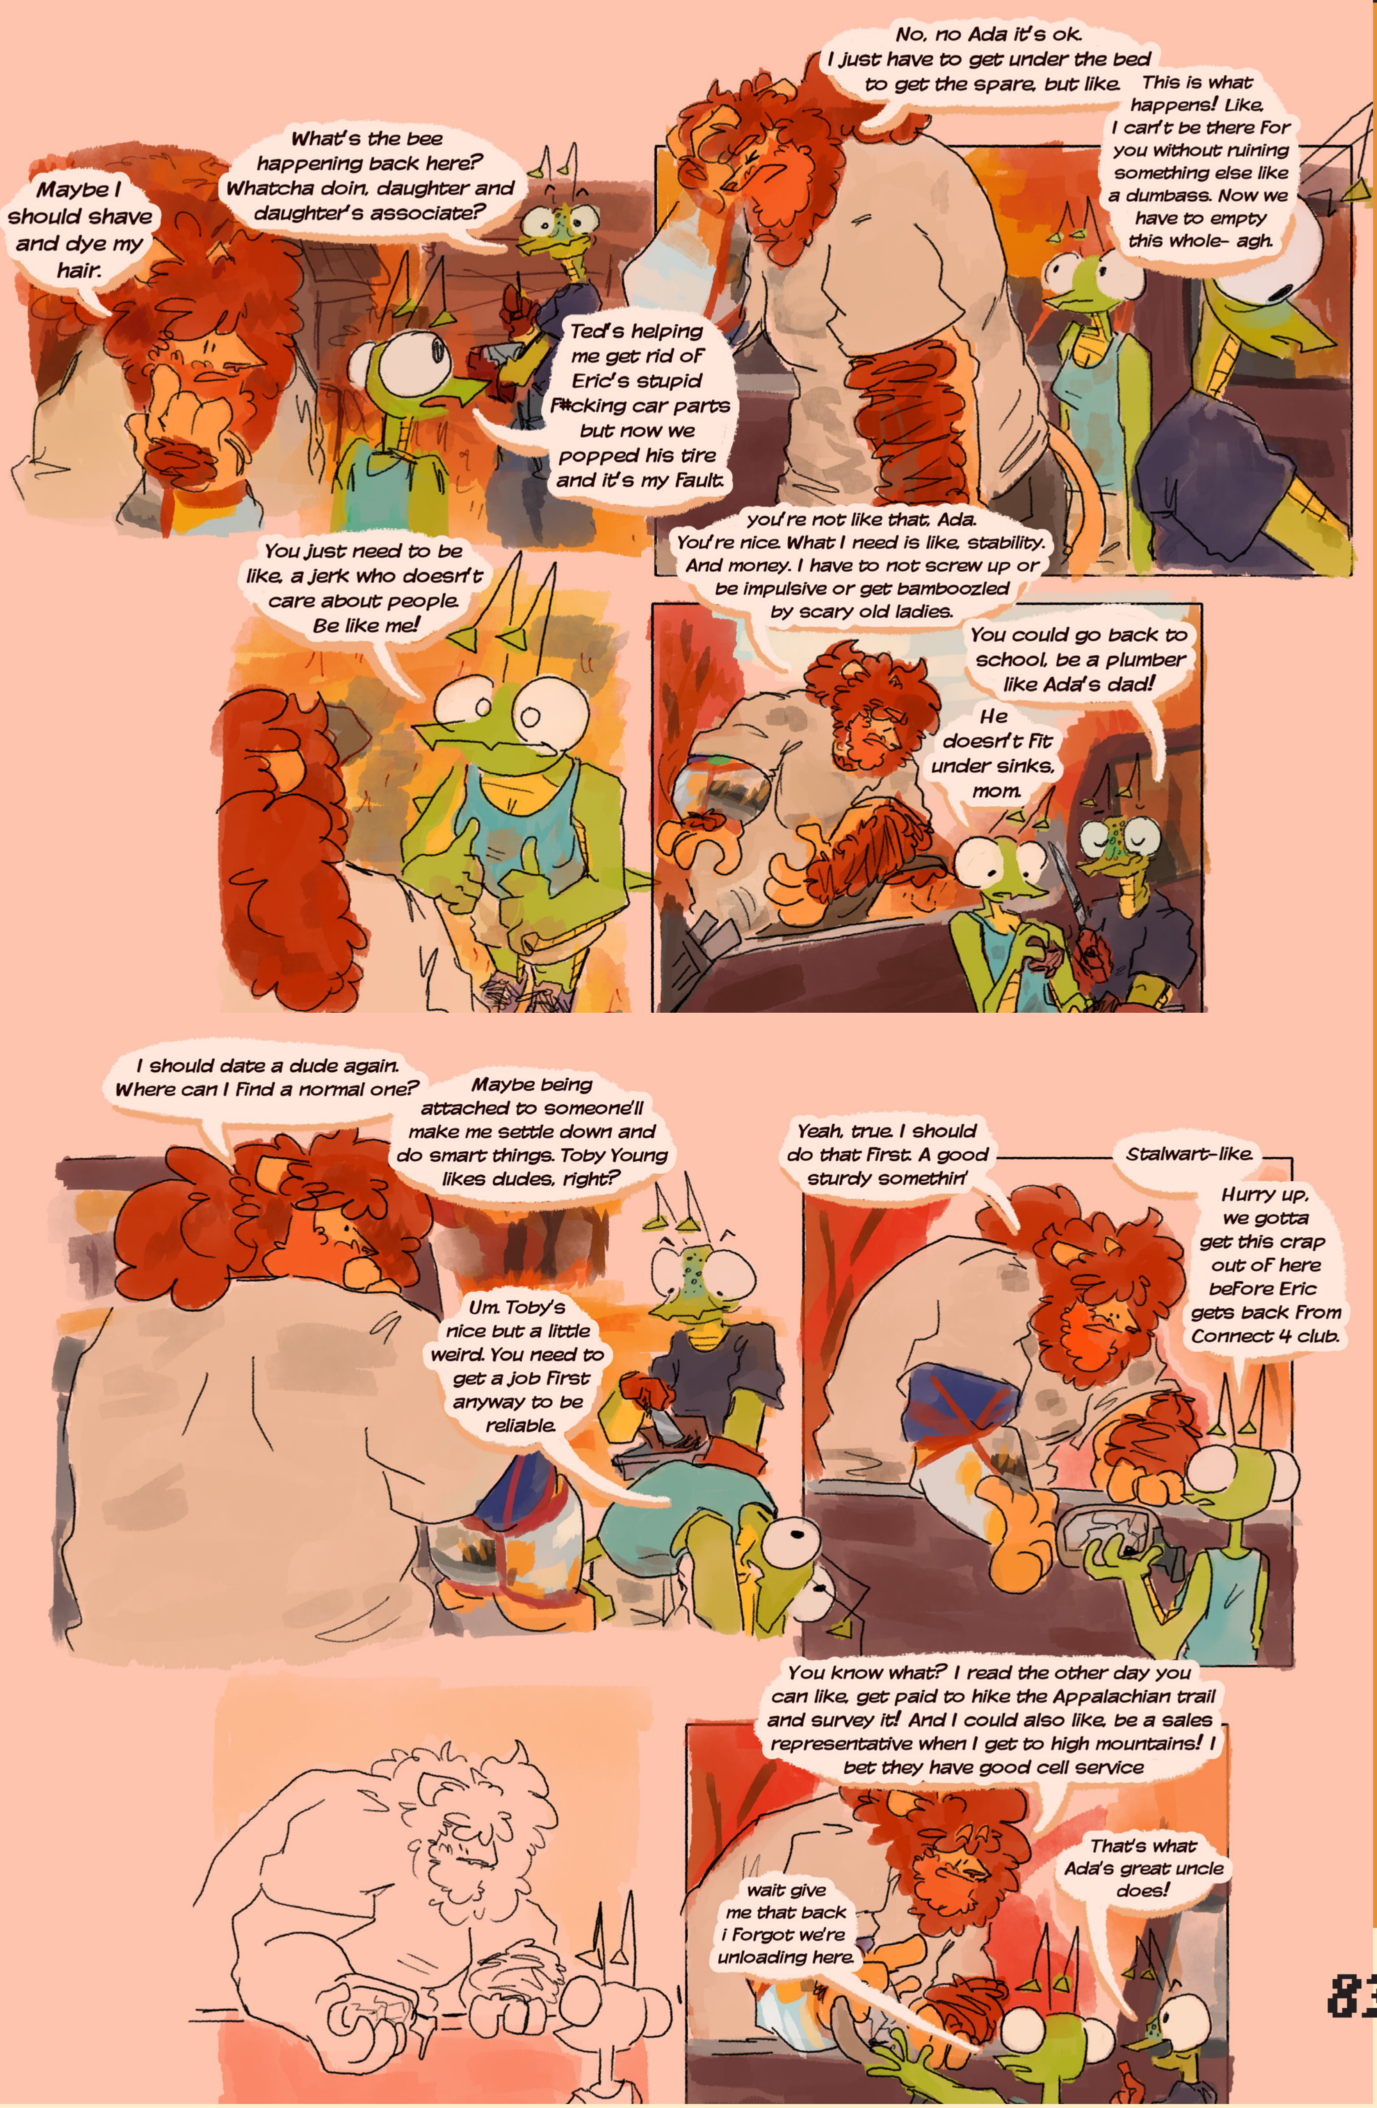
THIS COMIC IS RETCONNED!!!



Vamoose, Ted! Big honker comin in hot!!
Ada, can you imagine me like, swooping on a vine and saving a lady from a crocodile, generally having wrapped things up beforehand like at the end of a movie?
hmm.
Harbor City



Yeah, I got a little bit of that. You shaved everything and dyed your hair brown but otherwise you seemed like you were in control of stuff
But like, nothing was going wrong?
Usually anytime I think I'm being helpful something bad ends up happening.
like that



Maybe I should shave and dye my hair.
What's the bee happening back here? Whatcha doin, daughter and daughter's associate?
Ted's helping me get rid of Eric's stupid F#cking car parts but now we popped his tire and it's my fault.
No, no Ada it's ok. I just have to get under the bed to get the spare, but like.
This is what happens! Like, I can't be there for you without ruining something else like a dumbass. Now we have to empty this whole- agh.
You just need to be like, a jerk who doesn't care about people. Be like me!
you're not like that, Ada. You're nice. What I need is like, stability. And money. I have to not screw up or be impulsive or get bamboozled by scary old ladies.
You could go back to school, be a plumber like Ada's dad!
He doesn't fit under sinks, mom.
I should date a dude again. Where can I find a normal one?
Maybe being attached to someone'll make me settle down and do smart things. Toby Young likes dudes, right?
Um. Toby's nice but a little weird. You need to get a job first anyway to be reliable.
Yeah, true. I should do that first. A good sturdy somethin' Stalwart-like.
Hurry up, we gotta get this crap out of here before Eric gets back from Connect 4 club.
You know what? I read the other day you can like, get paid to hike the Appalachian trail and survey it! And I could also like, be a sales representative when I get to high mountains! I bet they have good cell service That's what Ada's great uncle does!
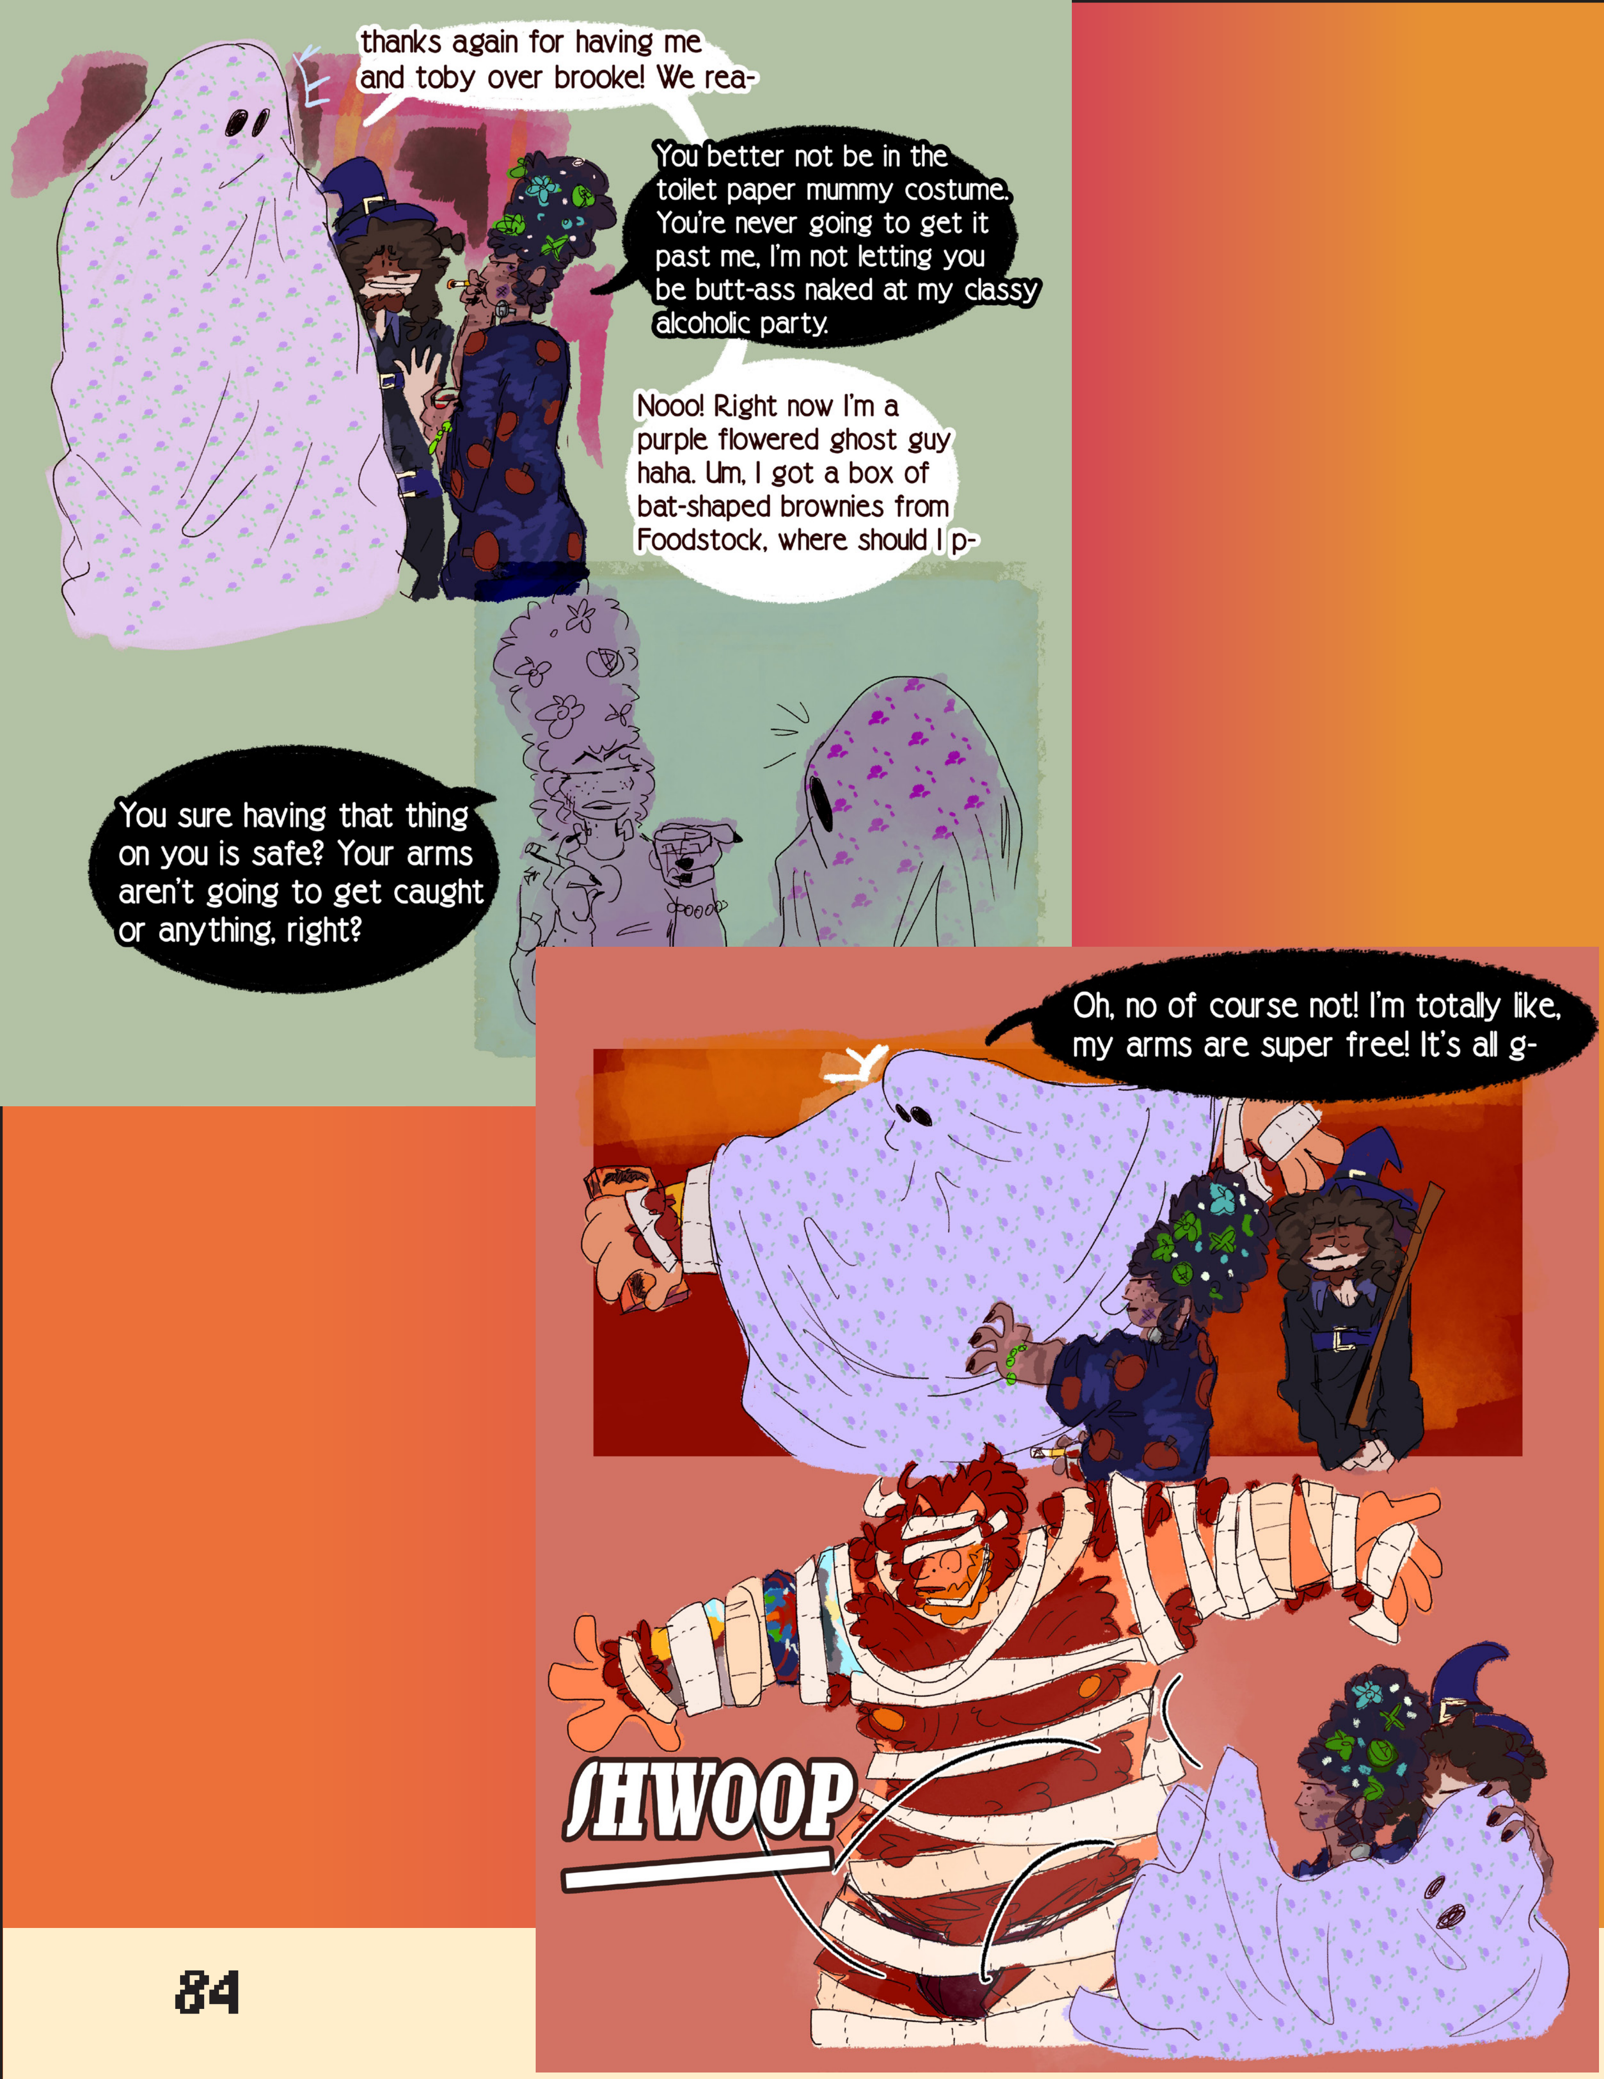
wait give me that back i forgot we're unloading here.



thanks again for having me and toby over brooke! We rea-

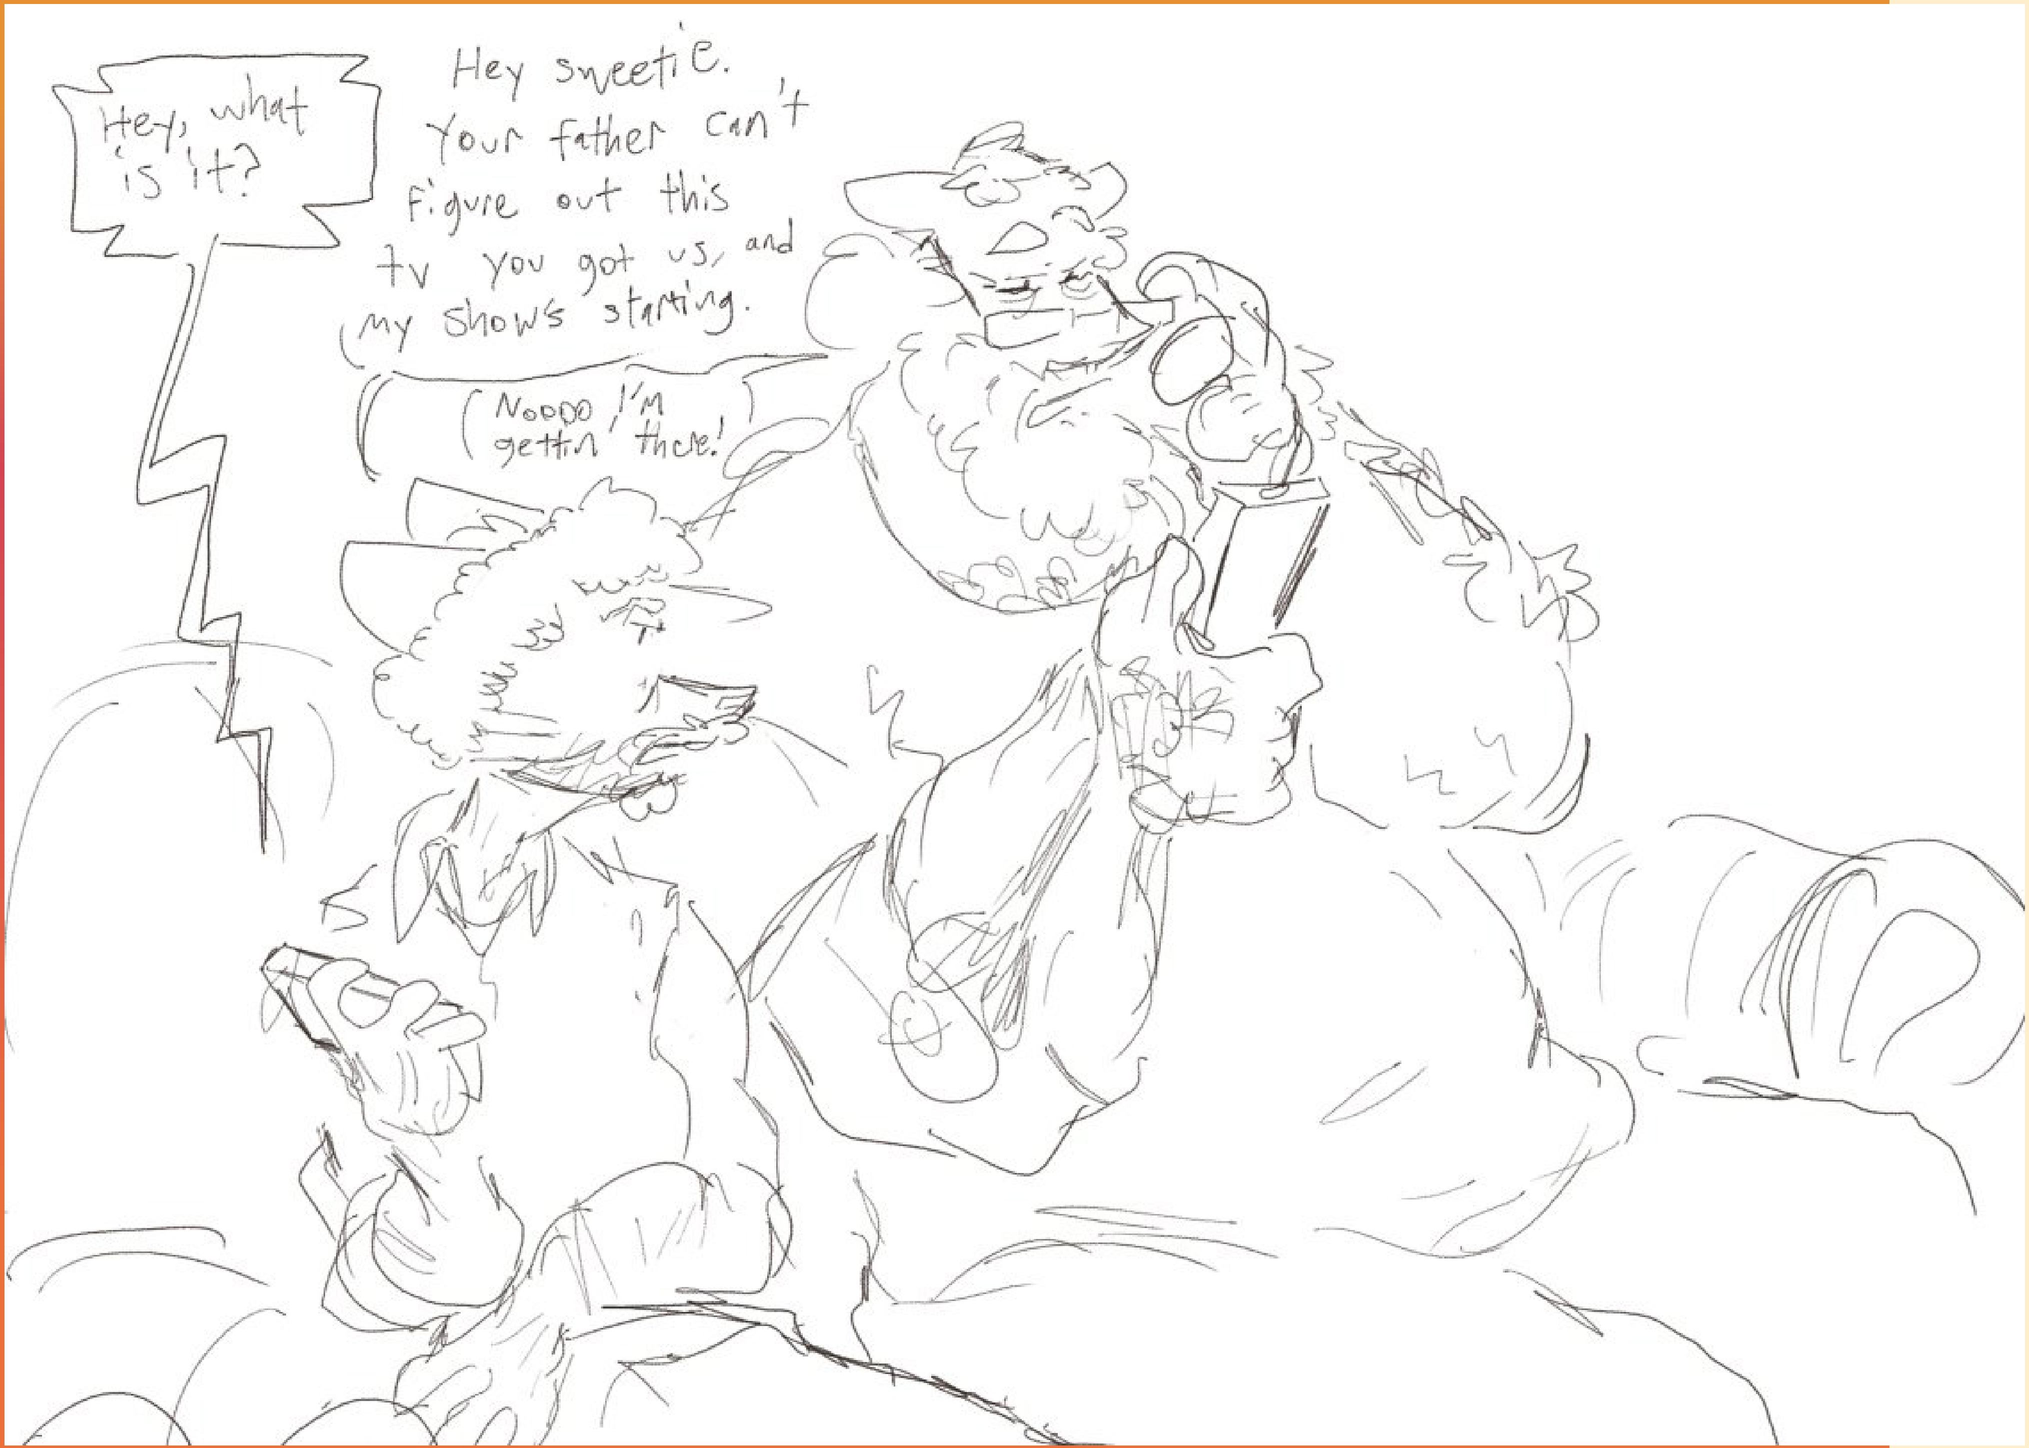
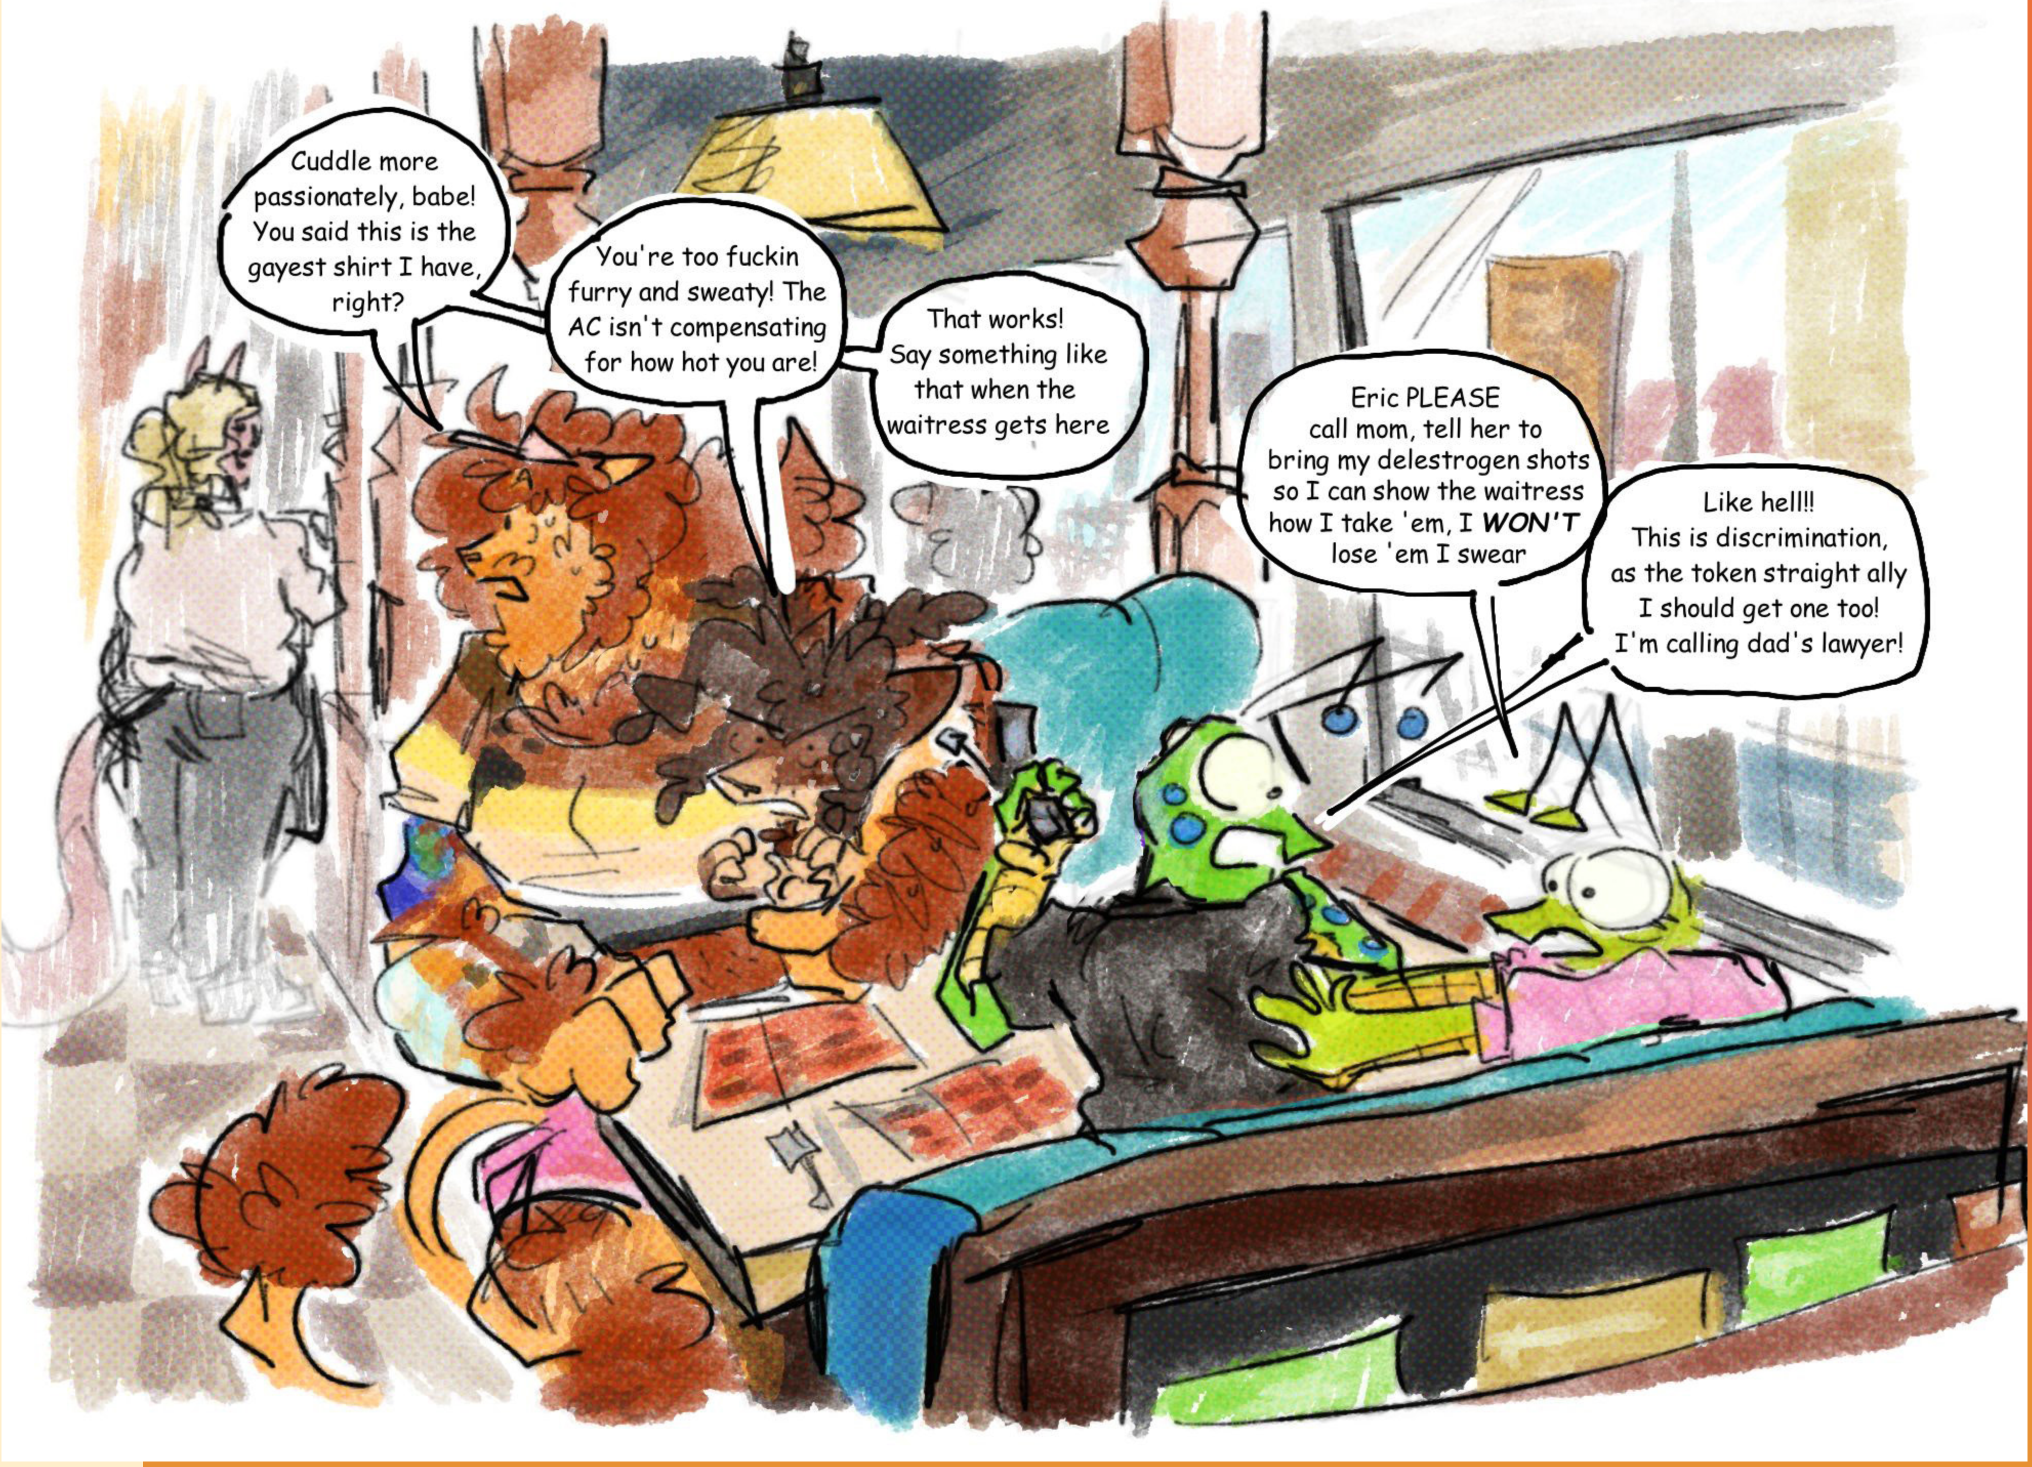
Upon review the author would like to note:

THIS COMIC IS PROBABLY RETCONNED!!!

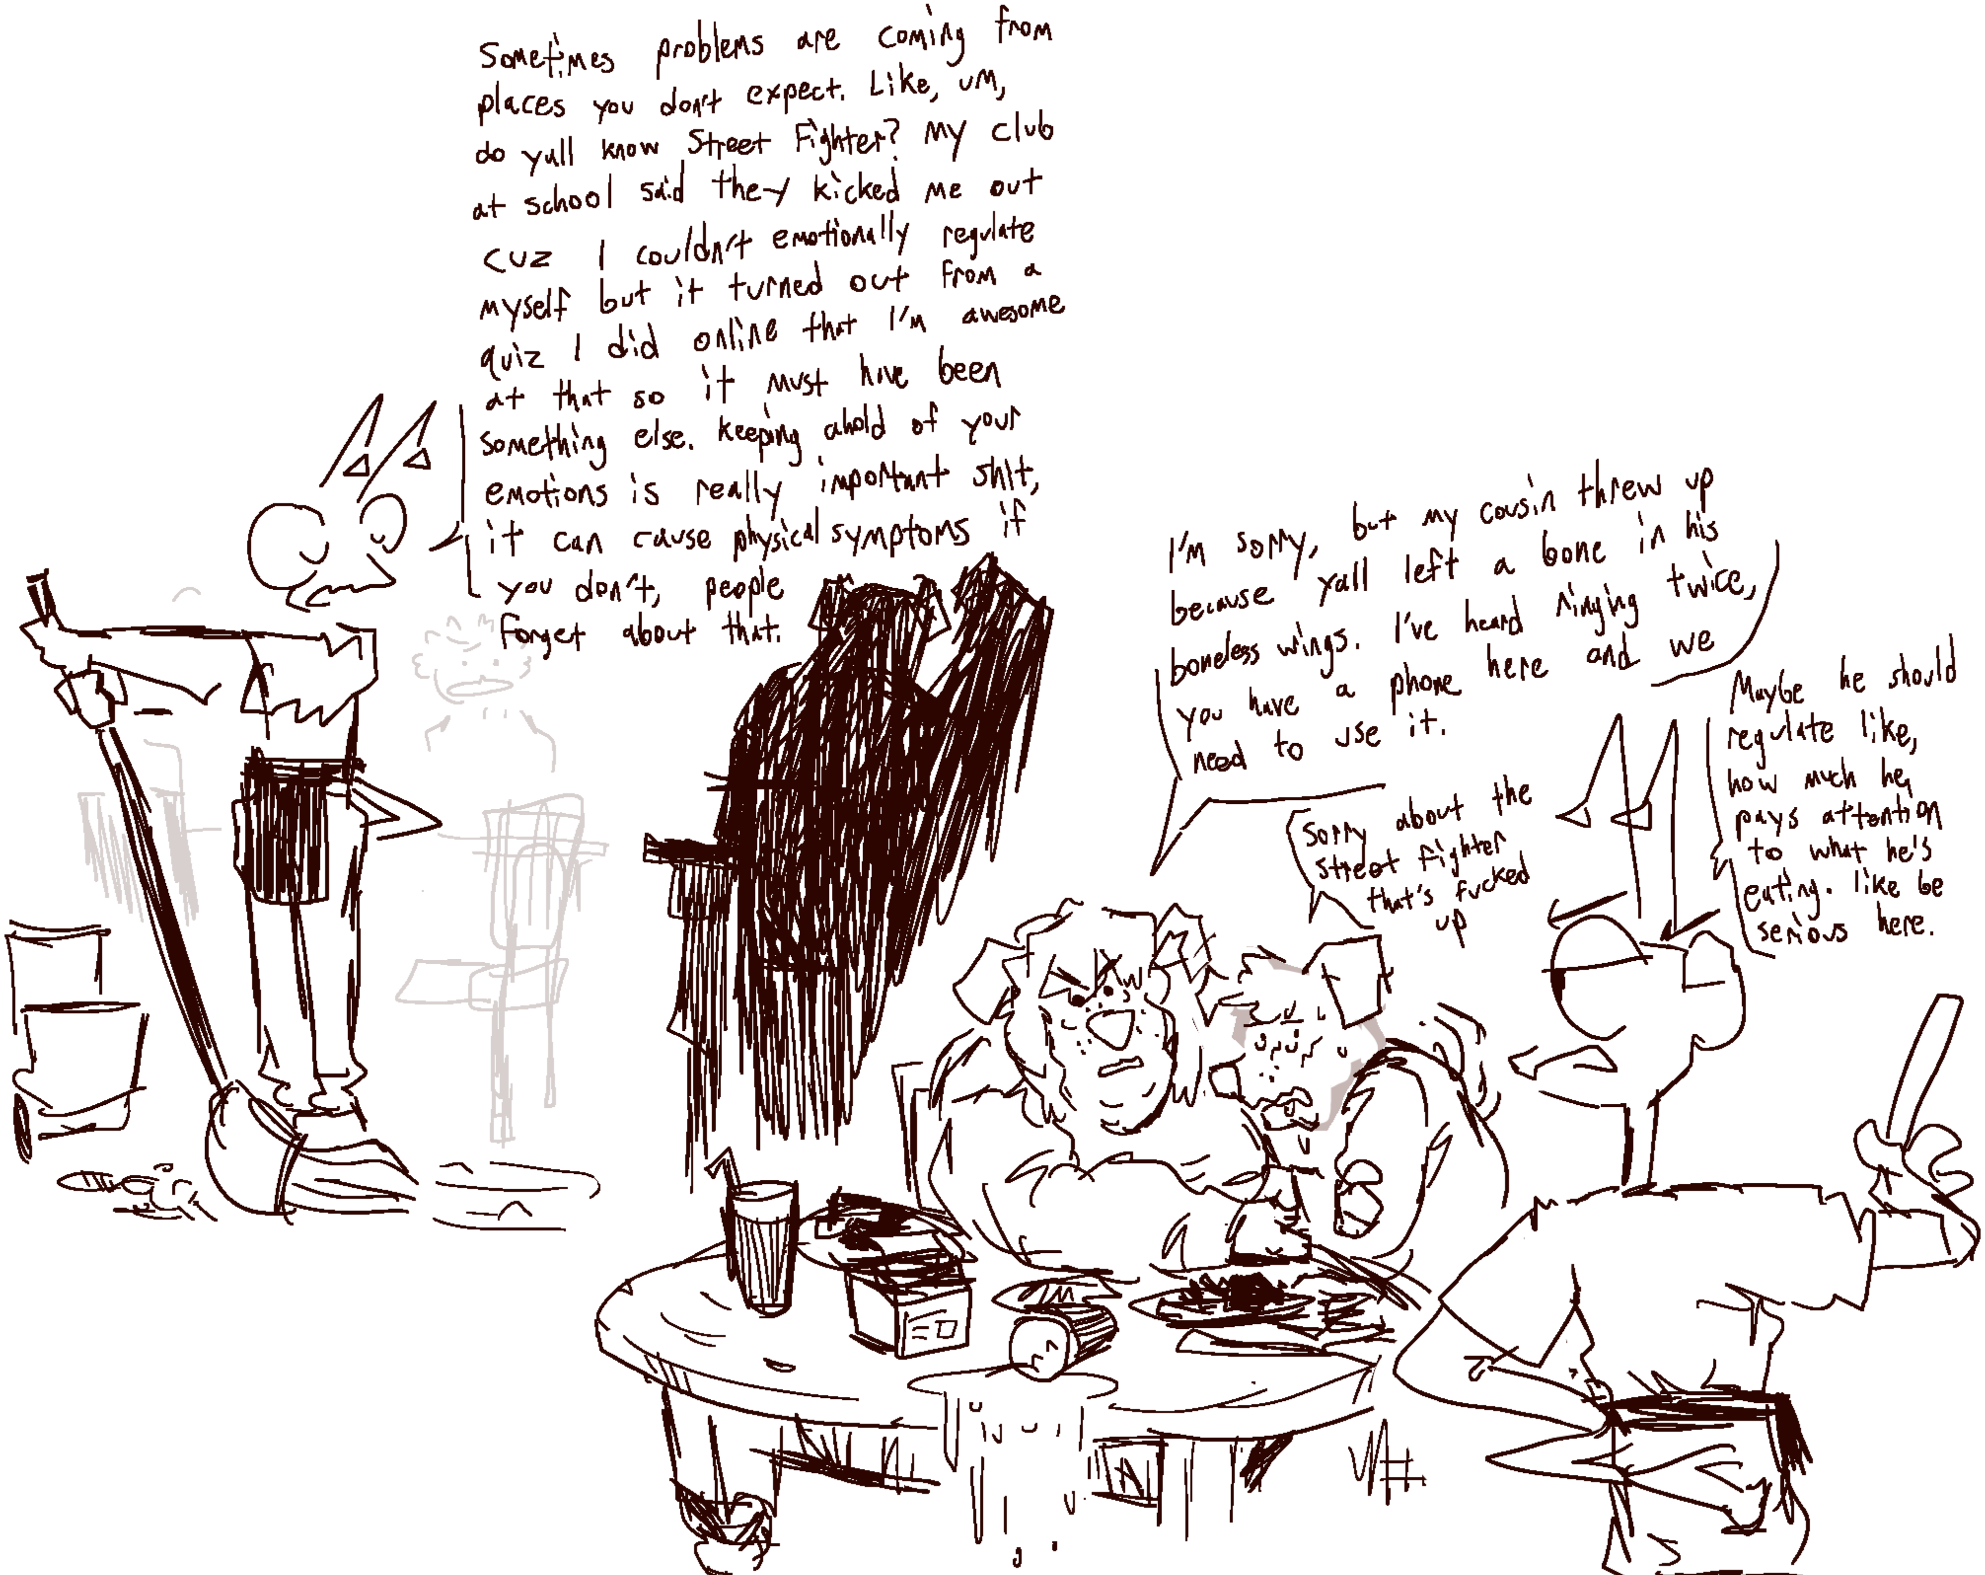


Hey, what is it?
Hey sweetie. Your father can't figure out this tv you got us, and my show's starting.
Noooo I'm gettin there!

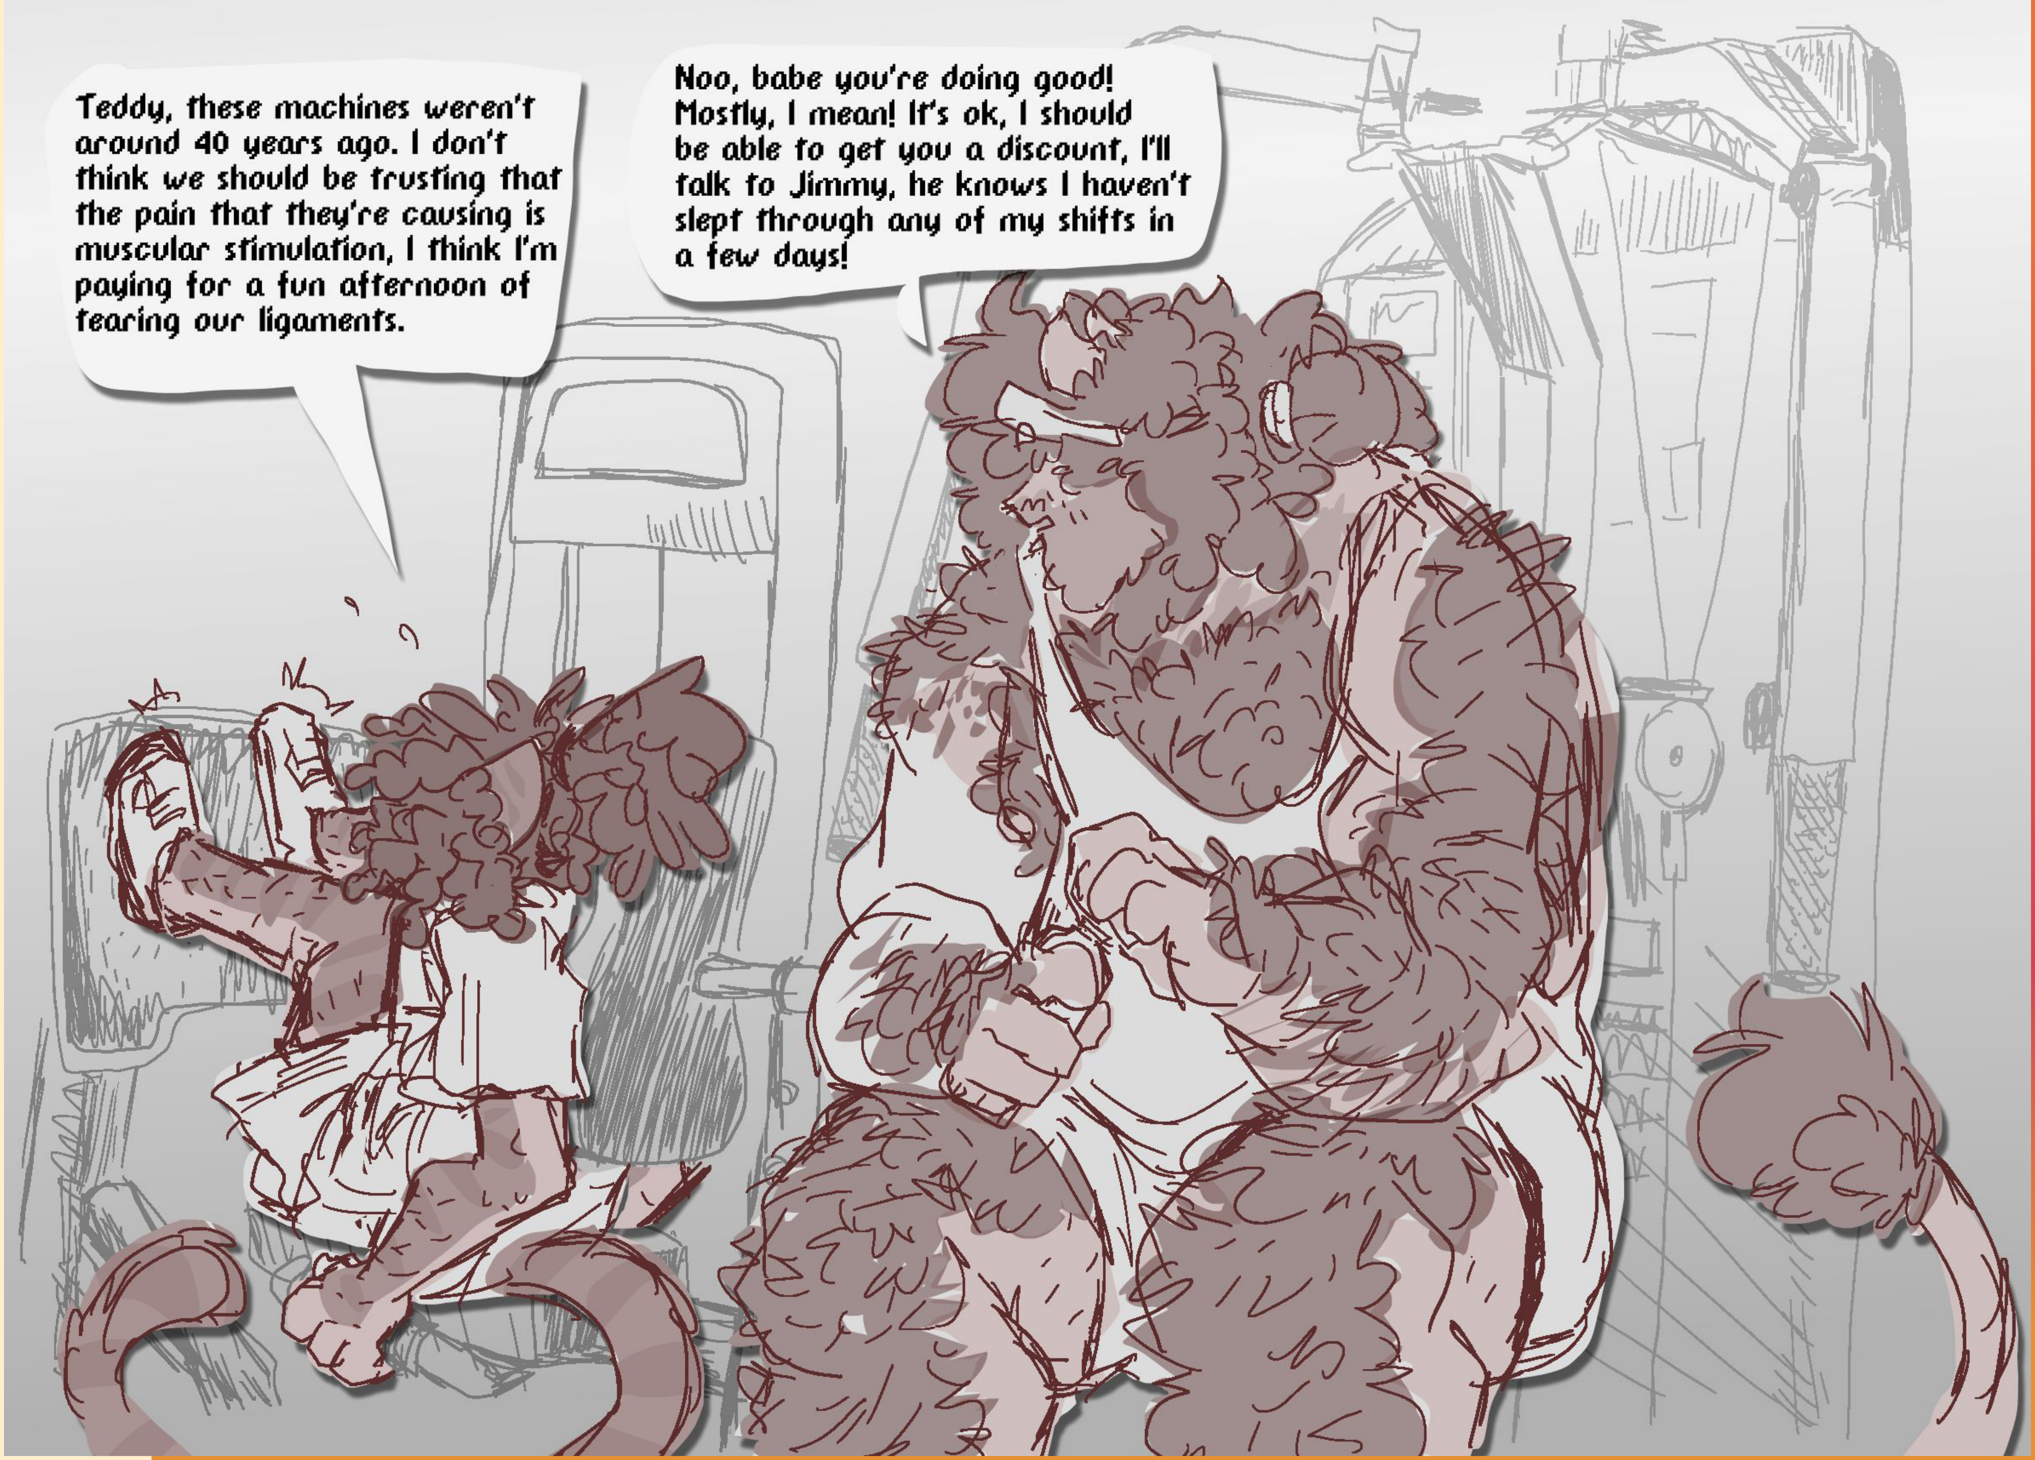
Rumor has spread that Jabroni's Pizza has adopted a stricter vetting process for participants in their "Free Pride Cookies" event



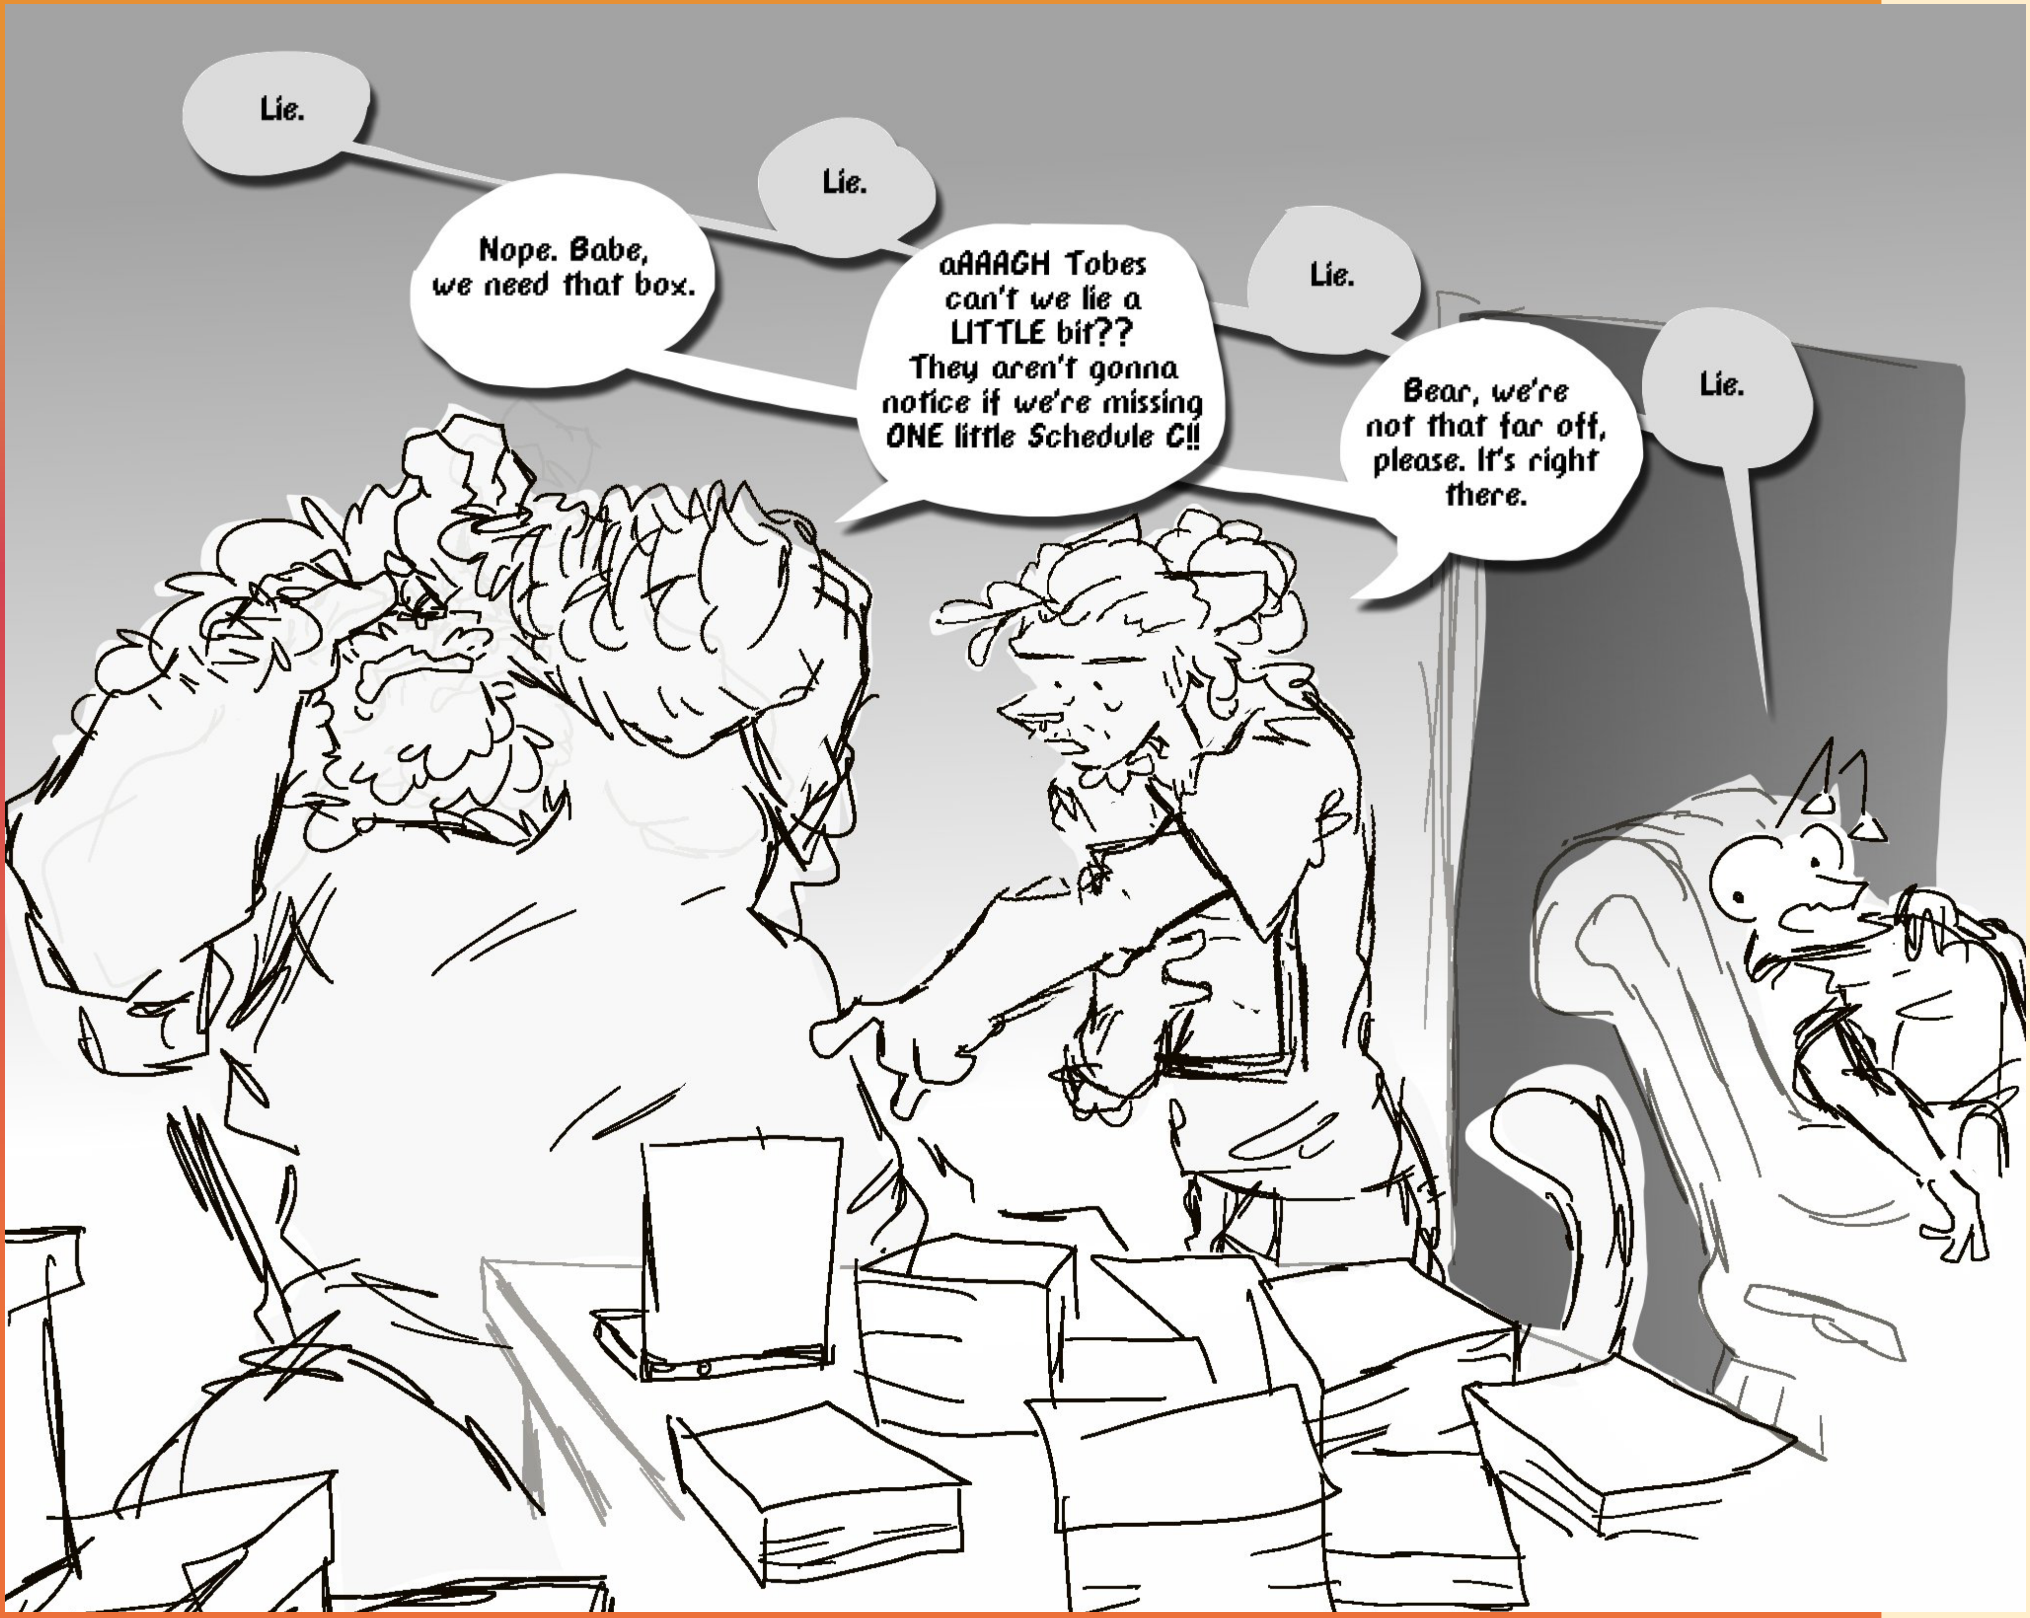
Cuddle more passionately, babe! You said this is the gayest shirt I have, right?
You're too fuckin furry and sweaty! The AC isn't compensating for how hot you are!
That works! Say something like that when the waitress gets here
Eric PLEASE call mom, tell her to bring my delestrogen shots so I can show the waitress how I take 'em, I WON'T lose 'em I swear
Like hell!! This is discrimination, as the token straight ally I should get one too! I'm calling dad's lawyer!



Sometimes problems are coming from places you don't expect. Like, um, do yall know Street Fighter? My club at school said they kicked me out cuz I couldn't emotionally regulate myself but it turned out from a quiz I did online that I'm awesome at that so it must have been something else. keeping ahold of your emotions is really important shit, it can cause physical symptoms if you don't, people forget about that.
I'm sorry, but my cousin threw up because yall left a bone in his boneless wings. I've heard ringing twice, you have a phone here and we need to use it.
Sorry about the Street fighter that's fucked up
Maybe he should regulate like, how much he pays attention to what he's eating. like be serious here.



Teddy, these machines weren't around 40 years ago. I don't think we should be trusting that the pain that they're causing is muscular stimulation, I think I'm paying for a fun afternoon of tearing our ligaments.
Noo, babe you're doing good! Mostly, I mean! It's ok, I should be able to get you a discount, I'll talk to Jimmy, he knows I haven't slept through any of my shifts in a few days!



Lie.
Lie.
Nope. Babe, we need that box.
aAAAGH Tobes can't we lie a LITTLE bit?? They aren't gonna notice if we're missing ONE little Schedule C!!
Lie.
Bear, we're not that far off, please. It's right there.

Teddy!! Look what- I mean you can keep sleeping in, but they let me decorate your cake at Foodstock! Do you like it??

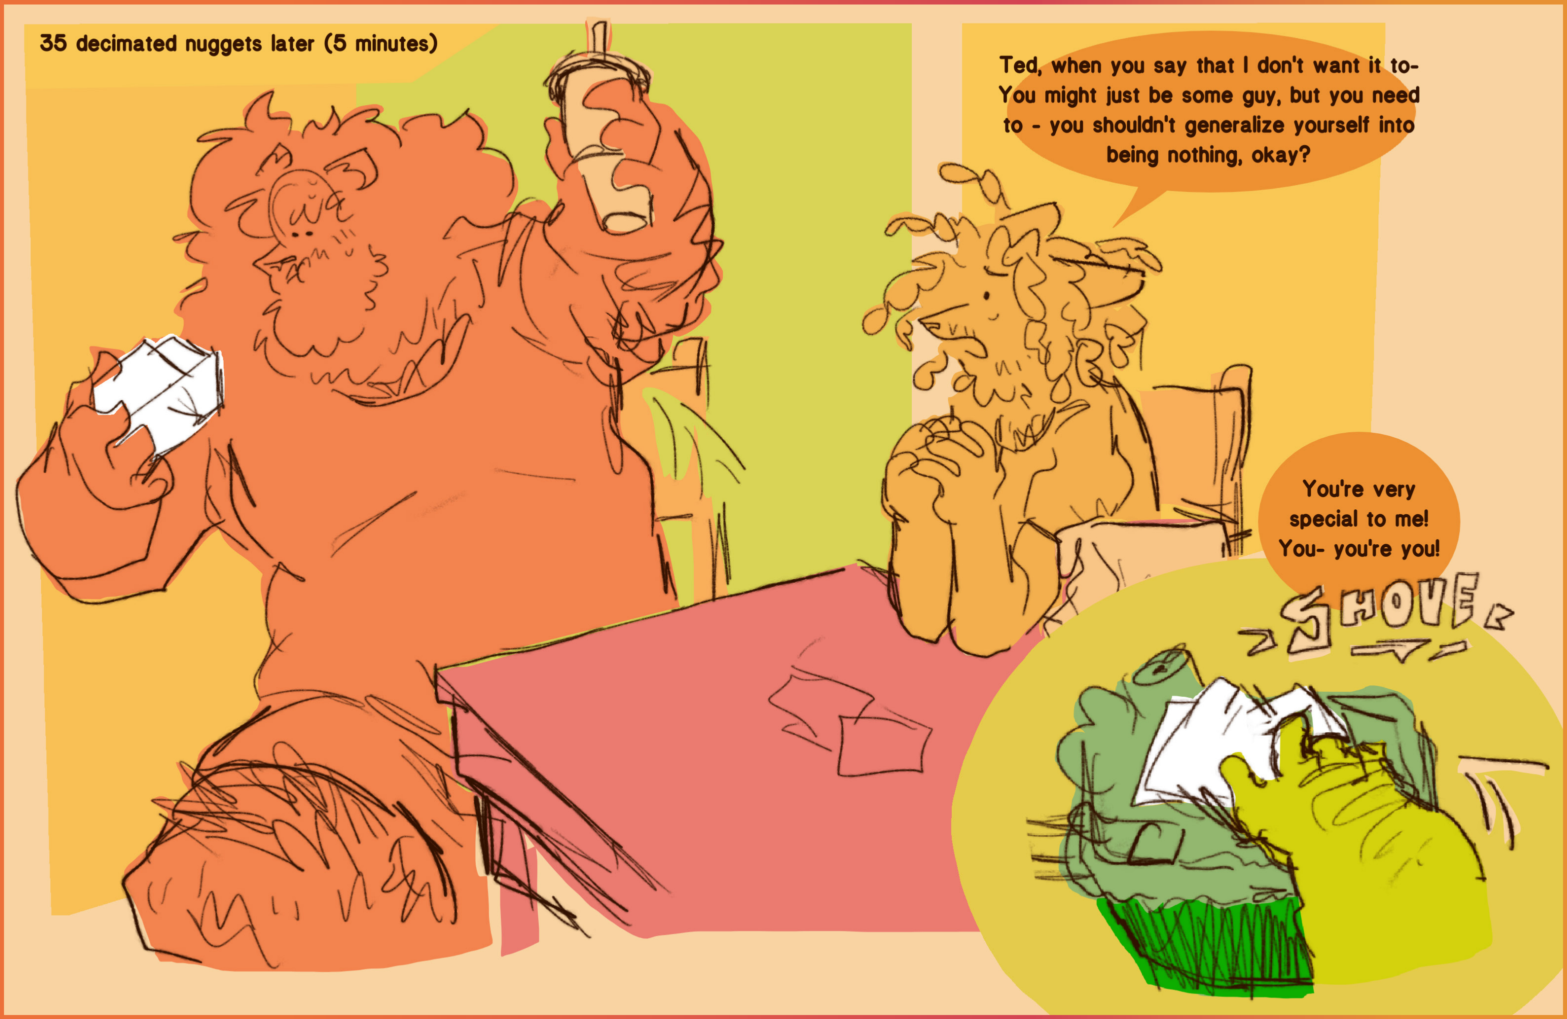
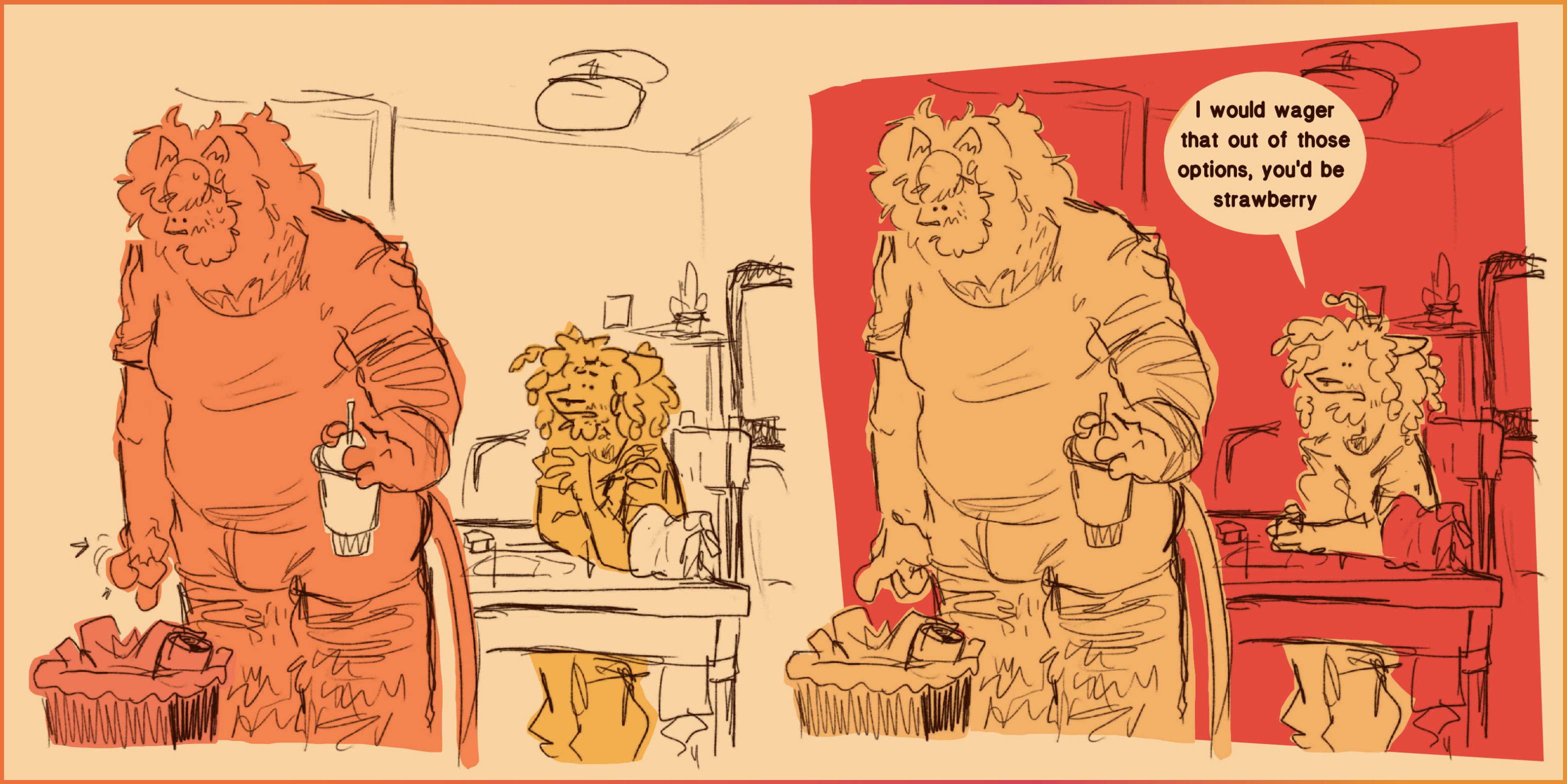
I'm just some guy, you know? I feel like most people just kind of forget they exist a lot too, doesn't make me special



35 decimated nuggets later (5 minutes)
Ted, when you say that I don't want it to- You might just be some guy, but you need to - you shouldn't generalize yourself into being nothing, okay?
You're very special to me! You- you're you!
SHOVE



I would wager that out of those options, you'd be strawberry why how come?

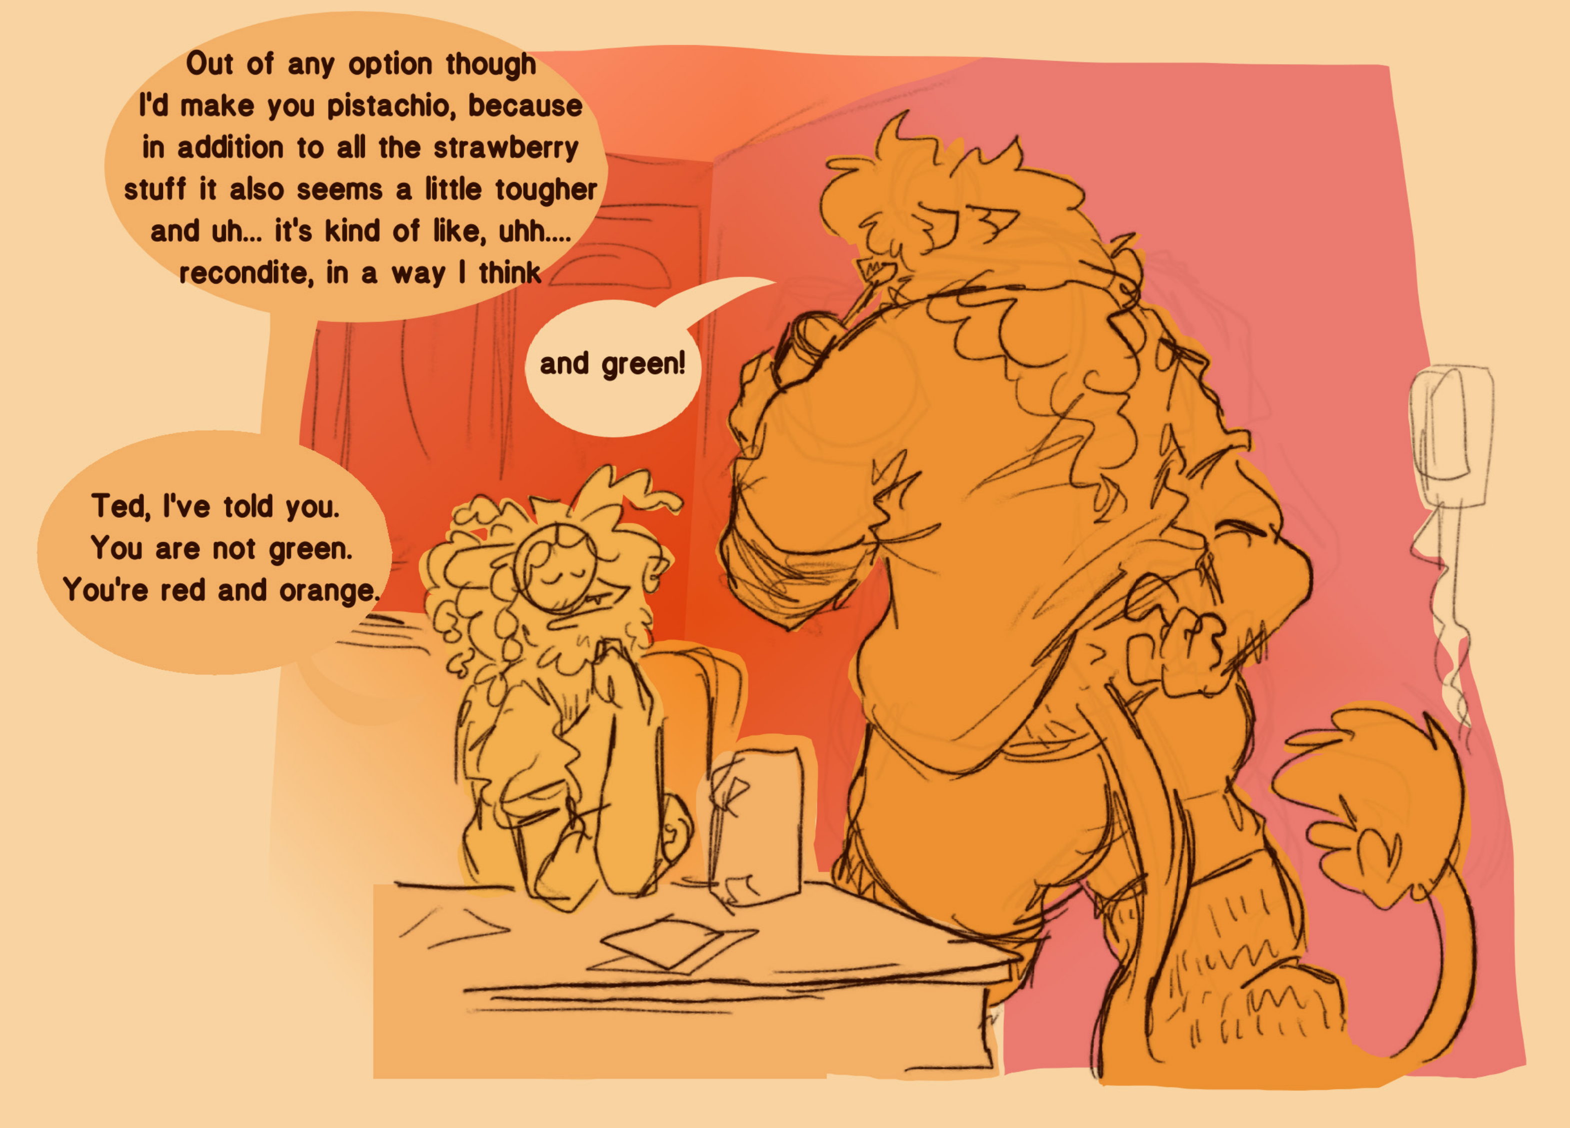
'cause you're an understatedly reliable choice, agreeable to almost everyone, fun yet calm, and inexplicably effeminate
that's homophobic



Out of any option though I'd make you pistachio, because in addition to all the strawberry stuff it also seems a little tougher and uh... it's kind of like, uhh.... recondite, in a way I think and green!
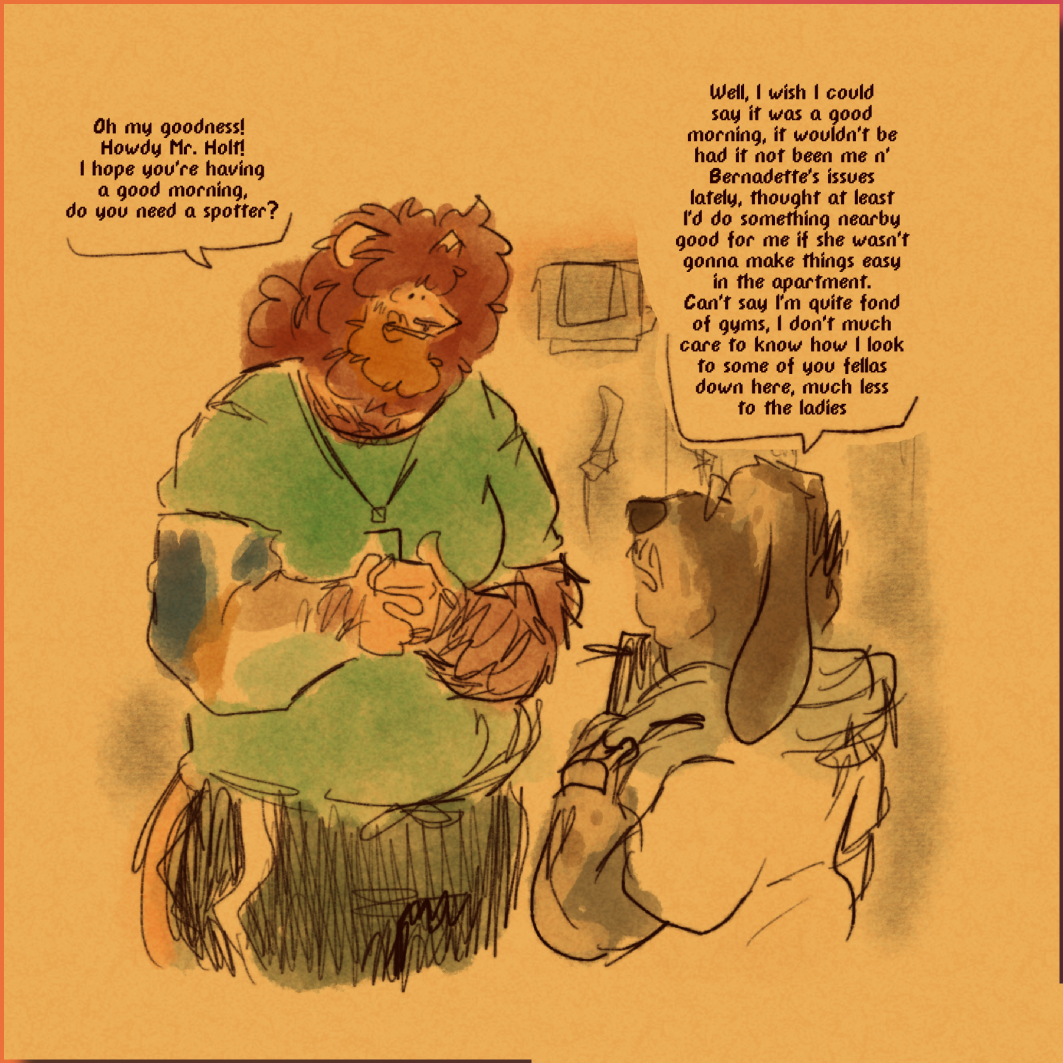
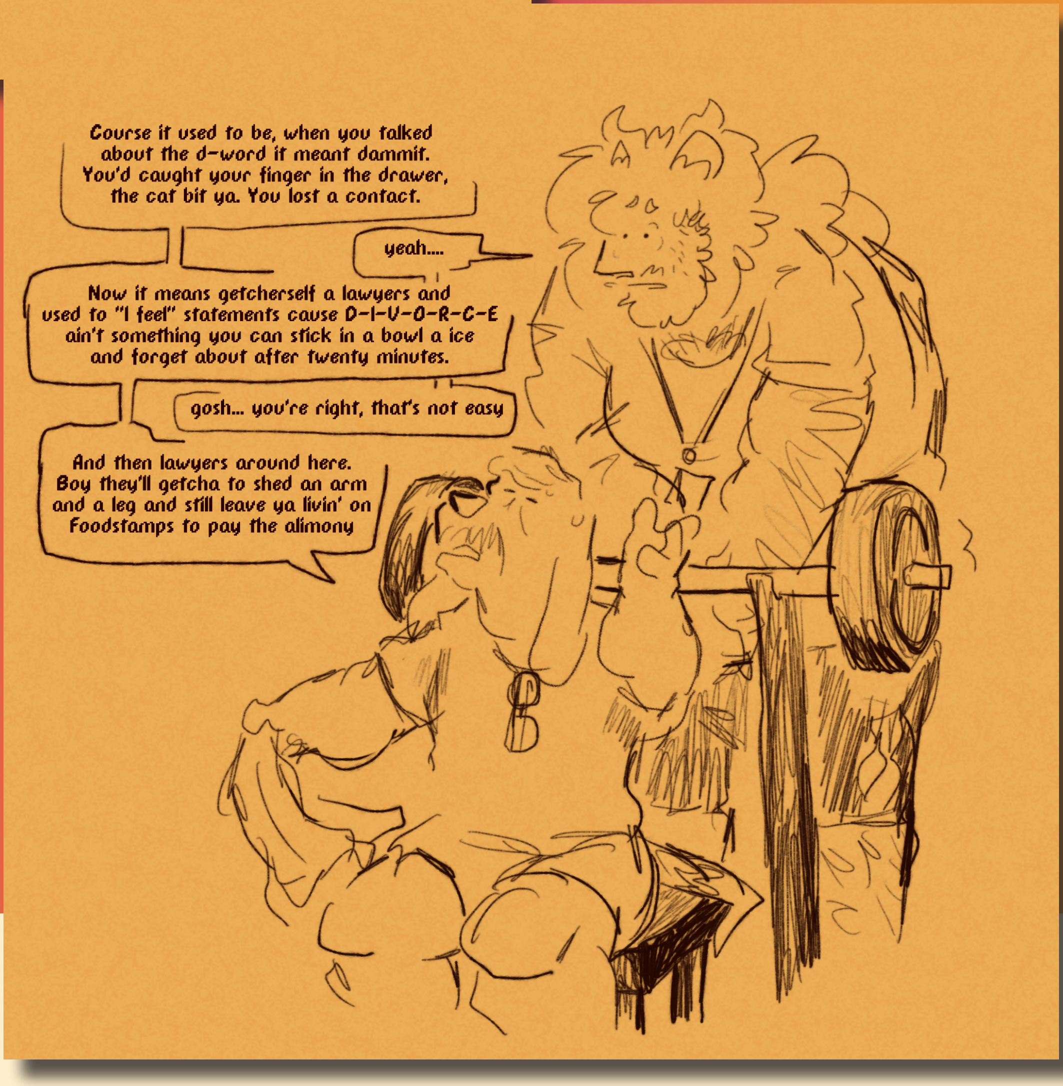
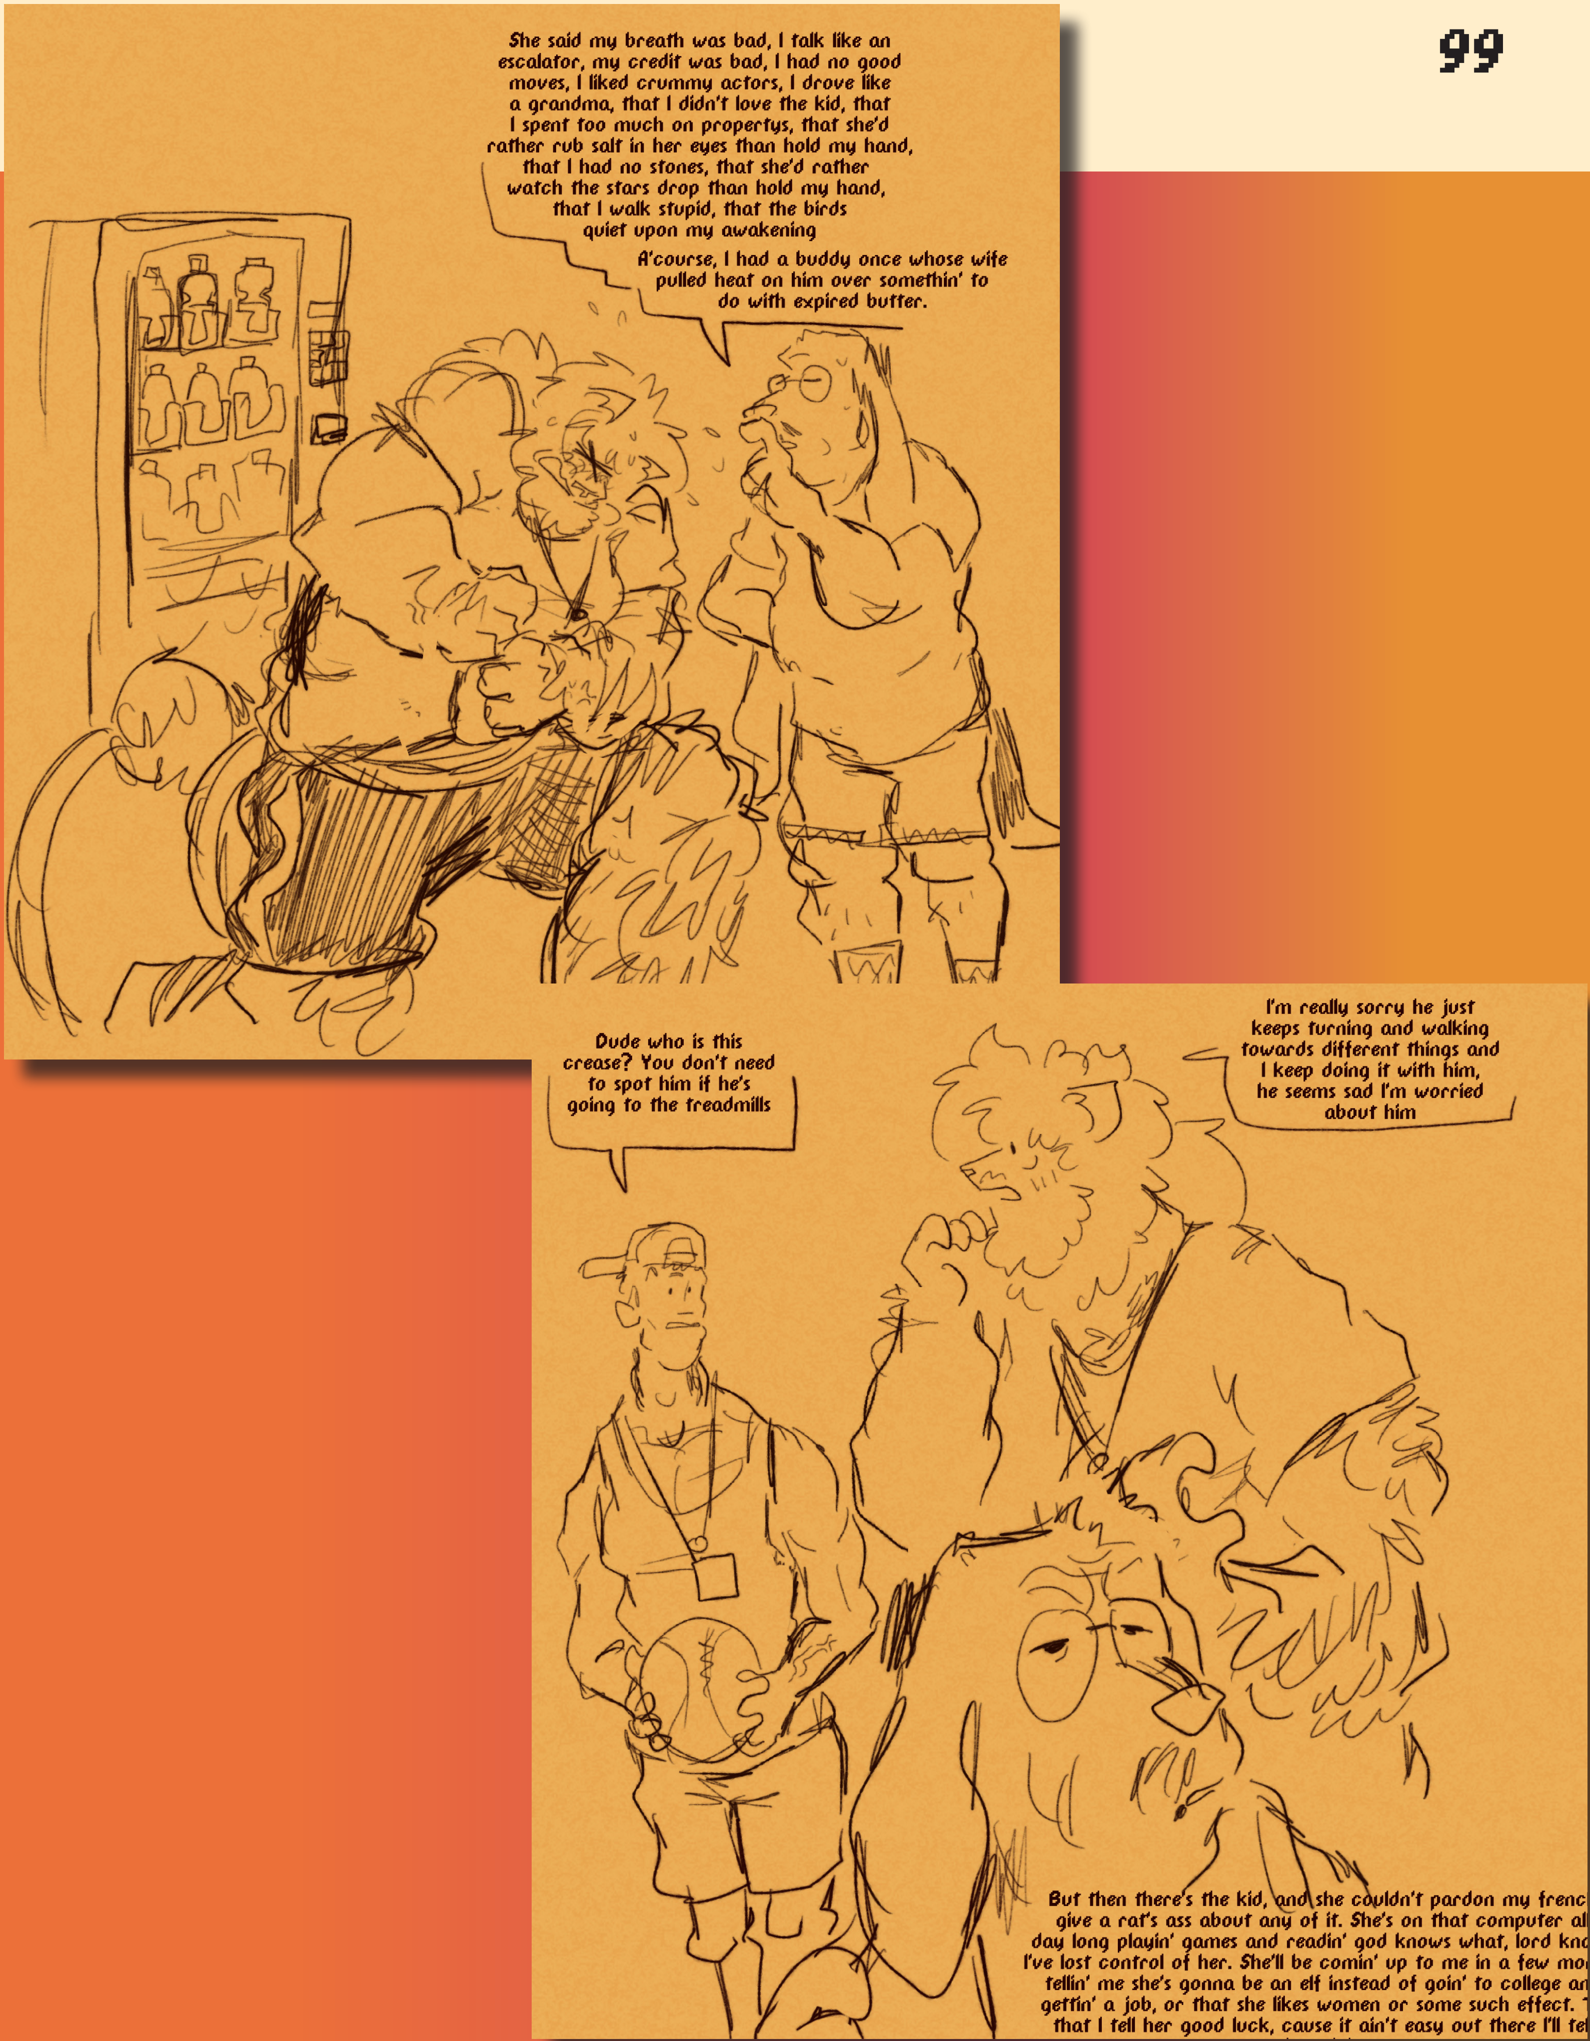
Ted, I've told you. You are not green. You're red and orange.



Oh my goodness! Howdy Mr. Holt! I hope you're having a good morning, do you need a spotter?
Well, I wish I could say it was a good morning, it wouldn't be had it not been me n' Bernadette's issues lately, thought at least I'd do something nearby good for me if she wasn't gonna make things easy in the apartment. Can't say I'm quite fond of gyms, I don't much care to know how I look to some of you fellas down here, much less to the ladies



Course it used to be, when you talked about the d-word it meant dammit. You'd caught your finger in the drawer, the cat bit ya. You lost a contact.
yeah....
Now it means getcherself a lawyers and used to "I feel" statements cause D-I-V-O-R-C-E ain't something you can stick in a bowl a ice and forget about after twenty minutes.
gosh... you're right, that's not easy
And then lawyers around here. Boy they'll getcha to shed an arm and a leg and still leave ya livin' on Foodstamps to pay the alimony



She said my breath was bad, I talk like an escalator, my credit was bad, I had no good moves, I liked crummy actors, I drove like a grandma, that I didn't love the kid, that I spent too much on propertys, that she'd rather rub salt in her eyes than hold my hand, that I had no stones, that she'd rather watch the stars drop than hold my hand, that I walk stupid, that the birds quiet upon my awakening A'course, I had a buddy once whose wife pulled heat on him over somethin' to do with expired butter.
Dude who is this crease? You don't need to spot him if he's going to the treadmills
I'm really sorry he just keeps turning and walking towards different things and I keep doing it with him, he seems sad I'm worried about him
But then there's the kid, and she couldn't pardon my frenc give a rat's ass about any of it. She's on that computer al day long playin' games and readin' god knows what, lord kno I've lost control of her. She'll be comin' up to me in a few mo tellin' me she's gonna be an elf instead of goin' to college an gettin' a job, or that she likes women or some such effect. Tobes, come on!! You won't drink any of your milkshakes at the house, what's the point of driving 45 minutes just to get you another one? There's gotta be something else here you want!
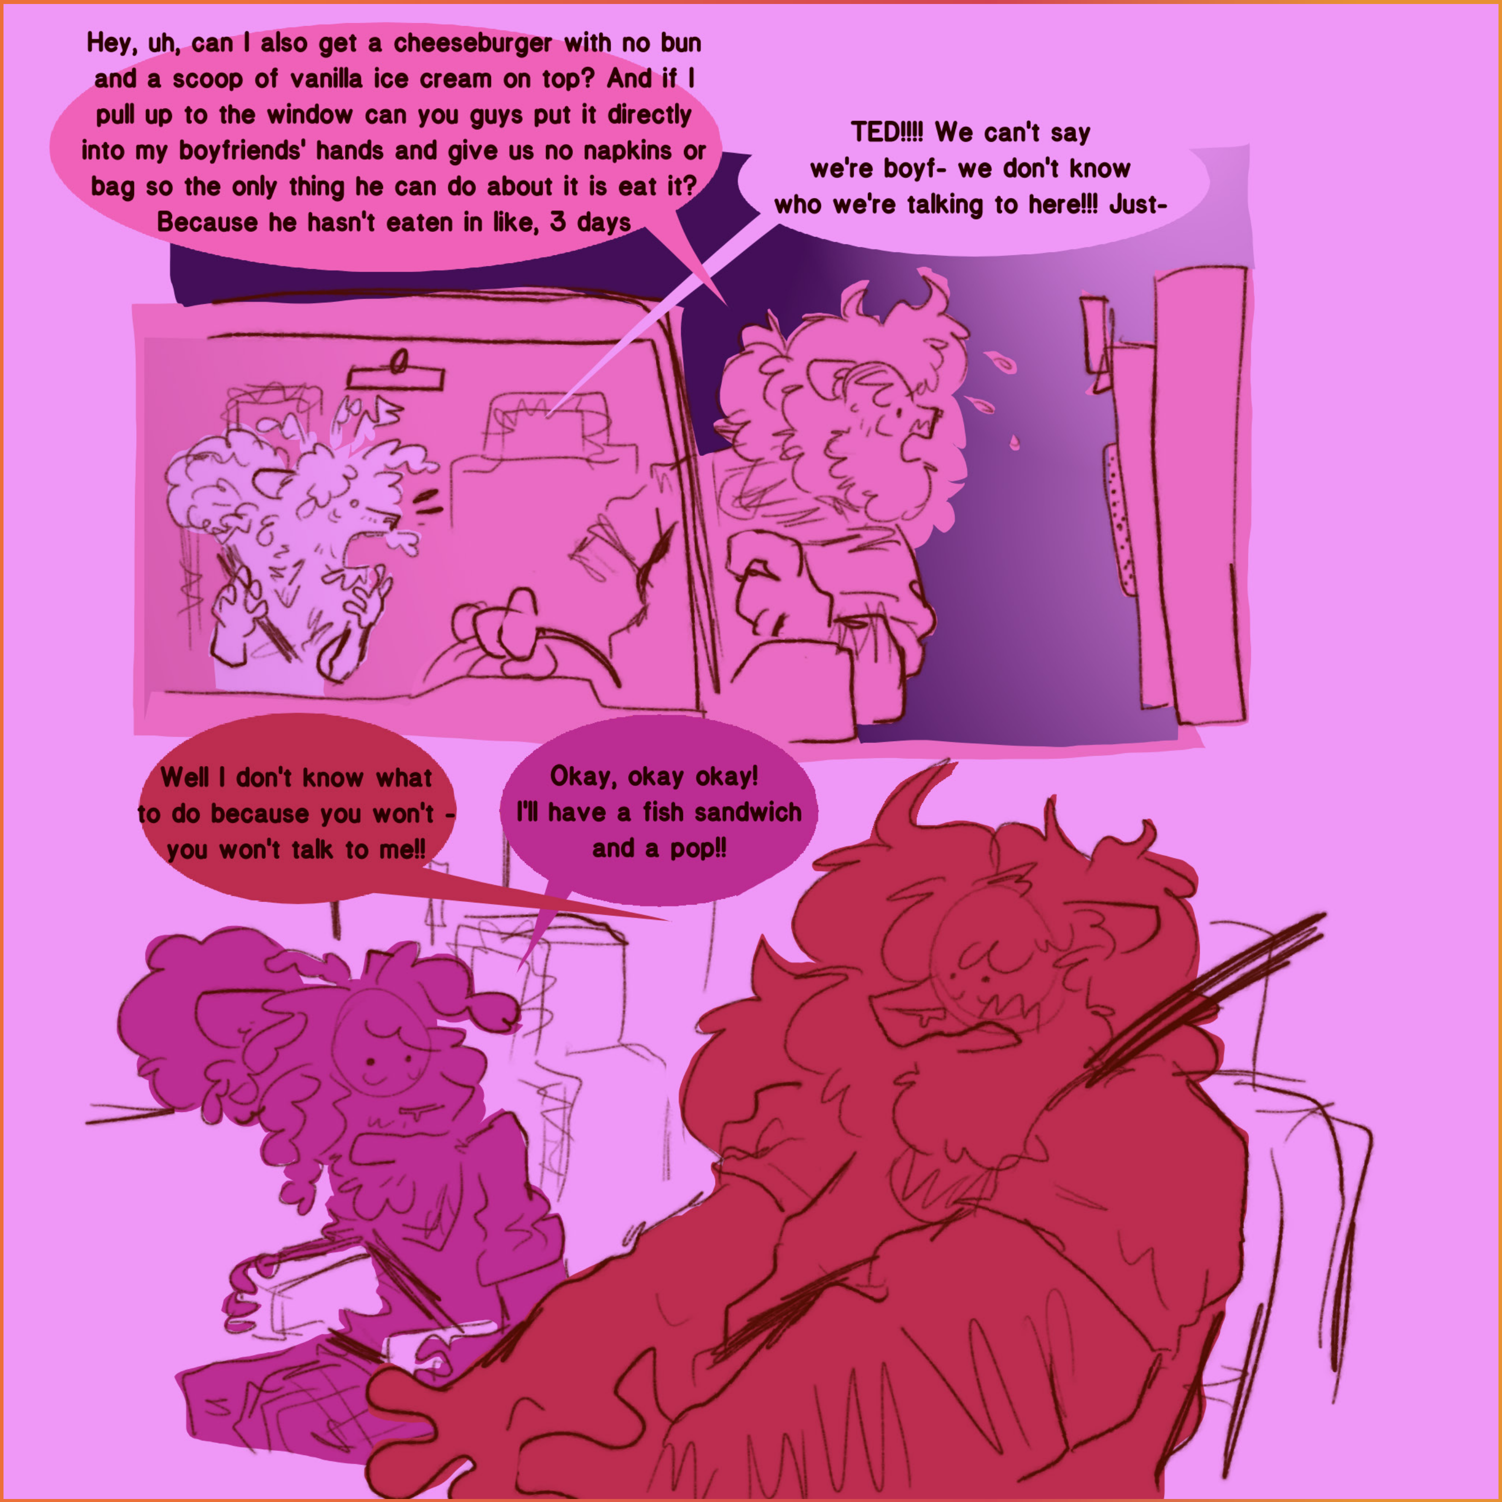
It's- oh god, Ted I thought- I didn't want you to drive all this way for me! Just get what you want, I'm okay!!



Hey, uh, can I also get a cheeseburger with no bun and a scoop of vanilla ice cream on top? And if I pull up to the window can you guys put it directly into my boyfriends' hands and give us no napkins or bag so the only thing he can do about it is eat it? Because he hasn't eaten in like, 3 days TED!!!! We can't say we're boyf- we don't know who we're talking to here!!! Just-
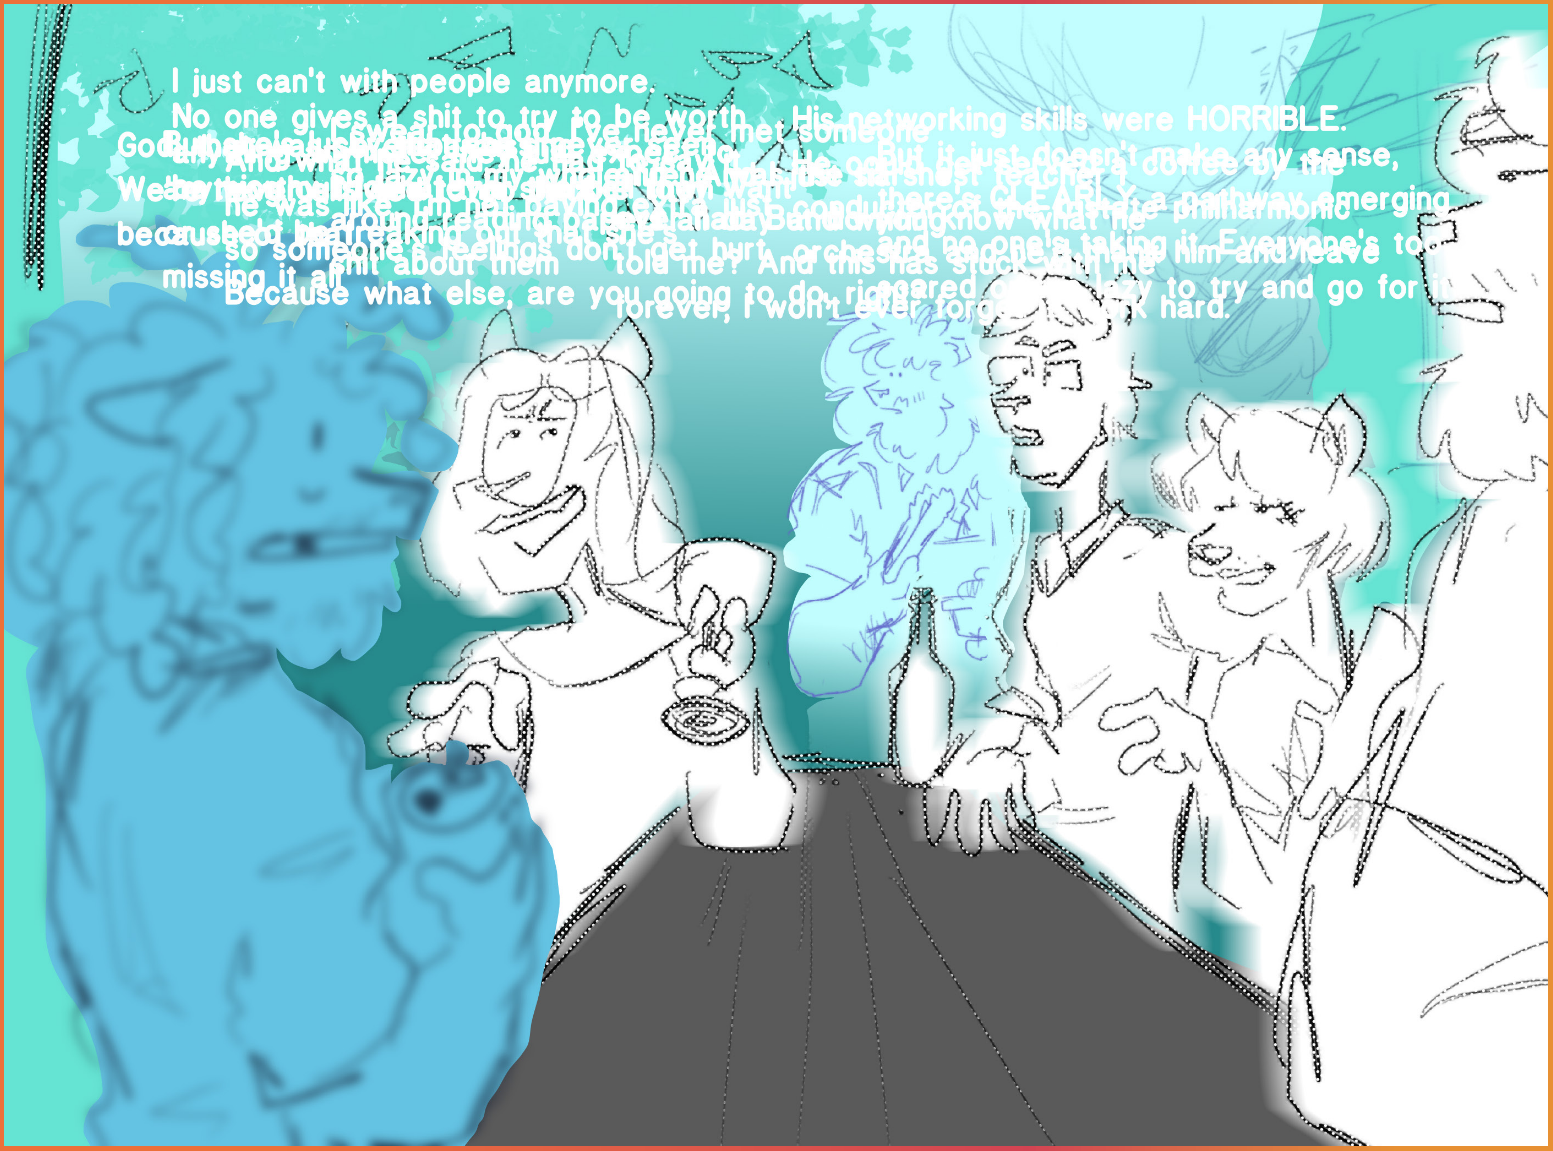
Well I don't know what to do because you won't - you won't talk to me!!
Okay, okay okay! I'll have a fish sandwich and a pop!!



I just can't with people anymore.
No one gives a shit to try to be worth
His networking skills were HORRIBLE.
I swear to god I've never met someone he was like I'm not paying extra just Because what else, are you going to do, right?

forever, I won't ever forget work hard.
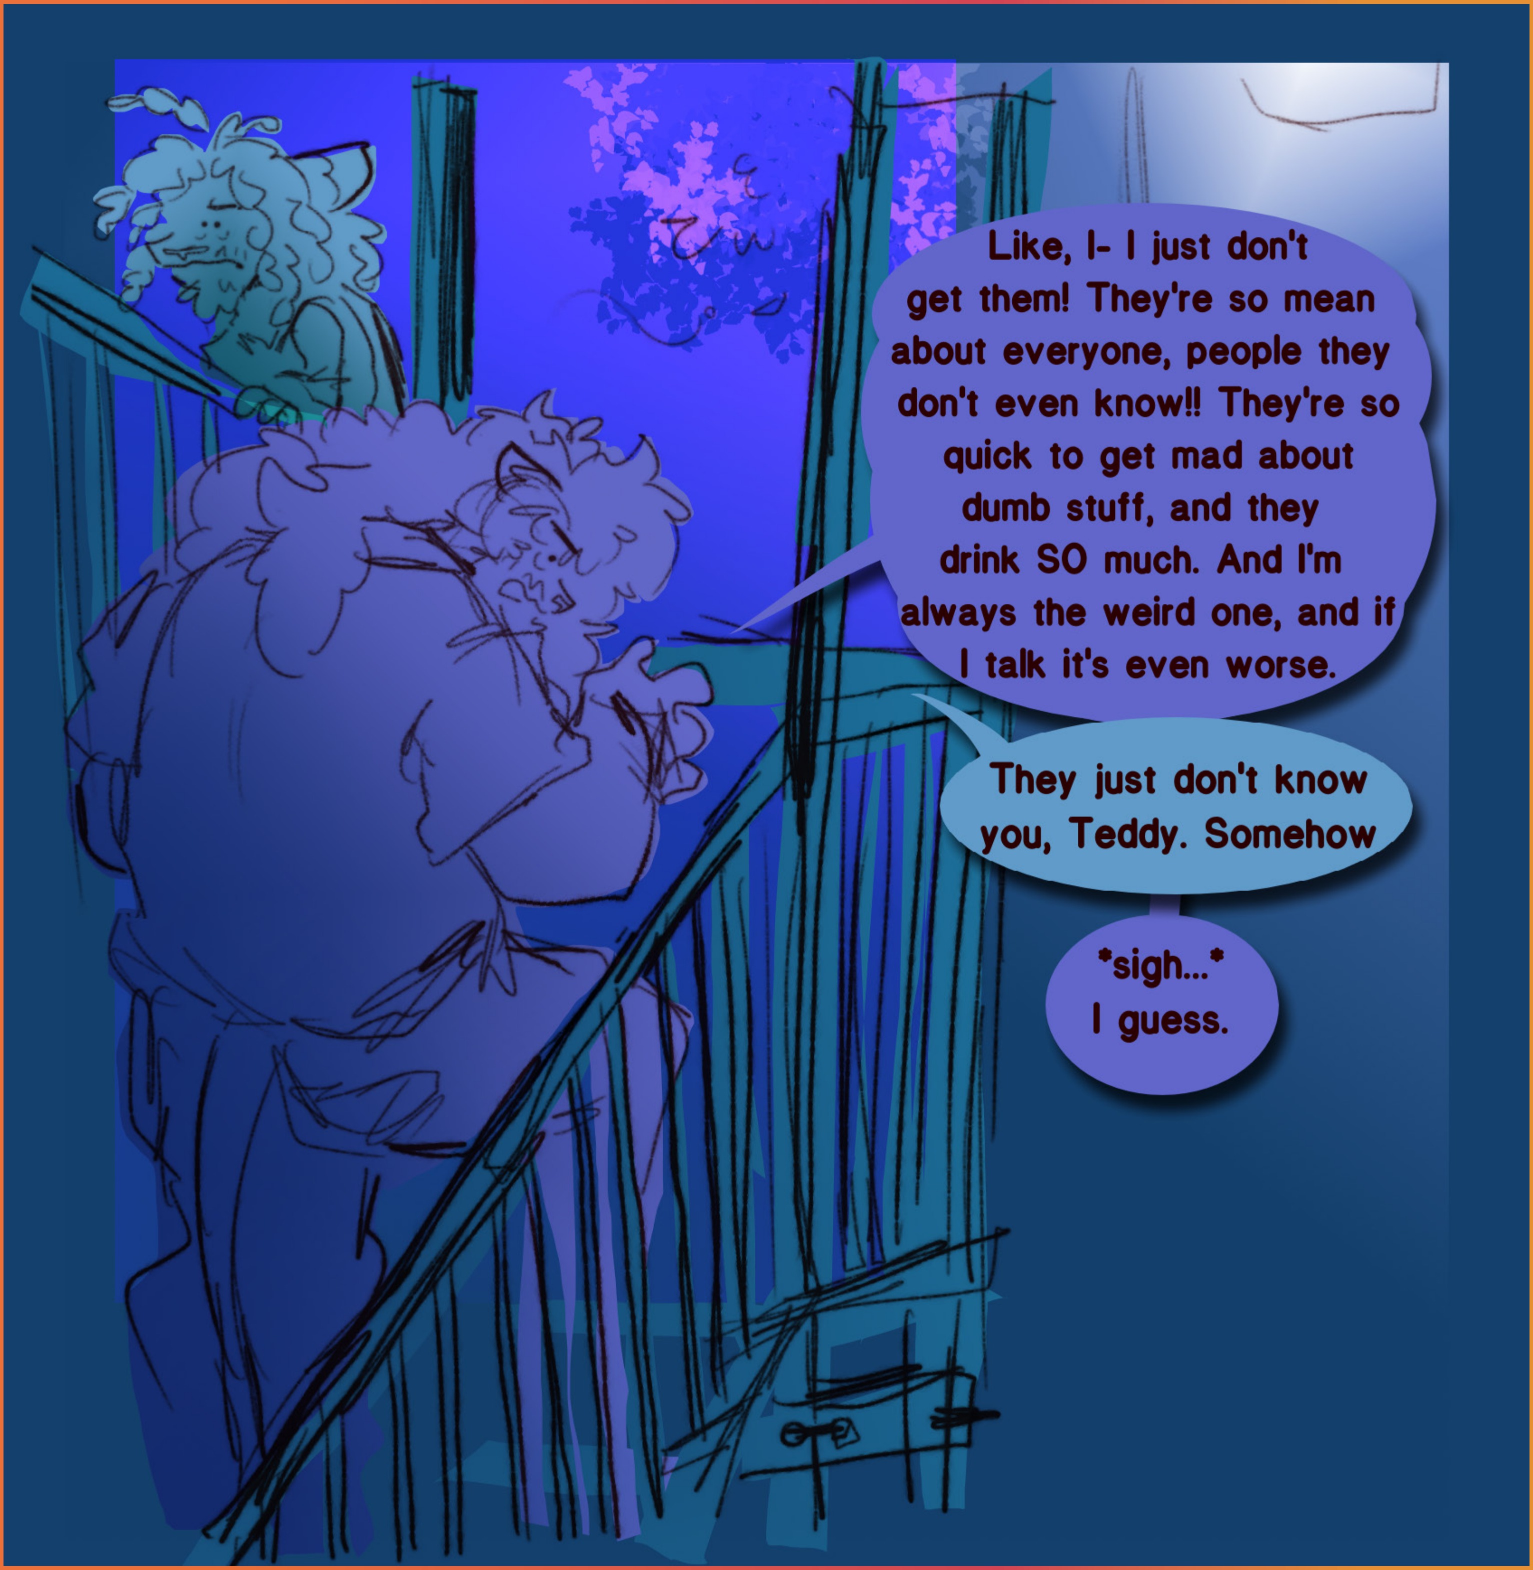
But it just doesn't make any sense, there's CLEARLY a pathway emerging and no one's taking it. Everyone's too scared or too lazy to try and go for it.



Like, I- I just don't get them! They're so mean about everyone, people they don't even know!! They're so quick to get mad about dumb stuff, and they drink SO much. And I'm always the weird one, and if I talk it's even worse.
They just don't know you, Teddy. Somehow sigh... I guess.

I don't know.
I'm sorry for being amanda bitch and moan. maybe i'm just tired.
Well, hon, I know that tie is killing you. And so are those pants, so see if it helps to get out of em. I'll call Ada up for Egregarious Aliens, it's almost 11.

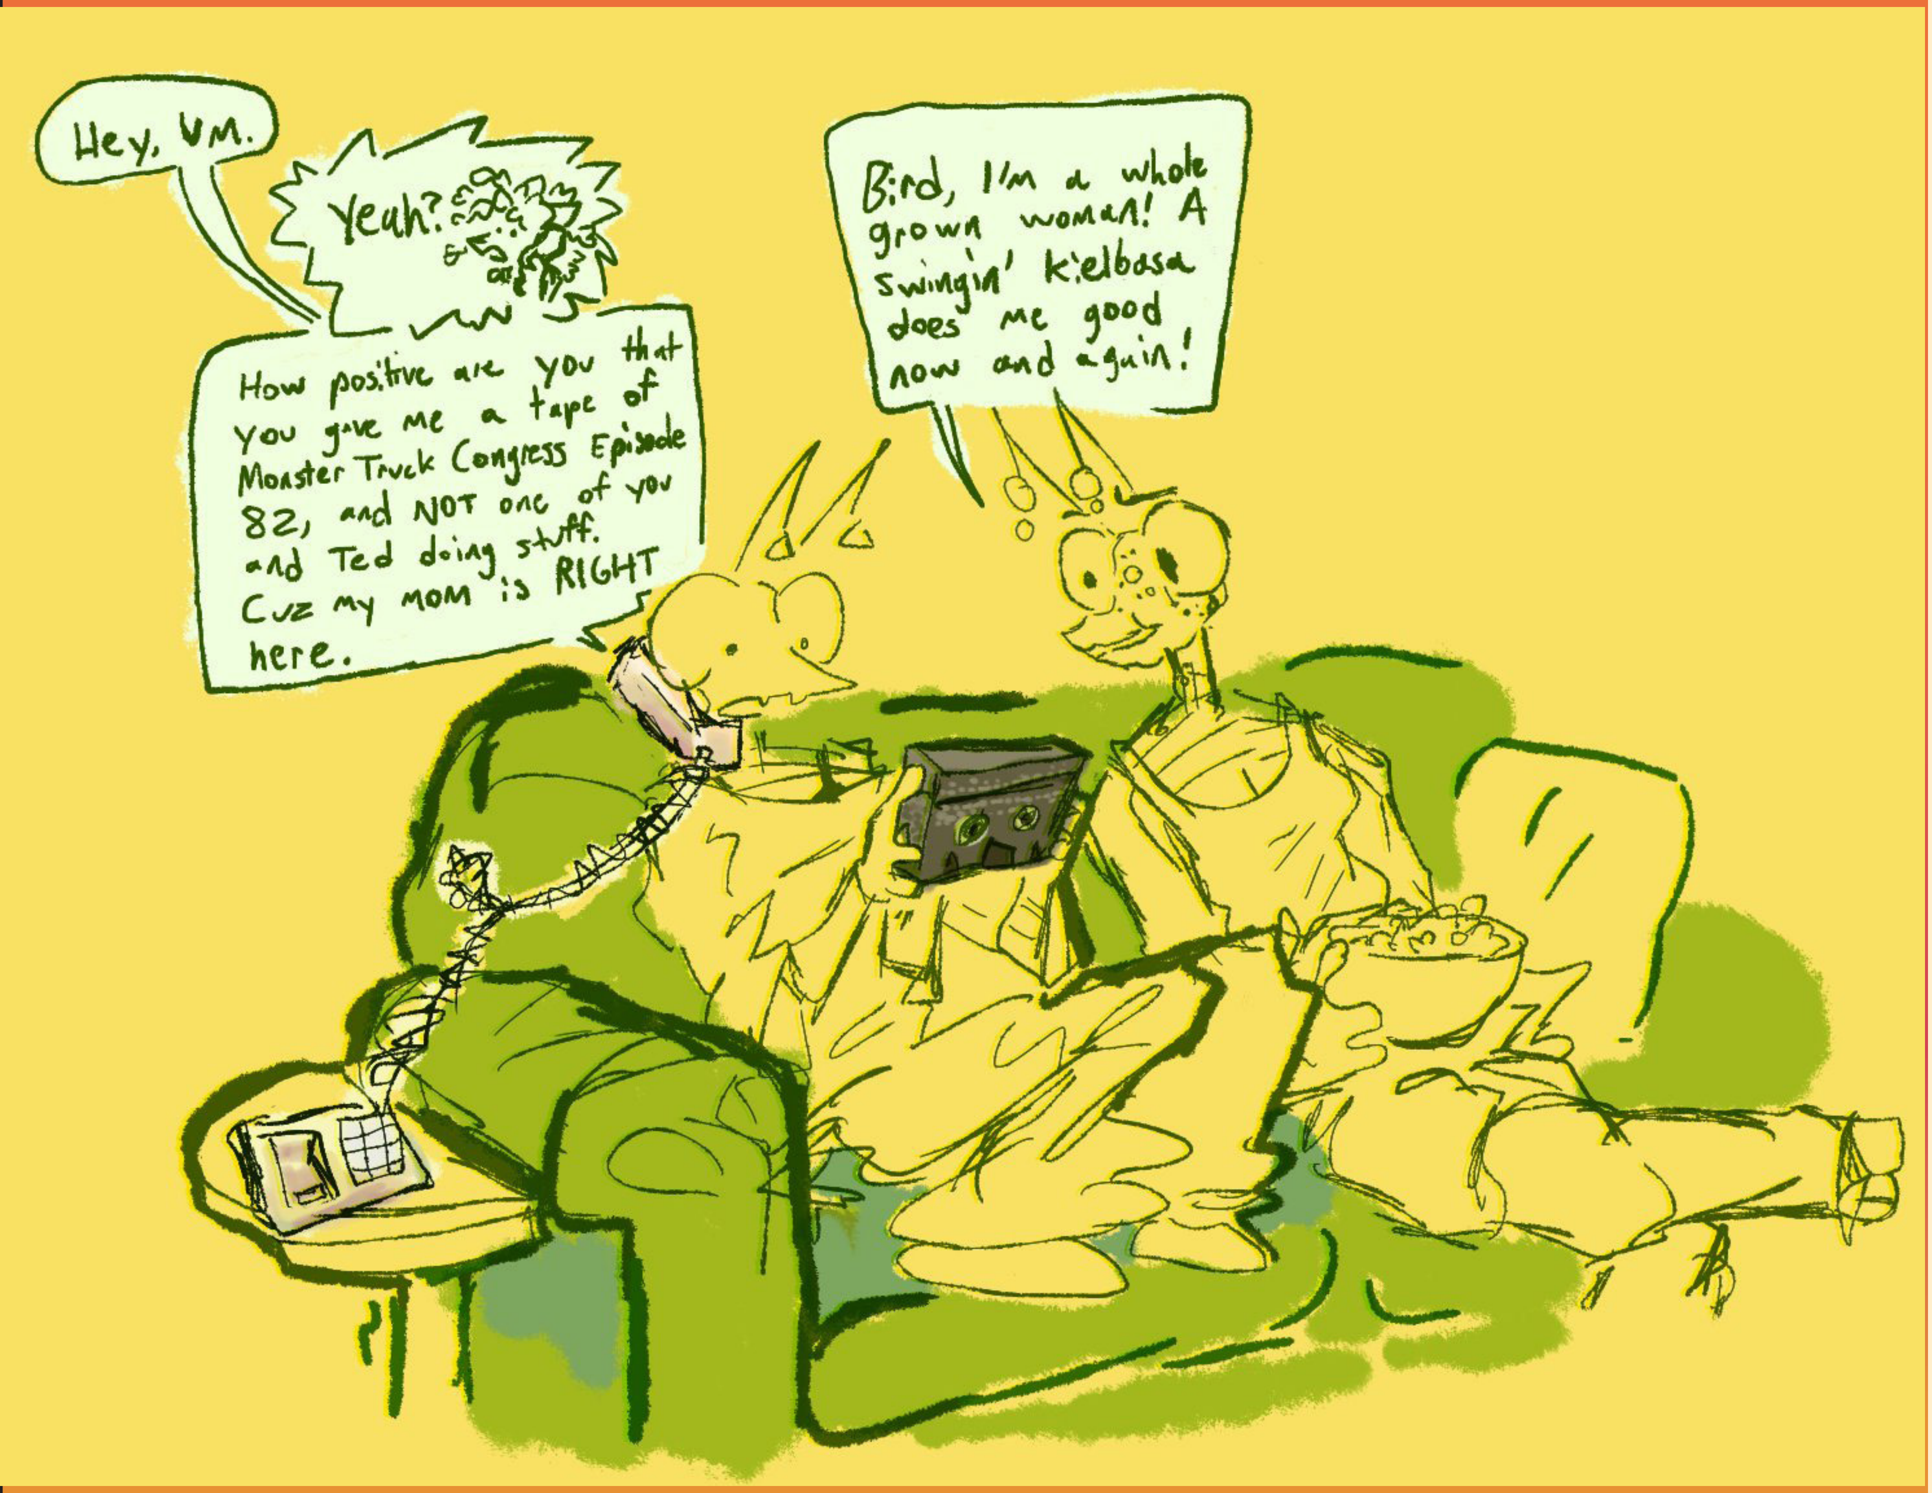
Something on your mind? Hm? Hmm? Hmmmmm?
Shhh.
Oh my god. Shush. Shut it. I'm thinking that if anyone at this pool knows us this'll do a lot of damage to our roommate narrative.
Can you at least try to look a little less like you're enjoying this? Sit more heterosexually.
heheh
I don't see the problem. Straight dudes probably enjoy being protected from UV rays just as much!



Hey, UM.
Yeah?
How positive are you that you gave me a tape of Monster Truck Congress Episode 82, and NOT one of you and Ted doing stuff. Cuz my MOM is RIGHT here.

Hey uuuh I haven't posted in this sub before but since we're celebrating Pride this is one of my favorite pictures of the sweet lil guy i'm living with :) We've been together a lil over six years & we're out to his parents who are actually very supportive, but that's about it for now, just being careful cause we're in a kinda smallish town. I don't get scared about it usually, though, even though he's a big worrier <3 we'd probably be married if the state was good for it yet. but who knows maybe we'll work something out someday!! we met when we were real little and were best friends, and after high school we bumped back into each other and found out we could smooch each other which was crazy rad!!! XD Oh, and my favorite story... it might not be that much of a story, but when we were kind of early on with our dating he would come over to my apartment and I'd try to show him how to play games and stuff and it was fun, we would get all cozy and it was generally just chill and nice!! (Those who know me from the BOF and OEDZ subs... he likes both of them!! :D) But then one time he came over and he asked ME about a game he heard about at work, Petzit, and asked if he could make an account.... I could not get him out of the apartment for days. My account got banned from the Petzit sub cause he kept opening threads asking about things he was worried were wrong with his kitty Lucy, like her blood pressure or how many carbs she was eating and if it was too much, even though none of those stats existed in-game!! ToT

I kinda hate this one. A learning experience for me not to do whatever the background is purrrrrr....

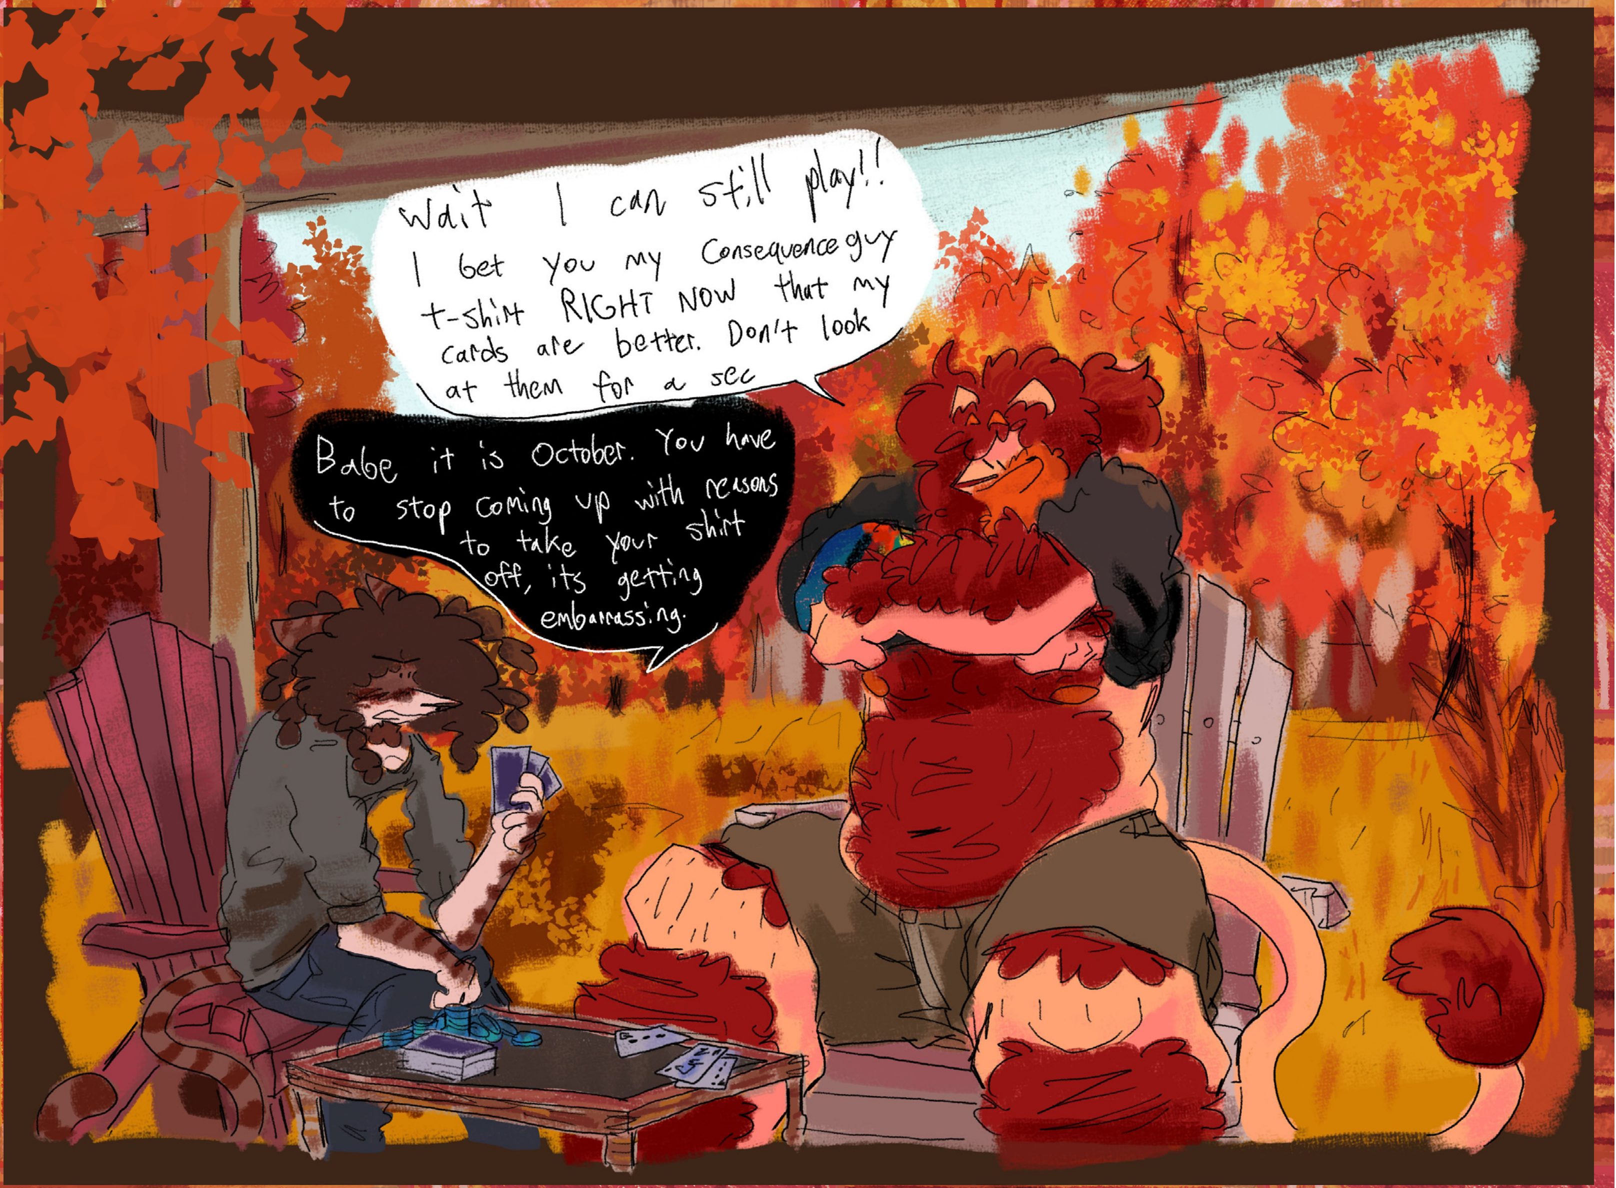
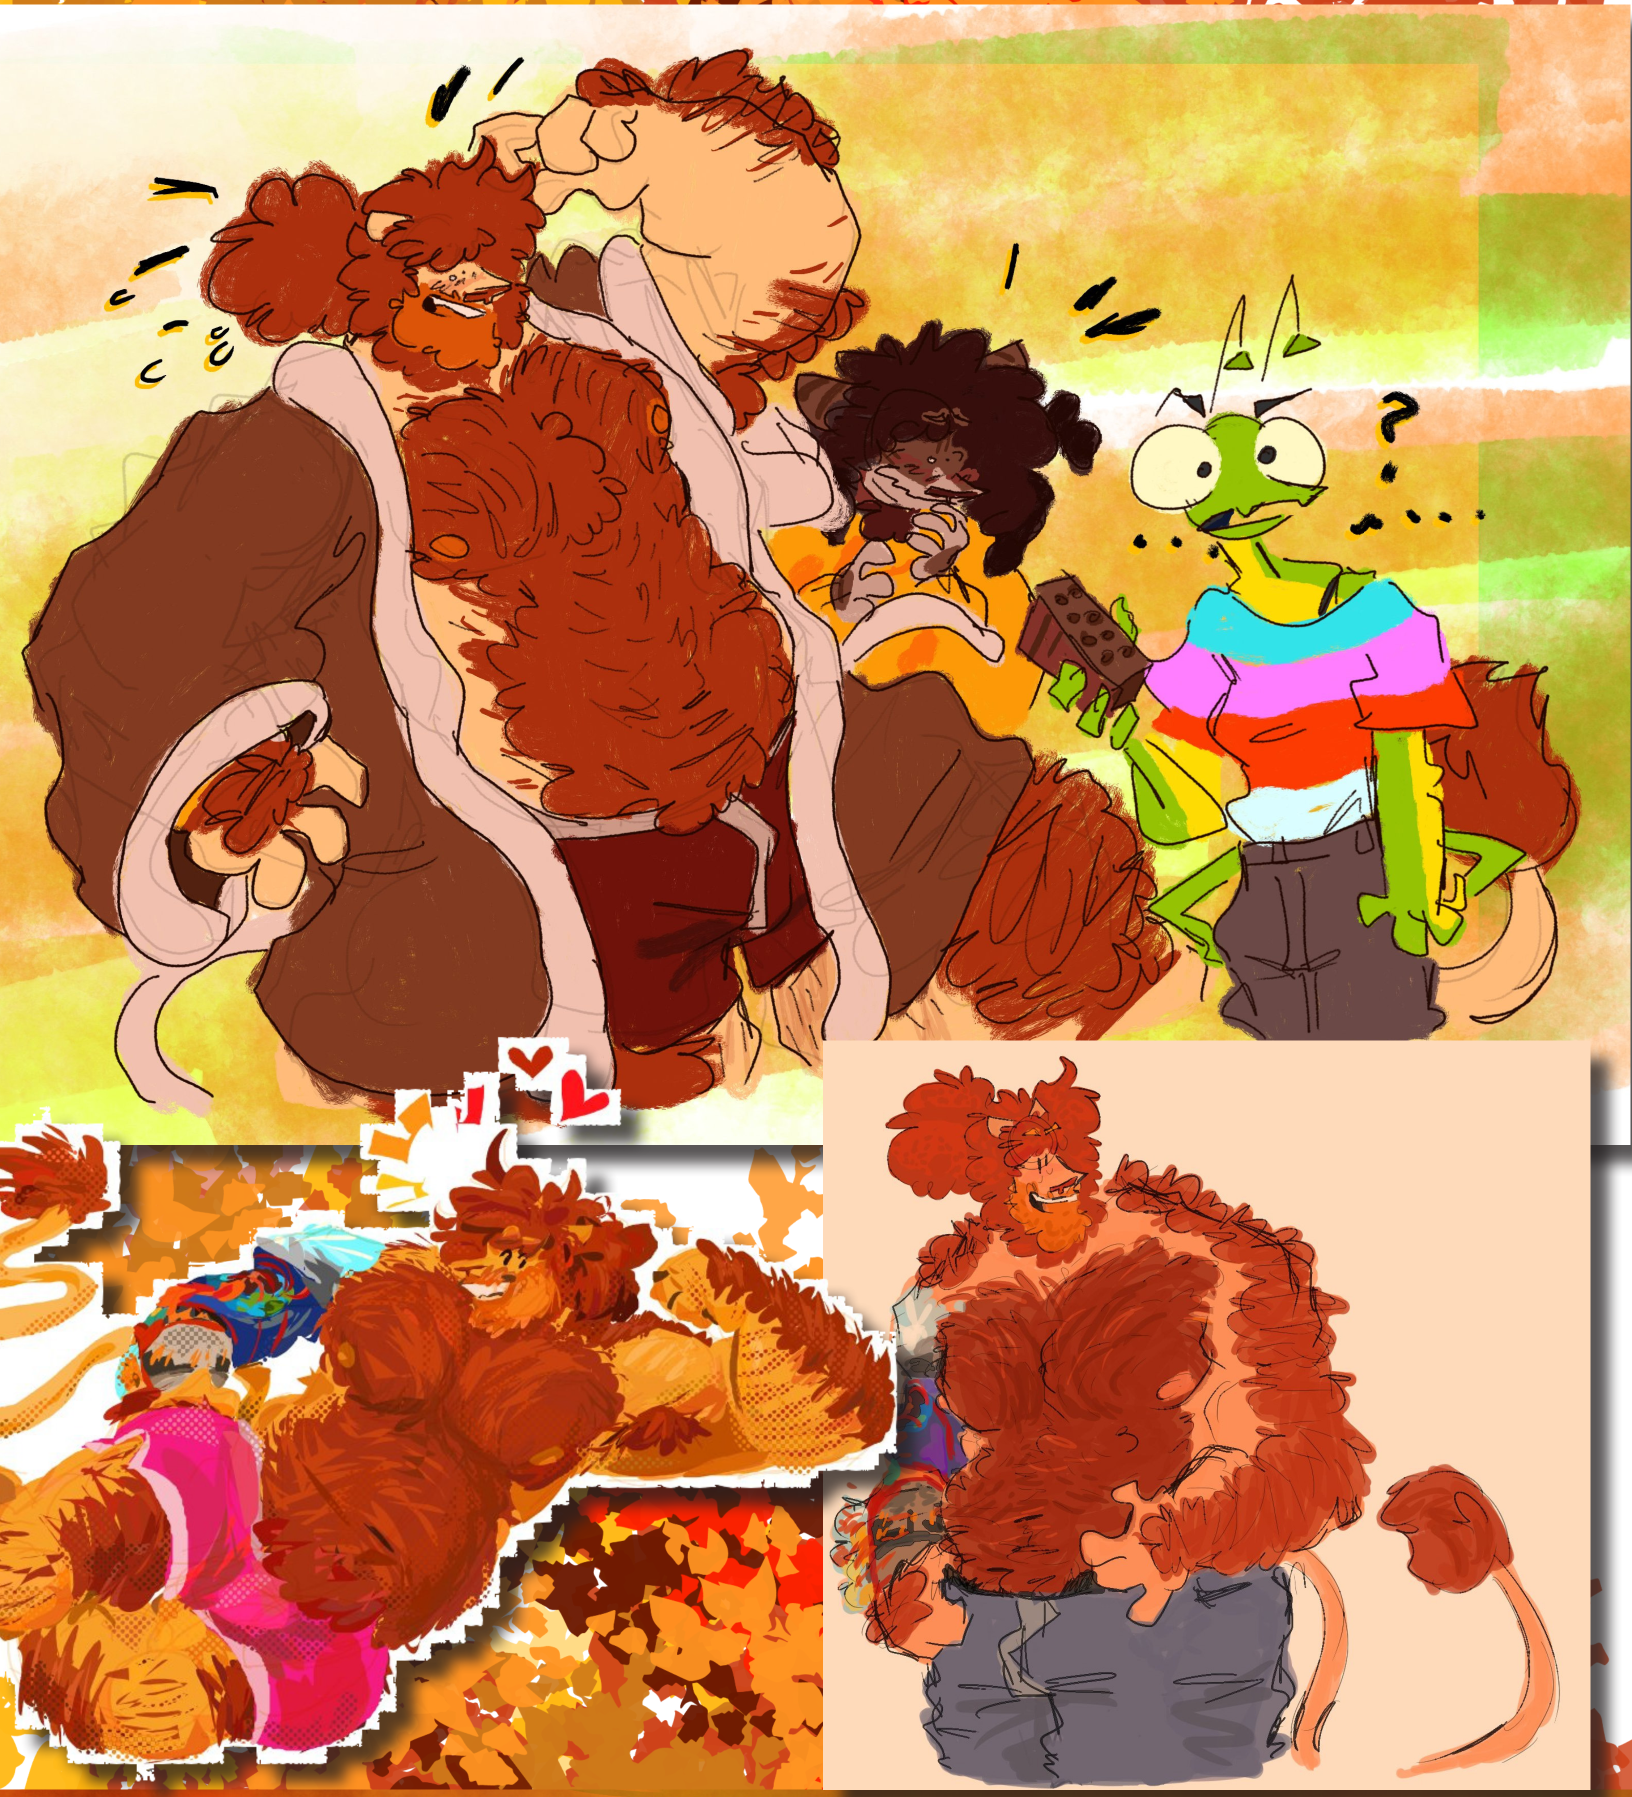
I don't get this babe
I feel like this is metro
FUR MOISTURE
It's one thing to be metro, it's another to shed everywhere and crunch when your boyfriend bumps into you

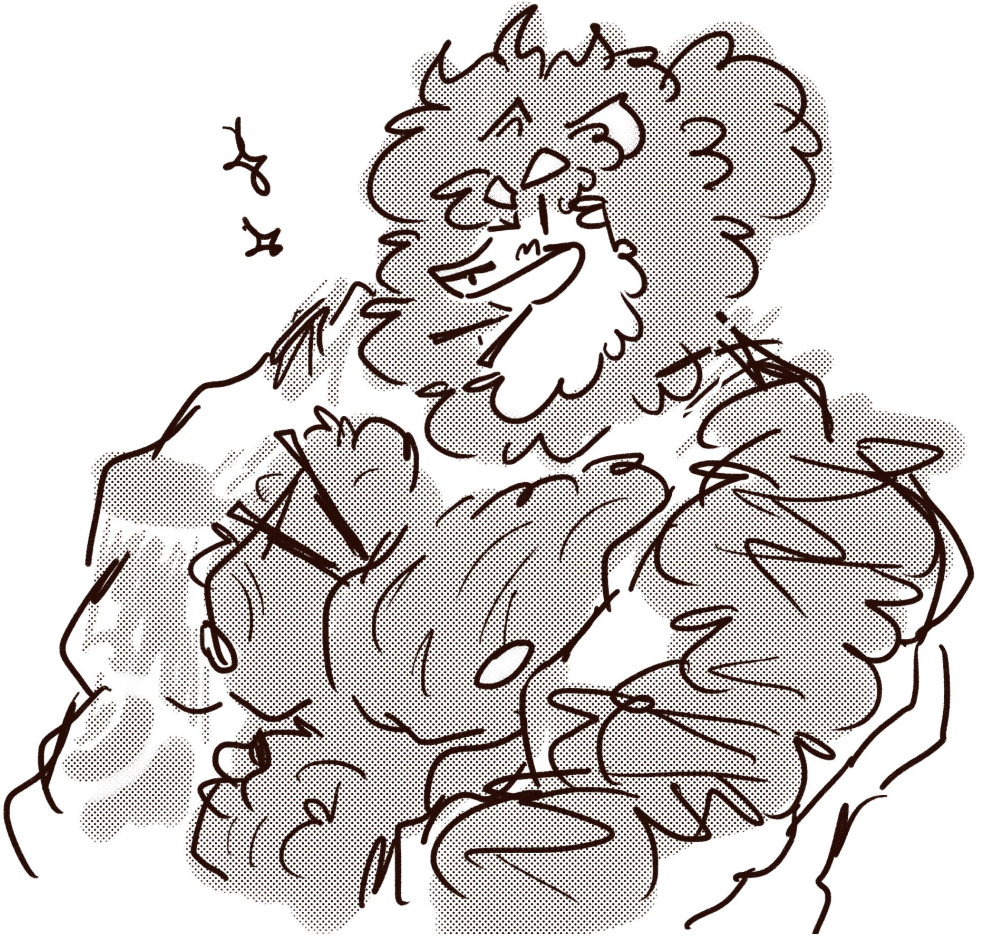


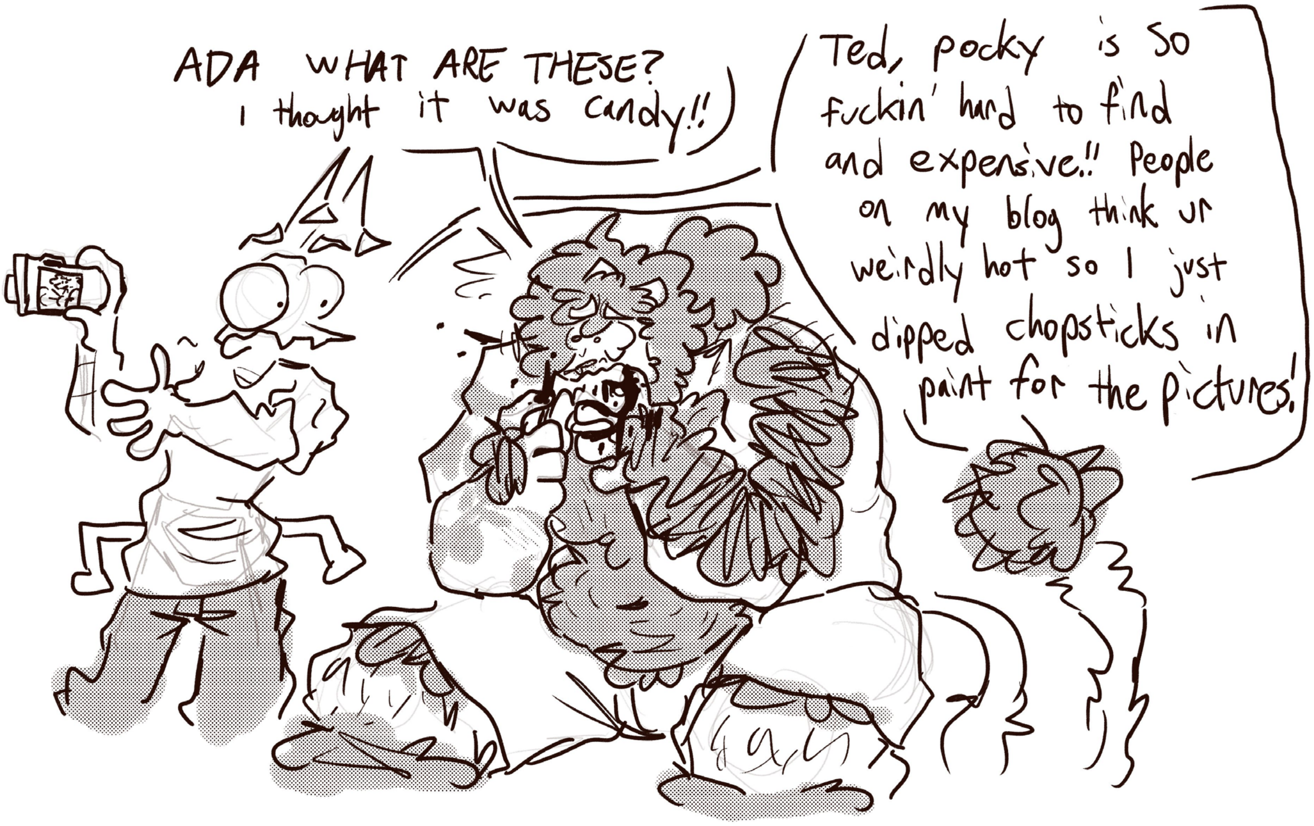
Wait I can still play!! I bet you my Consequence guy t-shirt RIGHT NOW that my cards are better. Don't look at them for a sec
Babe it is October. You have to stop coming up with reasons to take your shirt off, its getting embarrassing.

Upon review the author would like to note:
Toby's dialogue is bad here. See rewrite below:

"Uh huh."







ADA WHAT ARE THESE?
i thought it was candy!!
Ted, pocky is so fuckin' hard to find and expensive!! People on my blog think ur weirdly hot so I just dipped chopsticks in paint for the pictures!

Pocky is an expensive imported item in Harbor City I guess... very unfortunate for Ted here. I should bring back the idea of Ada's blog what should he do about this?

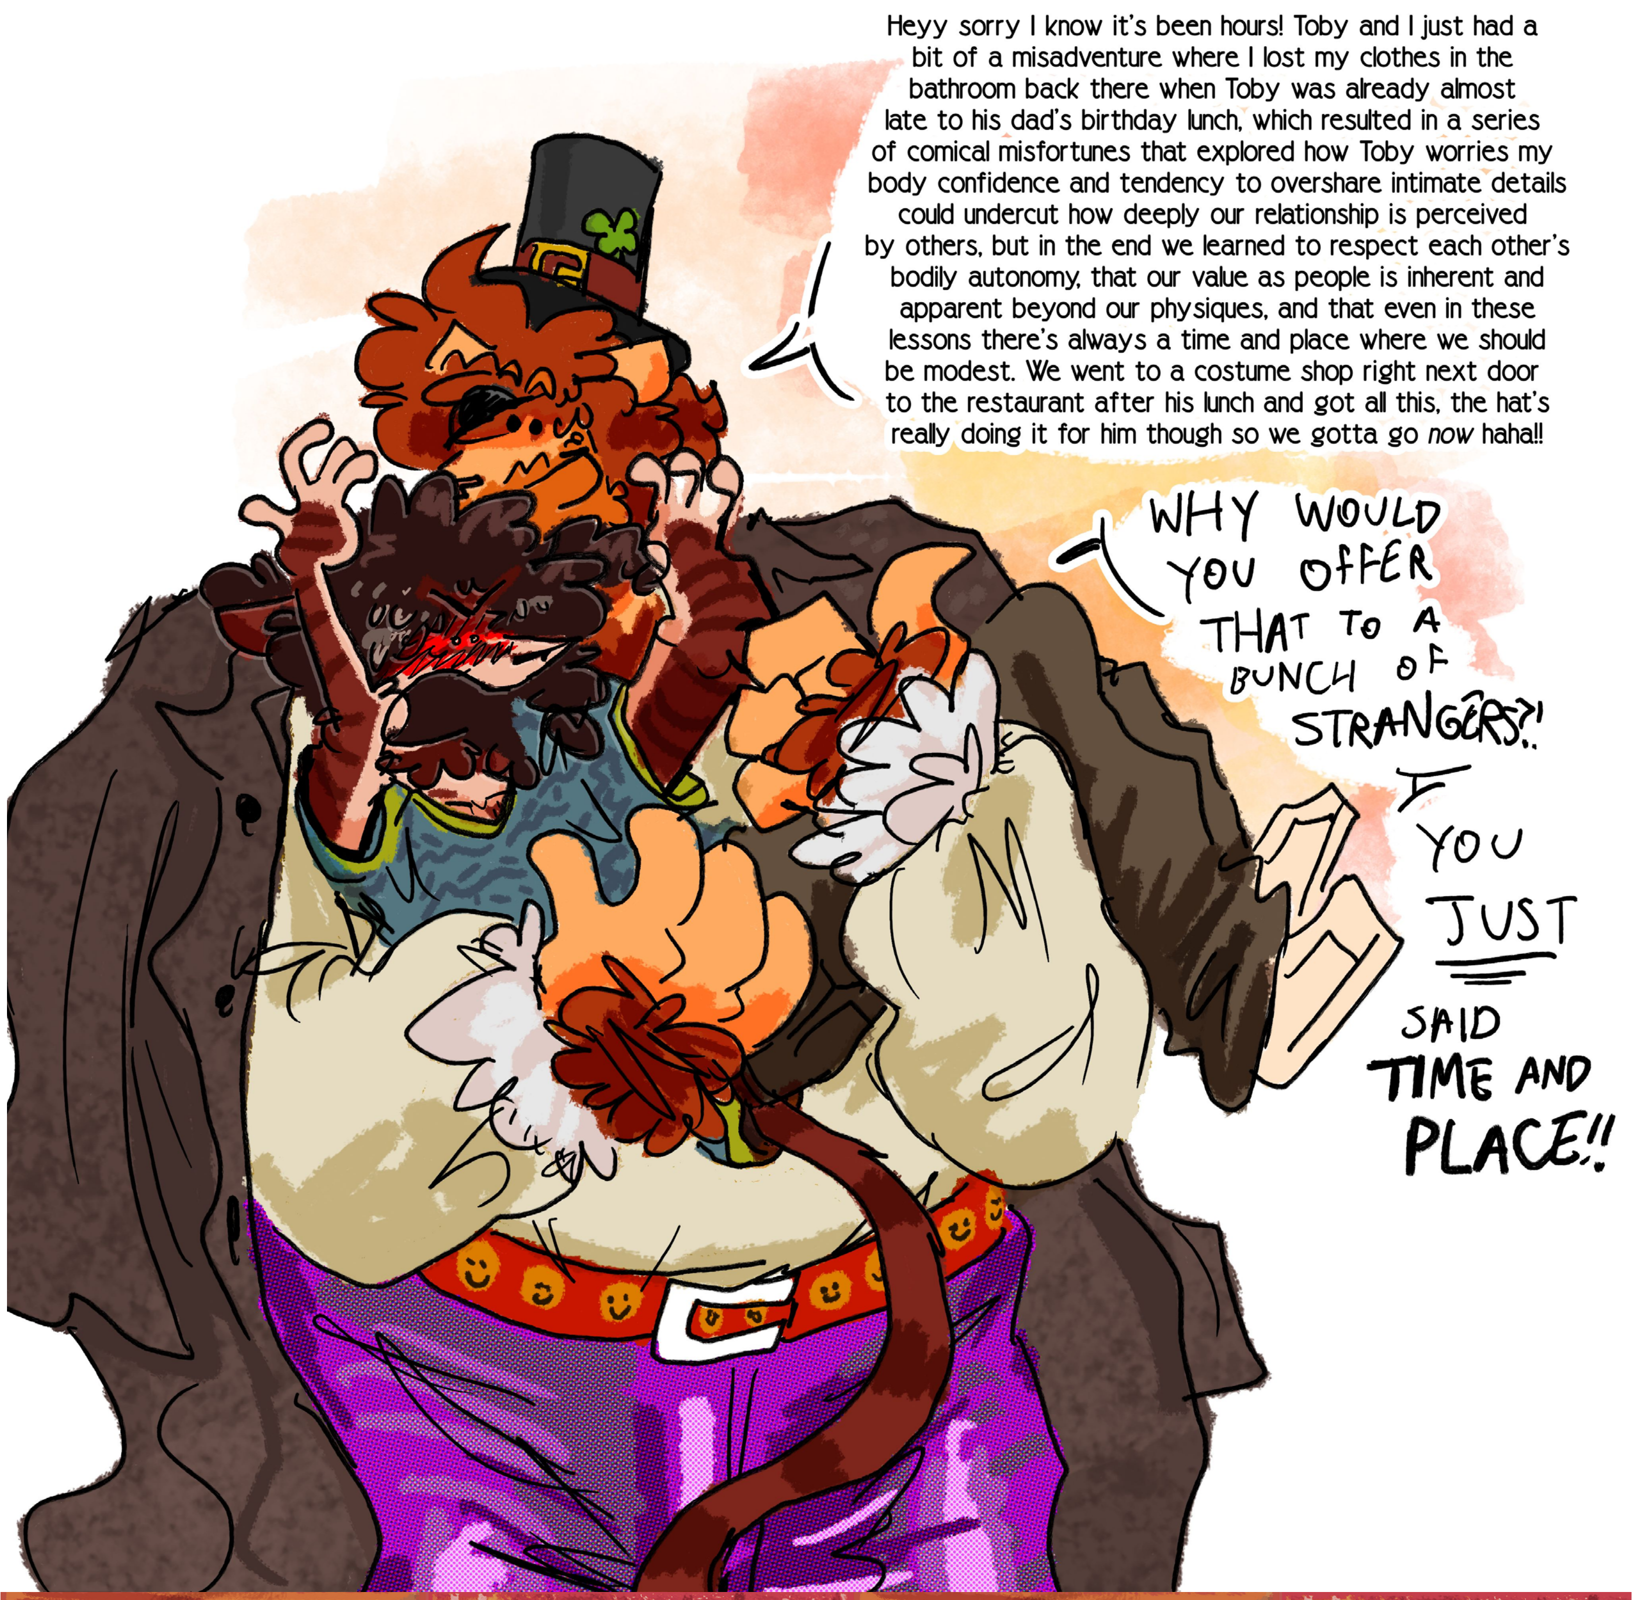
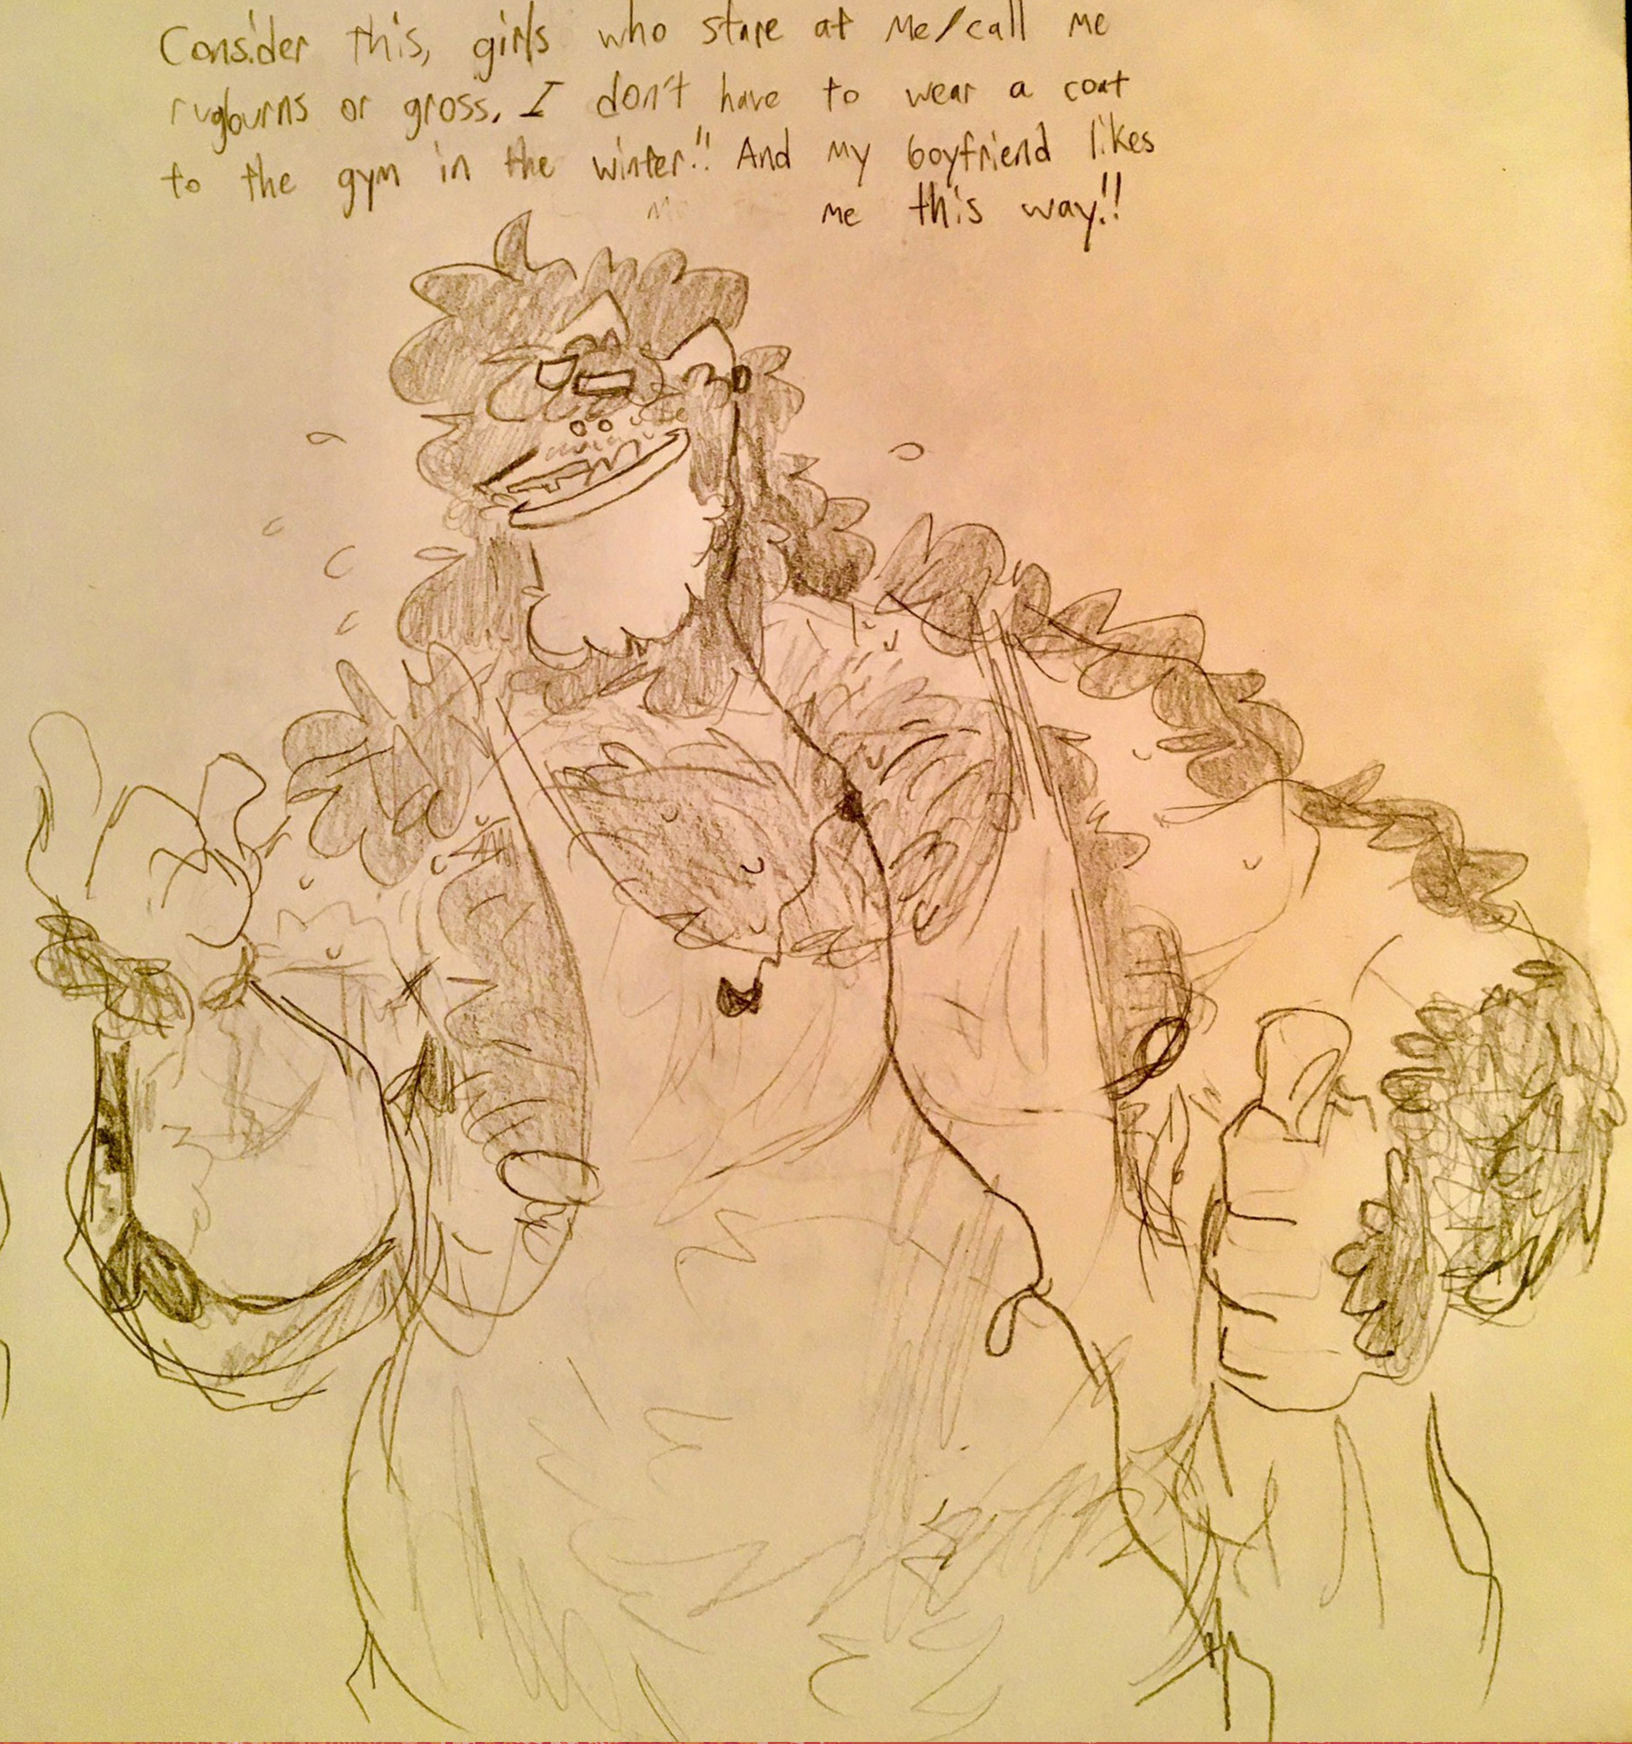
seems like a pretty pointless and easily resolved conflict but he still is gonna need help.

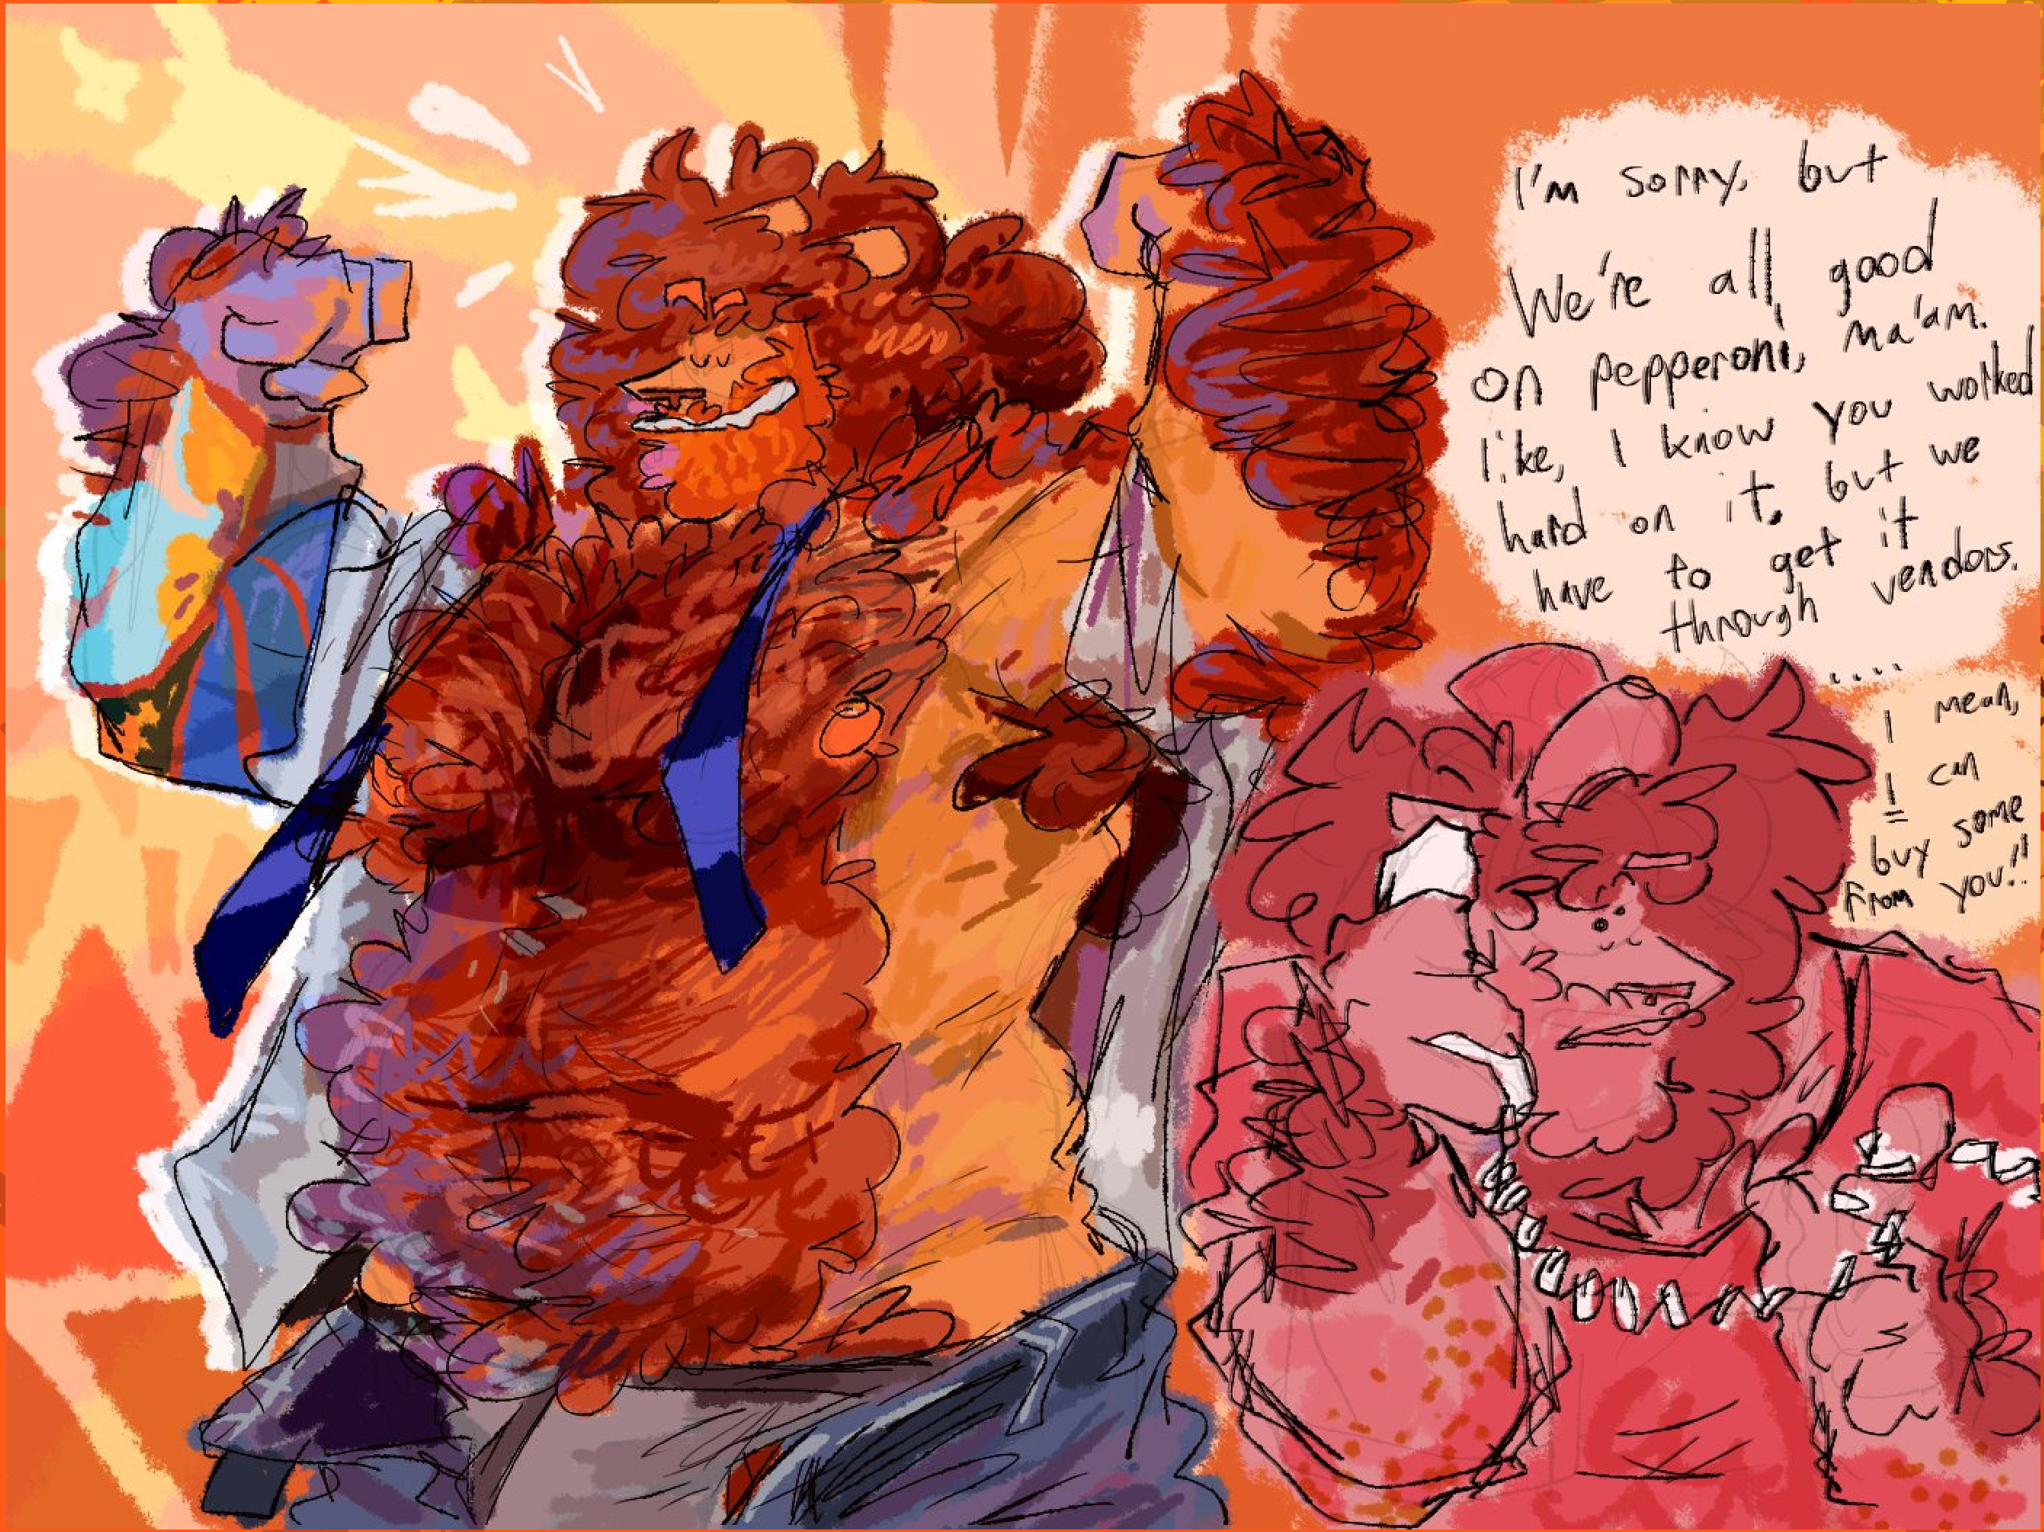


Heyy sorry I know it's been hours! Toby and I just had a bit of a misadventure where I lost my clothes in the bathroom back there when Toby was already almost late to his dad's birthday lunch, which resulted in a series of comical misfortunes that explored how Toby worries my body confidence and tendency to overshare intimate details could undercut how deeply our relationship is perceived by others, but in the end we learned to respect each other's bodily autonomy, that our value as people is inherent and apparent beyond our physiques, and that even in these lessons there's always a time and place where we should be modest. We went to a costume shop right next door to the restaurant after his lunch and got all this, the hat's really doing it for him though so we gotta go now haha!!
WHY WOULD YOU OFFER THAT TO A BUNCH OF STRANGERS?!
YOU JUST SAID TIME AND PLACE!!



Consider this, girls who stare at Me/call me rugburns or gross, I don't have to wear a coat to the gym in the winter!! And my boyfriend likes me this way!!

I alwys think it's kind of funny when he talks about girls. Like he very much leans towards men but if beautiful women say mean things to him he gets his feelings hurt. Poor thing



I'm sorry, but We're all good on pepperoni, ma'am. like, I know you worked hard on it, but we have to get it through vendors.
I mean, I can buy some from you!!

I mean, this tattoo is really special to me, I was about sixteen when I got sent— I was kind of, like, volunteering/attending this summer camp, and they sent me to clean up this graffiti some kids left, but it was absolutely beautiful and I took a picture of it, and.... sorry. anyway, I don't know I might get another one! I thought about one on my belly but, like, that shit would be completely impossible to see through all this, haha.
